Oreaun m Enterprise,

DEVOTED TO POLITICS, NEWS, LITERATURE, AND THE BEST INTERESTS OF ORECON.

VOL. 9.

OREGON CITY, OREGON, FRIDAY, MAY 28, 1875.

NO. 31.

THE ENTERPRISE. A LOCAL DEMOCRATIC NEWSPAPER Prospectus for 1875-Eighth Year.

Farmer, Business Man, & Family Circle. ISSUED EVERY FRIDAY.

A. NOLTNER, EDITOR AND PUBLISHER.

OFFICIAL PAPER FOR CLACKAMAS CO. OFFICE-In ENTERPRISE Building, one door south of Masonic Building, Main St.

Terms of Subscription: Single Copy One Year, In Advance ..... $2.50 " Six Months "

Terms of Advertisingt Transient advertisements, including all legal notices, a square of twelve Business Card, I square, one year ...... -12.00

SOCIETY NOTICES. OREGON LODGE NO. 3, L. I. O. F.,

Meets every Thursday evening at 7% o'clock, in the O.14 Fellows' Hall, Main street. Members of the Order are invited to attend. By order

REBECCA DEGREE LODGE NO. 3. I. O. O. F., Meets on the Second and Fourth Tues-day evenings each month, at 7: o'clock, in the Odd r'ellows' Hall. Members of the Degree are invited to attend.

MULTNOMAH LODGE NO. 1, A. F. & A. M., Holds its regular communications on the First and Taird Saturdays in each month, at 7 o'clock from the 20th of Sep. tember to the 20th of March; and 75 o'clock from the 20th of March to the 29th of September. Brethren in good standing are invited to attend.

FALLS ENCAMPMENT NO. 1, LO. O. F., Mosts at O.I.I Fellows' A Mall on the First and Third Taesday of each month. Patriarchs in good standing are invited to attend.

CLIFF ENGAMPMENT NO. 2, C. H. C. Medy at Old Follows' Half, in Ore gen Che, Oregon, on Monday evening, at 15 deleas. Members of the order are in-M. C. ATHEY, C. J. M. BACON, R. S.

BUSINESS CARDS.

J. W. NORRIS, M. D., PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON, OREGON CITY, OREGON. arollee Up States in Charman's Brick

S. HUELAT ATTORNEY-AT-LAW:

OREGON CITY, - - BREGON. oF OFFICE -Charman's brick, Mainst.

JOHNSON & McCOWN

AFFORNASS AND COUNSELORS AT-LAW. Orogon City, Orogon.

er Will fractice in all the Courts of the State. Special attention given to cases in the U.S. Land Office at Oregon City. 5apr1872-tf.

L. T. BARIN

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, OREGON CITY, : : OREGON. OFFICE-Over Pope's Tin Store, Main Street, 21mar73-tf.

Dr. S. PARKER, ATE OF PORTLAMD, OFFERS HIS e people of Clackamas county, who may at any time be in need of a physician. He has opened an office at Ward & Harding's Drug Store where he can be found at all times of the day when not engaged in pro-fessional calls. Residence, Main Street, next door but one above R. Caufield's store. O dober 23, 1874. OREGON CITY BREWERY. Henry Humbel, at LIAVING PURCHASery wishes to inform the public that he is now prepared to manufacture a No. I qual-LAGRE BERR.

as good as can be obtained anywhere in the State. Orders solicited and promptly

W. H. HIGHFIELD.

Established since '49, at the old stand. Main Street, Oregon City, Oregon. An assortment of Wathes, Jewel-ry, and Seth Thomas' Weight Clocks all of which are warranted to be as ankful for past patronage.

LIVERY, FEED, AND SALE STABLE.

THE UNDERSIGNED PROPRIETOR OF the Livery Stable on Fifth street, Oregon City, Oregon, keeps constantly on hand Saddle and Buggy Horses, Buggies, Carriages and Hacks, Prices Reasonable. He will also run a hack to and from the

WILHOIT SODA SPRINGS

during the summer season, with good horses, competent and gentlemanly drivers. FARE AT LIVING RATES. Oregon City, May 27, 1873.

A Representative and Champion of American Art Taste!

