THE ENTERPRISE.

OREGON CITY, OREGON, APRIL 9, 1874. Sad Accident.

Last Salurday evening a most sad accident occurred in this place, resulted in the drowning of Samuel Newman current quite strong, it was necessary for boats to line out at the head of the basin. The crew, of which Mr. N. was man overboard. He was not observed man in the head and the was not observed man overboard. He was not observed nies with flaming posters and curiosifalling, but when first seen he was in ties outdoing those of master Spooner the rear of the boat swimming. There himself.

were a number of persons on shore, but it was impossible for them to rener" and der any assistance, as the waves were two high for any one to reach him, and besides, could any one have been able to get to his aid, he would either have reached a place of safety before they would have got to him, or have perished. He was within a short distance of a pile driver which lies sunk in the basin, when he was last seen, and those en shore hoped that he might be able to reach it, but he sank and came up no mere. Every possible effort was made to find his body, but the water was too muddy to make this a success. On Sunday and Monday the efforts were renewed, but without success, and up to the present time his remains have not been found. Mr. Newman has resided in this place for a number of years, and has a large family relation living here. He leaves a wife and three small chil-dren, the eldest not being but little over three years of age. On Sunday, a subscription list was circulated for the benefit of the widow and her three orphan children, and there has been subscribed over $400 for their relief, of which sum the O. S. S. Co. contributed $75, and the hands on the different boats gave most liberally. The sympathy of the community in behalf of the afflicted widow and the orphan children and relatives is extended to then, but this cannot but in a very limited degree relieve the sorrows of those who have been deprived of their husband, futher and brother.

School Meeting. "

The school meeting last Monday evening for Oregon City District, was largely attended and considerable intrict. A resolution was adopted levying a tax of three mills on the property of the District to sustain the school for the present year. This sum will give ample meur : to keep up a good school and leave a mall sum over, which we trust the Directors will appropriate to ganization, and we would suggest to the present City Council to turn over to the Directors the school property in their hands, and if the present Council does not fel authorized to take such a step, the retter should be made an issue at the exteity election, and let it extelly election, and let it od that the Council is electbe under ed on the sue. This done, and the Directors vill be able to go on and improve the property and take care of it, and the District have a good school house. The result of Monday's meeting cannot be but of the greatest satisfaction to the friends of our public schools and the best prosperity of our EXCENTAINMENT. - The entertainment given last Wendesday evening by the children of the Episcopal Church was greeded byta large audience. The children certainly did more than well, and showed that they had been under thorough sining and did credit not only to the selves, but to their instruc-tor, Mr. Sellwood. Many of the pieces deserve special mention for their excellence. The recitations by some of the younger children were indeed good, and the operetta of Grand-pa's Birthday was beautiful and most excellent-ly rendered. It would bear repeating and is worth the entire price of admissingers in it showed good musical tal-ent, while Master LaForest sang his part to per ection, and little Miss Cochran won the admiration of the audione. Oh irand-pa, Mr. H. L. Kelly, acted and sang his part to perfection. We have not space to mention all in detail, but will say that all who took part did well, while some did most splendid. The entertainment was a grand success in every respect, and gave entire satisfaction.

DIED.-The young man Richard E Williams, who was so severely injured by being caught in the machinery of the City Mills, died in this place last Sunday night. All that kind parents, friends and medical aid could do for him was done, but to no avail, and after suffering most intensely for nearly three weeks, he passed away to the other world. The funeral took place last Wednesday from the Congregational Church, where a large and sympathetic audience were present, and a most beautiful and instructive sermom was delivered by Rev. Dr. Atkinson. While the perents of this young man are comparatively strangers in our place, the g d and noble qualities of long since endeared himtheir son h whole come nity deeply feel with the bereaved parents the affliction that has befallen them.

It is seldom that we notice anything in the medical line, nor would we now. unless we could be convinced that we are not doing our duty as a journalist in recommending to the public the celebrated botanical preparation of Dr. Henry. Whoever induces the victim of scrofula or any other disease of the blood, to use Dr. Henry's Extract of Sarsparilla, has begun a good work. There is no question as to the result of this medicine if persevered in. It is a sure cure for scrofula, rheumatism, Salt Rheum, and indeed all complaints arising from vitiated or impure blood. It is just what a good physician would prescribe for these complaints, and we confidently recommend it as being the best article now in use. Dr. Henry's Cough Balsam is the most affective remedy for affection of the throat or lungs that we have ever known. It contains no deleterious drugs, and can be taken with impunity and certainty of relief. For the cure of coughs colds. sore throat, etc., it stands without a rival.
