THE SUN. WEEKLY AND DAILY FOR 1875. THE APPROACH OF THE PRESIDEN-TIAL election gives unusual impor-tance to the events and developments of 1875. We shall endeavor to describe them 1875. We shall endeavor to describe them fully, faithfully and fearlessly.

She Weekly Sun has now attained a circulation of over seventy thousand copies. Its readers are found in every State and Territory, and its quality is well known to the public. We shall not only endeavor to keep it fully up to the old standard, but to improve and add to its variety and power.

The Weekly Sun will continue to be a improve and add to its variety and power.

The Weekly Sun will continue to be a thorough newspaper. All the news of the day will be found in it, condensed when unimportant, and at full length when of moment, and always, we trust, treated in a clear, interesting and instructive manner. It is our aim to make the Weekly Sun the best family newspaper in the world. It will be full of entertaining and appropriate reading of every sort, but will print noth-with be little of entertaining and appropriate reading of every sort, but will print nothing to offend the most scrupulous and deiecate taste. It will always contain the most interesting stories and romances of the day, carefully selected and legible printed.

The Agricultural Department is a prominent feature in the Weekly Sun, and its articles will always. articles will always be found fresh and useful to the farmer.

The number of men independent in polies is increasing, and the Weekly Sun is their paper especially. It belongs to no party, and obeys no dictation, contending for principle, and for the election of the best men. It exposes the corruption that disgraces the country and threatens the overthrow of republican institutions. It has no fear of knaves, and seeks no It has no fear of knayes, and seeks no favor from their supporters.

The markets of every kind and the fashions are reported in its columns.

The price of the Weekly Sun is one dollar a year for a sheet of eight pages, and fifty-six columns. As this barely pays the expenses of paper and printing, we are not able to make any discount or allow any premium to friends who may make special efforts to extend its circulation. Under the new law, which required nayment cial efforts to extend its circulation. Under the new law, which required payment of postage in advance, one dollar a year, with twenty cents the cost of prepaid postage added, is the rate of subscription. It is not necessary to get upa club in order to have the Weekly Sum at this rate. Anyone who sends one dollar and twenty cents will get the paper, post-paid, for a year.

We have no traveling agents.