THE ALDINE,

THE ART JOURNAL OF AMERICA, Issued Monthly. A Magnificent Conception, Wonderfully carried out,"

art journal, did not prove the indifference of the American people to the claims of high art. So soon as a proper appreciation of the want and an ability to meet it were shown, the public at once ralied with enthusiasm to its support, and the result was a great artistic and commercial triangle. a great artistic and commercial triumphpreciated after it is bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness, as compared with rivals of a similar class, The Aldine is an unique and original conception—alone and unapproached—absolutely without competition in price or character. The possessor of a complete volume could not duplicate the quantity of fine paper and engravings in any other shape or number of volumes for ten times its cost; and then there is the chromo besides!

PREMIUM FOR 1875 Every subscriber for 1875 will receive a beautiful portrait, in oil colors, of the same noble dog whose picture in a former issue attracted so much attentish

" Man's Unsalfish Friend" will be welcome in every home. Everybody loves such a dog, and the portrait is executed so true to the life, that it seems

Besides the chromo, every advance sub-scriber to The Aldine for 1875 is constituted a member, and entitled to all the privil-THE ALDINE ART UNION. The Union owns the originals of all the Aldine pictures, which, with other paintings and engravings, are to be distributed among the members. To every series of 5,000 subscribers, 100 different pieces, valued at over $2,500, are to be distributed as soon as the series is full, and the awards of each series as made, are to be published in the next succeeding issue of The Aidine. This feature applies only to subscribers who pay for one year in advance. Full particulars in circular sent on application enclosing a stamp TERMS. Our Subscription, entitling to THE ALDINE one year, the Chromo and the Art Union, $6 per Annum, in Advance.

(No charge for postage.) Specimen copies of THE ALDINE, 50c. CANVASSERS WANTED. Any person wishing to act permanently is a local canvass r will receive full and promit information by applying to THE ALDINE COMPANY

58 MAIDEN LANE, NEW YORZ. nlothinn I now off r this stock of Goods at Prices far below any other house in the State.

Times are hard and money scarce and I will give every one the worth of their money. also keep a full assortment OREGON CITY MADE Men and Boys' Clothing, Underwear, Flannels, Blankets, And Yarns. ....A LSO ..... Groceries, Cutlery, Jewelry, Notions, Musical

Instruments, Lowest Prices For CASH

OREGON STEAMSHIP CO.'S

STEAMBOAT NOTICE!

Str. E. N. COOKE,

Oregon City at 2% o'clock, P. M.

Str. ALICE, Will leave OREGON CITY for CORVALLIS tion. This was the nucleus of the every Monday and Thursday of each week. Str. DAYTON,

Will leave OREGON CITY for McMINN-VILLE, LAFAYETTE and DAYTON, and all points between, every Monday, Wednesday and Friday of each week. Leaves the Basin at 8 o'clock, A. M., and connect with the train at Canemah at 9, A. M.

Str. ALBANY, Leaves OREGON CITY for HARRISBURG and EUGENE and all intermediate points every week.

all intermediate points between twice ev-ery week. J. D. BILES, Agent, Oregon City, February, 141. 874.

DR. JOHN WELCH DENTIST, OFFICE IN

OREGON CITY, OREGON. Highest Cash Price Paid for County Orders. JOHN M. BACON.

IMPORTER AND DEALER in Books, Stationery, Perfumery, etc., etc. Oregon City, Oregon.

By At the Post Office, Main stgeet, east

Parties--- New and Old.

From the S. F. Examiner. Some of our "independent" papers yet ripe. about the probable proximate disso-lution of the two old parties, and the creation of a new organization out of the best elements of the defunct

A "Cousin Sally Dillard" Testi-mony in Ireland.

"Weil, my lord judge, sure it was present hour.

administered the government during | it. the eighty-six years of its existence. Well, I was going to say it was on they were betrayed, and cast into last election day for our glorious prison at Boston, Lincolnshire.

