The following is one of the resolutions adopted by the Democratic

We hold it to be absolutely essential that the several States shall be maintained in all their rights, dignity and equality, as the most complete and reliable administrators of their domestic concerns, and surest bulwarks against anti-republican tendencies. Every attempt on the part of the Federal Government to exercise a power, not therein prescribed, is an act of usurpation, demanding the instant and unqualified condemnation of a people jealous of their liberties, and we hold that any unconstitutional interference by the General Government with the local officers of any State, to any extent or on any pretense whatever, should at once be repudiated and condemned by all classes of every section of the Union, as all such acts tend directly to the destruction of our federal system, and the consolidation of all power in a centralized despotism.

-01410-WASHING NOT TAKEN IN. - A good old minister in one of our New England Baptist churches was agreeably surprised by the intelligence from ope of his flock that five individuals had expressed a strong desire to have the baptismal rite performed upon

"you may as well inform eight that this church doe in washing."

CAN WE AFFORD IT?-The New York Tribune mournfully thinks over the Canal frauds, the Credit Mobilier. the Jayne and Sanborn business, the Pacific Mail subsidy, the doings of the Indian "ring," and the leprosy recently brought to light in the customs service and internal revenue office, and then submits the conundrum, "Can we afford it any longer?" It continues: "It is said that the Treasury has lost a million by the silk smugglers, and two or three million by the whisky "ring," and that NIANESAUTORY: these losses have accrued within twelve or eighteen months. But ever one who has watched the course of things knows that the origin of this corruption dates far back, that the dark abyss has been explored only a little way, and that the loss of the old stand on the revenue is to be measured not by millions, but by tens of millions.'

-01+10 SLIGHTLY ALTERED .- While a man was guzzling drink a little ragged girl entered and sought him out, and instead of requesting him to come home, dear father, as poor brother with ample room, good materials, and the Benny was dead and the house was all dark, she whispered:

The testimony of our test citi zens, of all classes, establishes the fact, that CHERRY PECTORAL Will and does relieve the cure the afflicting disorders of the Throat and Lungs beyond any other medicine. The most dangerous affections of the Pulmonary Organs yield to its power; and cases of Consumption, cured by this preparation, are public-ly known, so remarkable as hardly to be believed, were they not proven beyond dispute. As a remedy it is adequate, on which the public may rely for full protection. By curing Coughs, the forerunners of more serious disease, it save unmimbered lives, and an amount of suffering not to be computed. It challenges frial, and convinces the most sceptical. Every family should keep it on hand as a protection against the earand unperceived attack of Pulmonary Affections, which are easily met at first, but which become incurable, and too often fatal, if neglected. Tender lungs need this defence; and it is unwise to be without it. As a safeguard to children, and the distressing diseases which beset the Thron and Chest of childhood, CHERRY PECTORAL is invaluable; for, by its timely use, multitudes are rescued from premature graves, and saved to the love and affection centred on them.
