OREGON CITY, OREGON, FEB. 5, 1876.

A LEGAL ATTACHMENT.

Bless me, "Bess," when I declare A title deed's my heart, And you the party of the first,
And I the second part.
That I have an attachment true Is useless to mention;
In vain I seek to serve you And arrest your sweet attention.
You know you owned some love for me When I the question mooted, But now it seems to me you act As if you were not suited.

My case is one in equity:
I've pleaded with precision;
You know the points, why will you then So long reserve decision?

I make no dilatory plea:
I'm driven to distraction; Unless I soon obtain relief, I'm sure I shall take action.

At first a civil suit I'll bring At Cupid's special session; And there, a judge, you shall ask For judgment by confession.

Now don't demur when this you read, But own you feel compunction, For I my suit will prosecute In spite of your objection.

And if, my judgment in despite,
You will not hear me still,
I'll get an order from the court To administer your will.

I trust you'll file an answer brief
To this my demand;
Or else I shall proceed to make A cross-examination.

LAW OF THE STATE OF OREGON.

An Act to create the County of Lake and fix the salaries of County Judge and Treasurer.

Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon:

Section 1. That all that portion of the State of Oregon embraced within the following boundary lines, be, and the same are hereby, created and organized into a separate county by the name of Lake, to-wit: Beginning on the forty-second parallel of north latitude at a point where said parallel is intersected by the east boundary of township No. 23, east of the Willamette Meridian, thence due north on said township line to the south boundary line of township No. 22 south of the Oregon base line, thence due west on said township line to the east boundary line and the east boundary line of Douglas county, thence to the south-east corner of said Douglas county, thence to, and south on the east boundary of township No. 42 east of the Willamette Meridian to 42 deg., parallel of north latitude, thence due east along said parallel to the place of beginning.

Sec. 2. The territory embraced within said boundary lines shall compose a county for all civil and military purposes, and shall be subject to the same laws and restrictions and entitled to elect the same officers as other counties in this State. Provided, That it shall be the duty of the Governor, as soon as convenient after this Act shall be passed, to call for a general election in Lake county, and from all resident citizens, the several county officers allowed by law to other counties of the State, which said officers, after duly qualifying, according to law, shall be entitled to hold their respective offices until their successors are duly elected, at the general election of 1876, and have duly qualified as required by law.

Sec. 3. The temporary county seat of Lake county shall be located at Lakeview, in said county, until a permanent location is adopted. At the next general election the question shall be submitted to the legal voters of said county, and the place, if any, which shall receive a majority of all the votes cast at said election, shall be the permanent county seat, but if no place shall receive a majority of all the votes cast, the question shall be again submitted to the legal voters of said county between the two places having the highest number of votes at said election, at the next general election, and the place receiving the highest number of votes at such election shall be the permanent county seat of said county.

Sec. 4. The legal electors of Lake county shall be entitled to elect, at the general election of 1876, and thereafter, until otherwise provided by law, one member of the House of Representatives while the county of Jackson shall be entitled to elect but two, and said county shall for Senatorial purposes be annexed to the 10th senatorial district.

Sec. 5. The County Clerk of Jackson county shall send to the County Clerk of Lake county within thirty days after this Act becomes a law, a certified transcript of all the land taxes from the assessment roll of 1874 that was assessed within the limits of Lake county, and also a certified transcript of the assessment for persons and property within the limits of Lake county for 1874, and the said taxes shall be payable to the proper officers of Lake county. The County Treasury of Lake county shall, out of the first money collected for taxes, pay over to the Treasurer of Jackson county the full amount of State tax on the assessment roll of 1874 due from the citizens of Lake county; the said Clerk of Jackson county within the above limited, a transcript of all cases pending in the County and Circuit Courts of Jackson county, and transfer all original papers in said cases to be tried in Lake county.

Sec. 6. The said county of Lake is hereby attached to the first Judicial District for judicial purposes, and the term of the Circuit Court of said District shall be held annually at the county seat of said Lake county on the fourth Monday of June and November in each year until otherwise provided by law.

Sec. 7. The County Court of Lake county shall be held on the first Monday of every month, and the next after the appointment by the Governor of said county officers, as provided for in this Act.

Sec. 8. Until otherwise provided for, the County Court of Lake county shall receive an annual salary of three hundred dollars.

Sec. 9. The County Treasurer of Lake county shall receive an annual salary of one hundred dollars.

Approved October 24th, 1874.

S. F. CHADWICK,

Secretary of State.

A SAD OUTLOOK.—Young man, you feel a superiority to the human race, as you stand at the altar with your fair young bride. You would not change places with the President.
Yet a few short, short years, a few whiskers of a broom handle, an untimely stoppage or two of waisted flat-irons, and your weary body will rest under the swaying willow, while some young gallant will bring your late afflicted partner out to the cemetery on calm Sabbath evenings and whisper love in her ears, together they strew peanut shells over your grave. "Oh, why should the spirit of mortal be proud."

ABRANT COQUETRY.—It is the character of coquettes to go as far as they can in love-making, remarks the New York Herald, without committing themselves, or, if committed, they try to escape by putting off the nuptials to a hopelessly distant day.
The Senate Finance bill is a piece of arrant coquetry, in which party politics make deceitful advances to the finance. The marriage of our paper currency to coined money is to be postponed for four years, subject to all the slips and accidents which may intervene in that long period.

WANTED TO EARN A QUARTER.—An Akron physician tells of a little Akron boy who came to him and said "Doctor, I want some ipecac." "What do you want it for?" "Never mind, just give it to me." "Who sent you here?"
"Nobody sent me, come myself." "I can't let you have it unless you tell me what you are going to do with it." "Well, Doctor, our hired girl has swallowed a silver quarter, and she said that if I would give her something that would bring it up I might have it."

HE DID NOT GO.—"Wife," said the victim of a jealous rib, one day, "I intend to go to camp-meeting on Tuesday evening, to see the camp break up." "I think you won't," replied she. "I'll go if I see fit."
"You'll see fit if you go?" He did not go—probably on account of the rain.

A KIND HUSBAND.—An Indiana man bid $10 that he could ride the fly-wheel of a saw-mill, and as his widow paid the bill, she remarked: "William was a kind husband, but he didn't know much about flywheels."

RE.—The other day a Binghamton girl offered to let a countryman kiss her for five cents. "I gad," exclaimed the bucolic youth, "that's dam cheap if a fellow only had the money."

GOT EVEN.—A sixteen year-old Springfield lass broke into a billiard saloon, last week, and carried away all the billiard balls, because her father spent his time and money there.

CREATED TO WONDER.—When a citizen of Paris, Mo., had taken out the sixteenth name from his will, the other day, he ceased to wonder what was the matter with the water.