party of fear and permit it to divide. | warn't there. The attempt to divide it in the Greeley campaign was a signal failure, though supported by many of its country. The conditions do not exist for the Democratic party to disappear in a way similar to that by which the Federalists were swallowed up and absorbed. The other way by which a great historical party may disapestness of conviction to grow and become predominant. It was in this way that the Whigs were finally overcome and extinguished. A new party destined to supplant an old one is likely to be of slow growth at long life. The anti-slavery party, called successively the Liberty and Free-Soil party, existed side by side with the Whig party for twelve years and the Free-Soil Buffalo Convention, and ran Presidential tickets in 1844, Will leave OREGON CITY for PORTLAND 1848, and 1852, constantly accumurepeal of the Missouri Compromise, in 1854, enabled it by a change of name to become a powerful organiza-Radical-Republican party which ran tion in this way. No third party has Soilers. The Liberal Republican party never had any strength, nor any distinctive principles. It was founded on mere personal hostility Str. Fannie Patton, founded on mere personal hostility to General Grant, and consisted of Republicans who would have continued to act with their party had they seen any possibility of superseding him by another candidate. It has never voted in any such way as to show what its members really are, and does not seem disposed to act a separate part in politics. All the newspapers which were its organs, have retired from its advocacy, and one of the leaders-Murat Halsteadit, and no chance for a third party. a young lady whom he had not met of one in a wilderness?

on the side of either the Democratic or Radical organization; but for a third or a new party the time is not the best elements of the defunct bodies-politic; but we fail to see any signs of such an impending decease, or of such reorganization from the and says I to my old woman, I beashes of the ancient antagonists in the little cabin of Mayhower, and who became the second Governor of Plymouth colony, was born at Anster in the little cabin of Mayhower, and who became the second Governor of Plymouth colony, was born at Anster in the little cabin of Mayhower, and who became the second Governor of Plymouth colony, was born at Anster in the little cabin of Mayhower, and who became the second Governor of Plymouth colony, was born at Anster in the little cabin of Mayhower, and who became the second Governor of Plymouth colony, was born at Anster in the little cabin of Mayhower, and who became the second Governor of Plymouth colony, was born at Anster in the little cabin of Mayhower, and who became the second Governor of Plymouth colony, was born at Anster in the little cabin of Mayhower, and who became the second Governor of Plymouth colony, was born at Anster in the little cabin of Mayhower, and who became the second Governor of Plymouth colony, was born at Anster in the little cabin of Mayhower, and who became the second Governor of Plymouth colony, was born at Anster in the little cabin of Mayhower, and who became the second Governor of Plymouth colony, was born at Anster in the little cabin of Mayhower, and who became the second Governor of Plymouth colony, was born at Anster in the little cabin of Mayhower, and who became the second Governor of Plymouth colony, was born at Anster in the little cabin of Mayhower, and who became the second Governor of Plymouth colony, was born at Anster in the little cabin of Mayhower, and who became the second Governor of Plymouth colony, was born at Anster in the little cabin of Mayhower, and the little cabin of Mayhow The necessity of a popular medium for the representation of the productions of our great artists, has always been recognized, and many attempts have been made to meet the want. The successity of a popular medium for the representation of the productions of our great artists, has always been recognized, and many attempts have been made to meet the want. The successity of a popular medium for the representation of the productions of our great artists, has always been recognized conflicts of the country. There are only two ways in which failures which so invariable followed each attempt in this country to establish a political parties which have at any time been a majority and held art fournal, did not prove the indifference of the great artists, has always been recognized and sail was discerned, as yet a faint the political conflicts of the country. There are only two ways in which great artists, has always been recognized. It is great at the political conflicts of the country. There are only two ways in which great artists, has always been recognized. It is great at the political conflicts of the country. There are only two ways in which great artists, has always been recognized. It is great at the political conflicts of the country. There are only two ways in which great artists, has always been recognized, and many attempts have been down and 'posit me dying in his youth, he was left to ask the care of his grandparents, and after the the care of his grandparents, and after the care of his grandparent have ever disappeared from our spect I had better take the umbrill. politics. There have been but four | So I took the umbrill' and advanced such parties since the organization on down toward town, yer see, and of the government—the Democratic be faith, when I got down thar Mr. | was his occupation and pleasure. | When the vessel touched the shore, manifested the highest capacity of

has continued the same party everywhere, from Jefferson's day to the with the truth, and I'm going to years of age was one of a company strange, for though he knew years field as a candidate for President. tell it my own way; so t'aint worth | who attempted to escade to Holland, | must have changed her, yet she had Four parties, and four only, have while for you to say nothin' about in quest of liberty to worship as always been in his mind the slender den to the Chief Magistracy of the

