MEND YOUR OWN WAYS.

A gentleman once passing by A field where furze was growing, Espied a laborer at work Among the furze shrubs hoeing.

He wore a discontented look, And often fell to sighing; At every blow made with the hoe, Oh, Adam!" he kept crying.

"Why do you say, 'Oh, Adam!' friend, And sigh amid your hoeing?" "Had Adam been less curious "These furze had not been growing.

"But since he sinned, thistles and thorns.
Within the fields keep springing,
And as I toil among the weeds, Nettles my hands are stinging."

The gentleman within him thought A lesson he would borrow To soothe his sighs, and so he said "Call at my house to-morrow."

The laborer called, but when he saw The mansion's golden splendor, The garden fair, flow rets rare, And fruits, luscious and tender;

He questioned, as he vainly strove, His murmuring thoughts to smother "Why should I toil and all this wealth Be given to another?"

"On one condition these are yours, Keep it if you are able. Look not under the pewter plate That lies upon the table

His joy was full, and blessings rare He breathed upon the stranger And hought that of the pewter plate There need be little danger.

Only a week or two had in luxury and pleasure.

Ere he grew curious to legar Upon the hidden treasure. "I'll lift it carefully," he said,
"No one is near to breathe it,

And slyly take a peep to see What is concealed beneath it." He raised the curious pewter plate, And looked with eyes of wonder,

When lo! a little captive mouse, Jumped quickly out from under! He laid it down Alas! Alas!

It were a vain endeavor To rectify the sad mistake, His doom was sealed forever. "Why is it friend," the good man said, "Your bliss so soon is ended? Too late you've learned, conditions are Far better kept than mended. A Young Voter. - The following testimony was taken by the Alabama

Investigating committee of the House. The negro witnesses imported here are said to be thoroughly drilled before they are examined, but in one instance at least, a witness was imperfectly instructed. He was an ebony-hued darkey, and he declared very positively that he couldn't vote at the last election because he was "timidated." He said he went to the polls but wasn't allowed to put in his wete-he was "timidated." When asked how he was intimidated, he replied that there were white men at the polls who had guns, pistols, knives and whips, and that they told him he couldn't vote, and so he went home.

Mr. Coburn was delighted. He wanted no better witness, and he was about to tell the intimidated darkey to retire, when Mr. Lutirell asked the witness: " How old are you?"

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Is widely known as one of the most effectual remedies ever discovered for cleansing the sys-tem and purifying the blood. It has stood the test of years, with a constantly growing reputation, based on its intrinsic virtues, and sustained by its remarkable cures. So mild as to be safe and beneficial to children, and yet so searching as to effectually purge out the great cor-ruptions of the blood, such as the scrofulous and syphilitic contamination. Impurities, or diseases that have lurked in the system for years, soon yield to this powerful anti-dote, and disappear. Hence its wonderful cures, many of which are publicly known, of Scrofula, and all scrofulous diseases, Ulcers, Eruptions, and eruptive disorders of the skin, Tumors, Blotches, Boils, Pimples, Pustules, Sores, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipe-las, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, and internal Ul-cerations of the Uterus, Stomach, and Liver. It also cures other complaints, to which it would not seem especially adapted, such as Dropsy, Dyspep-sia, Fits, Neuralgia, Heart Disease, Female Weakness, Debility, and Leucorrhoea, when they are manifestations of the scrofulous poisons

It is an excellent restorer of health and strength in the Spring. By renewing the appetite and vigor of the digestive organs, it dissipates the depression and listless lan guor of the season. Even where no disorder appears, people feel better, and live longer, for cleaning the blood. The system moves on with renewed vigor and a new lease of
