*REGON, JUNE H. 1875. OREGON, CITY,

hear occasionally BUILDING .mes are dull around complaints that Oregon City, and that no improvements are going on. This, we apprehend, comes mostly from those who are never able to find employment no matter how busy their neighors are. At no time since our residence in Oregon City has there been as much building done during the entire summer as has already this spring. The following have already been erected or in course of erection: Dave Smith's blacksmith shop, the finest in the State; Louis Saal's hotel building; Jim Fuller's residence; the Alden fruit drying establishment; a residence for Mr. Miller and also one for L. S. Jenkins, besides many persons in making repairs and improvements in their residences. We see no good reason to complain of the improvement of Oregon City this season; in fact there appears to be good deal more done in this direction this season than for many years past.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC,-The children of the Episcopal Sunday School will have an excursion and plenic this (Friday) morning to the celebrated East Portland Park. The E. N. Of course, should the weather be unfavortheir baskets full of good things to eat.

We are pleased to see that our citizens are paying some attention to improving their stock, and Capt. Apperson deserves credit for investing his money in this direction.