sciolists, who fancy that new parties Parliament of Lords and Commons, While religion and numerous other too, had her surprise. can be substituted for old ones as each other can be substituted for old ones as each other can be substituted for old ones as and says I to my old woman, I be grave and earnest objects had their each other, and the "William!" "Al-Democratic principles, as they were of their apparel. Only two parties my vote for the Home Ruling gintle- ner where a more beautiful, less ice!" burst from their lips, and the understood in the good old times, which acquired sufficient strength man.' Says my old woman to me, grave, but as earnest a passion held hearts so long sundered were united. when the Democracy directed the and stability to obtain control of the says she, 'Buck, as it is a sort of a sway. Love had entered the heart That very evening the marriage took destinies of the Republic and maingovernment have ever disappeared dark, rainy, drizzling sort of a day, of the young Puritan; and often, place. There was joy of heart, but tained its honor and glory at home from our politics, and these were the hadn't you better take your umbrill? while his head was bowed over his no extravagant display. Long and and abroad. Federalists and the Whigs, who so I took the umbrill and advanced book, the graceful figure of her he happy was the union here consumthe veritable presence of the animal itself. The Rev. T. De Wit Talmage tells that his own New Foundland dog (the finest in Brooklyn) barks at it! and though so natural, no one who sees this premium chromo will have the slightest fear of being sprung from the loins of Federalism. He have the sum toward town until I arrived that the first thing I did that the his heart throb with delight. When I got that was to take a drink the only guides to our judgment in monstrous good, and says I to my-was lovelier and sweeter to him than sprung from the loins of Federalism. down toward town until I arrived loved would charm his eyes, making mated There are only two methods by self, Buck, my auld fellow, you feel any golden-haired, rosy-lipped little which great historical parties are better now, don't you? And while fairy. She was just two years younger supplanted and abolished, and wheth- I was advancing around Mr. Cole, than himself. er a party is extinguished by one or he came to me, says he Buck, have the other of these methods depends you seen anything of old neighbor upon its relative strength when the Harris?' Says I, 'And why is it ye process of destruction commences its | ax me?' Says he, 'The old man has work. When a political party has got my umbrill? After awhile I gave him. Many were the walks they long dwindled and at length become | my vote to the Home Ruling gentle- | had together. His lands joined her so small that it has less than half as man, a rale old Irish gentleman, and father's, and of a Summer evening, many supporters as its successful then Mr. Cole and me had a drap leaning over the hedge that divided opponent, it is liable to disappear by more of Dublin Whisky, and adsplits or schisms in the latter which | vanced back toward home, and Mr. | versations they enjoyed. is no longer held together by fears | Cole was tighter than I ever seed of the success of its adversary. Some him. And so we advanced until we one of the factions into which the got to where the road and path forkpowerful party divides is certain to ed, and we took the path, as any court the decaying organization and other gentleman would, and advancgive it an opportunity to make its ing backward awhile, we arriv' to power felt by throwing its weight old neighpor Harris sitting on a millnto one of the scales. This is the stone with the umbrill on his arm, way the Federalists came to their and about that time the prisoner end as a party. It maintained its or- comed up, and we advanced on till ganic existence until the successor to we arriv' at John's house. John is President Monroe was elected in my neffew, and likewise my son-in-1824, when four Democratic Republaw. He married my darter Jane, lican candidates were in the field. which is next to Sally. Arter we The election went into the House, had advanced to John's house, we Clay giving his support to Adams, stood in the yard awhile talking, and thus beating Jackson and Crawford, presently Mr. Cole got to cussing and Clay thus became the leader of about politix, and I advanced into the new party which arose in oppo- the house whar was John's wife, sition to the Democracy and took which is my darter Jane. Well, afthe name of Whig. It is evident ter talking awhile with 'em my nefnow that a long time must elapse be- few, says he, 'Uncle, let's go home.' fore the Democratic party can disap- | Says I, Good, you darlin'. So we pear in that way. It is too formida- trotted out together. And there's ble in numbers to relieve the Radical all I know about the assault, for I

THE SITUATION IN LOUISIANA .-- W. A. Wheeler, of the Louisiana Conmost eminent leaders and powerful gressional Committee, addressed a journals. Even in the last Presiden-letter to the Times in answer to the letter to the Times in answer to the tial contest the Democratic party had | question, "Is the Louisiana adjusta majority of the white vote of the ment a success or a failure?" He says: "I firmly believe that Louisihas at last caught the inspiration from a new order of things, and that, exhausted as she was with tumult and violence, yet with a just government and the education of the people-the last just now her greatest pear is by the organization of a new need-she, with steady but slow party of sufficient vitality and earn- pace, will emerge from what seemed to be her utterly helpless condition.' In regard to the reinstating of the four Democrats in the House of Representatives, he says: "No one can be found in Louisiana to assert that at the time these four Democrats first, as are most things destined for were unseated, there was a quorum present, so these four Democrats had never been legally expelled from their seats, and having done nothing to forfeit them, their reinstatement before it succeeded to its place. It was an act of simple justice which was organized by Salmon P. Chase all understanding the facts must approve." PENNSYLVANIA BANKRUPT.-Mackey every day [Except Sunday,] at 7% o'clock, A. M. Returning, will leave Portland for lating strength and courage until the lating strength and coura he swears that on March 31st there mourned for her, for she had been an eye." ury. When the character of the turned to the duties of life. Life for ministered the parting kick to the Whig carcass, which has never been heard of since.

It is quite evident that the Democratic party is in no danger of extinction.

It is quite evident that the Democratic party is in no danger of extinction.

It is quite evident that the Democratic party is in no danger of extinction.

It is quite evident that the Democratic party is in no danger of extinction.

It is quite evident that the Democratic party is in no danger of extinction.

It is quite evident that the Democratic party is in no danger of extinction.

It is quite evident that the Democratic party is in no danger of extinction.

It is quite evident that the Democratic party is in no danger of extinction.

It is quite evident that the Democratic party is in no danger of extinction. the total State indebtment at $24, ernor Carver died, a few months afrisen to play the part of the Free- 374,223, and the balance in the sink- ter their arrival, he was elected his ing fund at $1,178,151, although the people have been led to believe that this fund was about $300,000,000.

ONE GOOD WIFE .- A paragraph is going the rounds of the newspapers to this effect: "There is one good wife in the country, and every man thinks he has her." Old Brown who lives on Olive street, who is bald, and whose wife has red hair and a wicked eye, read this and murmured as he meditatively passed his hand, Did she remember the lover of her over his head "I dunno, I dunno!"

Romance of an Old Puritan.

FIRST LOVE AND SECOND MARRIAGE.

William Bradford whose name stands second on the list of signamonstrous good, and says I to my- was lovelier and sweeter to him than

As years passed, and her form became taller and fuller, the golden curls deepening in shade to a sunny brown, she grew more beautiful to them, long and sweet were the con-

One eve in Autumn Alice announced to him that she was to go to London with an aunt, to stay some months. The news came like a deathblow upon William. The Carpenter family had been highly distinguished in former times, and one of its members had received from the King the honor of knighthood, but they were now indigent, and William determined to risk his fate, and ask Alice of her proud and stern father. and fair name might influence the father to accept him as a suitable match for his lovely but portionless

But he did not know the pride of where they had spent so many happy hours. It was to be their last tiful, to act in opposition to a parent's wishes.

himself to his farm and books.

Dorothy May, a sensible discreet take measures accordingly. woman of his own rank in life. He did not love her as he had loved Albe an estimable, faithful wife.

fight, in their sojourn in London, Jose Argus. and upon the stormy and perilous ocean in the cabin of the Mayflower. was but one dollar and seventy-six affectionate wife, but, with the subcents of available cash in the Treas- mission of a Christian, he calraty than thirty one years he directed the affairs of the colony. But while with fatherly care he watched over the little colony, he often felt the want of women's ready sympathy and soothing tenderness. He thought of Alice. The love he for it under a big mustache. had felt for her had never died out of his heart. While the husband of another, it had slumbered, but now Alice and himself were both free, for youth? And if she yet cherished that memory, would she consent to privations to which she would be exposed; he left it to her to decide whether she could regard his love as an equivalent for the sacrifices she would be called upon to make. And

At an early period he took upon crowded to the landing. Governor fidelity or courage of any official. himself the care of his large estates, Bradford stood firm and erect, con- General Tilden has shown not only and to improve and beautify them spicuous among the little crowd. the requisite courage, but he has their consciences counselled. But girl from whom he had parted. And Union would be the assurance of an here she stands, the beautiful, state-ly, dignified woman. Probably she and prosperity of the country, be-different manner, and they furnish when I got thar was to take a drink as a child he had played with little the good Governor spared to the col- sons who are indifferent to party asheartily lamented when she died.

William's Landaulet.

in a landaulet at the public expense, purity of life and dignity of deportit was said that the vehicle had been | ment. purchased by a gentleman who de-He hoped that his own broad lands United States Senatorship which the Democracy, especially its long previous to the election, exhibiting er, have been the great end to the old man. He was dismissed himself all at places of importance, accomplish which he bent his enwith haughty and severe reproofs with some of the agents of the De- tire energies. When nearly everyfor his presumption. His religions partment of Justice who furnished body else appeared to despair of belief would have raised a barrier the "bloody shirt" outrage stories, ultimate success-when many of the had there been no other, and sad was he would be completely fixed. The ancient chiefs were relaxing their. the interview of the young lovers people would be able to fully apthat evening at the trysting-place preciate his great services in the De- task of reviving the fortunes of the partment of Justice. They would grand old party, Tilden was steadily meeting. William was too proud proof of his greatness. They would organizing, and devising methods to and high-minded, and Alice too duknow at once that Williams was the place the Democracy once more upon man with the landaulet whom the the highway of success. His labors Alice went to London, and in firm as Chief Justice, and that he course of time was married to Con- was the genius who could, by sim- party, who had used its pure name stant Southworth, a wealthy and ply nodding to an agent, present an and stolen its stainless standard to honorable man. William devoted outrage to the people of the North cover their own bad acts. To purge By-and-by he felt that a wife was | would know whether they wanted | its record and cleanse its escutcheon. needful to him, and his eye fell on Williams in the Senate or not, and to expel, disgrace, and punish those ice, but he felt an honest and true who has so long disgraced the na- the achievement of Samuel Tilden. affection for her, and she proved to | tion as Attorney General, has dis- | This was truly a herculean undertak-The number of those professing may be noted as the only valuable him a claim to the gratitude, admirathe Puritan faith increased, and service he has ever rendered the gov- tion, and esteem of all honorable trial and persecution were their lot. ernment, and even this was prompt- men, which is now redoubled by his William was one of the earliest ad- ed by a desire to save his scalp. The efforts to dislodge a still more forvocates for their removal to America, next House had an impeachment rod midable band of public robbers from where they might enjoy their re-where they might enjoy their re-ligion undisturbed. He was with been applied with merited severity to grapple with the "rings" who the little band in their hasty had not he dodged in time.—San have been for years fastened on the

While in Cape Cod harbor, and is to bend over the children's little support of the Democracy of the during his absence with a party sent white bed, softly pat facir early whole Union, as one of the ablest, PENNSYLVANIA BANKRUPT.—Mackey to explore the coast, his faithful has made an affidavit showing that the State is practically bankrupt, as the State is practically bankrupt, as mourned for her, for she had been at the state is practically bankrupt, as mourned for her, for she had been at the state is practically bankrupt, as mourned for her, for she had been at the state is practically bankrupt, as mourned for her, for she had been at the state is practically bankrupt, as mourned for her, for she had been at the state is practically bankrupt, as mourned for her, for she had been at the state is practically bankrupt, as mourned for her, for she had been at the state is practically bankrupt.

> A man seventy-seven years old has made his avpearance in Philadelphia wearing a hat which he put on thirtyone years ago, vowing that he would | ging in his garden his wife appeared never remove it until Henry Clay was at the door and shouted: elected President.

COMING INTO STYLE.—"Shingle weddings" are coming rapidly into the door pretty soon and yelled: style now, it is said. This novel "Hain't you coming to dinner, successor, and for a period of more wedding takes place when the "first-than thirty-one years he directed the born" is old enough to spank.

| blasted—!"

Doubles the Value.-Mary Ellen says that she knows what she is talking about, and that it just doubles the value of a kiss to have to burrow you are rather extravagant, eating was confronted with the inquiry: butter with that delicious jam?" "No her husband had died a year since. indeed, love, don't you see, the same piece of bread does for both."

At a spelling match at Indianapolis | lar!" lately said, at the Schurz banquet in leave a happy home and troops of leave a happy home and troop brings everything up.

Presidential.

From the S. F. Examiner. Spontaneously from all parts of the country come tributes of admiration he requested her, if she should con- for the manly course Governor Tiltures to the celebrated compact made sent, since the affairs of the colony den of New York has taken in the in the little cabin of Mayflower, and would not suffer his absence, to take | contest with the public thieves of agrent artistic and commercial triumph—
THE ALDINE, while issued with all the garty, which has existed from that the ground party, the sum of the temporary or timely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure, light, and graceful literature; and a of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of The Aldine will be most appreciated after it is bound up at the close of party. The Democratic Republican when it was organized under Jefferson, and fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of The Aldine will be most appreciated after it is bound up at the close of the government—the Democratic Cole, Sure, and for why? Says he, the has existed from that close the fight and pleasure. Cole, Sure, and for why? Says he, the has existed from that day to this; the Federal party; the When I got down thar Mr. Cole, Sure, and for why? Says he, the has possible and pleasure. But while each day found him busy with his books. He but while each day found him busy with the men in his fields, night found him busy with the books. He became a proficient in the Latin, became a proficient in the Latin, and a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of The Aldine will be most appreciated after it is bound up at the close.

When the vessel touched the shore, all hurried on. The Governor passible with the men in his fields, night found him busy with his books. He but while each day found him busy with the men in his fields, night found him busy with the books. He became a proficient in the Latin, and the present "Republican" and became a proficient in the Latin, became a proficient in the Latin, became a proficient in the Latin, became a proficient in the under the devout Puritan.

Just the all hurried on. The Governor passion with the men in his fields, night found him busy wit

> The election of such a man as Tilcause of his moral worth, intellectual

Governor Tilden's candidacy should also bring to the support of the Dem-Thirty-four additional years was ocratic cause that large class of perony, whose prosperity he did so cendency, but anxious that the Govmuch to promote. His wife surviv- ernment shall be in honest and comed him fifteen years. She was well petent control. The crowning merit educated and dignified in deport- of Tilden is his public spirit and inment, and did much for the improve- tegrity. Throughout his whole life ment of the rising generation. Pil- not a stain of suspicion has ever atgrim Hall stands upon land formerly tached to him of any unworthy con-in her possession. It is recorded of duct. The too customary vices of her that she was a good matron and the public men of this age have been much loved while she lived, and foreign to him. The love of lucre, a tendency to speculation, nepotism, jobbery, favoritism, or intrigue, has never soiled his reputation nor impaired popular respect for him. His Shortly after it came out that At- walk and conversation before men torney-General Williams indulged have been reflexive of rigid morality,

The busy demands of Governor signed making a tour with it through | Tilden's professional life have not some of the Western States. As permitted him the enjoyment of the Williams is soon going out of office, retirement and leisure which are so he ought to have the landaulet to ex- | dear to all men of thought, of large hibit as one of the trophies of his intellect, and long service and strain incumbency of the department. It of the faculties. Nor is it his temis said that he intends to return to perament to cease from labor and Oregon when he retires, with the de- struggle so long as there is work to sign, if possible, of capturing the be done for a good cause. Hence will be one of the prizes to be gained | night of adversity, has never been at the State election in 1876. If remote from his thoughts and he only had his landaulet, and trav- dreams. Its fortunes, its preservaeled extensively through Oregon tion, its eventual restoration to powefforts in the apparently hopeless have constantly before their eyes the at work, planning, talking, uniting, United States Senate would not con- were enhanced enormously by the corruptions of interlopers in the as if by magic. Knowing this, they the party of these vermin, to clear who had purloined the habiliments of an honest organization to serve RESIGNED .- "Landaulet" Williams | their infamous personal ends, was cretly stepped down and out. This ing, and its accomplishment gave national government. Gov. Tilden's course, from first to last, commends An old maid doesn't know what it him to the affection, devotion and such a man shall be installed in the White House.

How SHE CALLED .- Yesterday noon as a Sixth street man was dig-"Come, you old fraud-come in to dinner! As he did not come she opened

"Hain't you coming to dinner, you She saw a neigher in the garden along with her husband and finished;

"---old darling, you!" His Assers:-A resident of an interior town came to Detroit the other day to secure a stock of groceries, having decided to enter into busi-

"George, dear, don't you think ness. As he had no money at all he "What are your assets?"
He deliberated a moment, scratchhis head, and slowly replied: . .

"Wall, I attend church purty reg'-He hasn't started in the grocery

Most certainly, the existence of the in a long time before. "I know it," At last he decided to write to her, great historical Democratic party is was the artless reply, "but mother and propose that she would share his Favors Them.—There's a schoolnot seriously threatened by a party wouldn't allow me to wear a very in that shape. The people will arrange themselves, for some time yet, er is so cold,"

Favors Them.—There's a school- want to be a lobby man, fortunes. Early in the Spring of ma'am in Oneida county who lets her and in the lobby stand, with brass upon my forehead and greenbacks in fore her faithfully all the trials and a little while.