THE ENTERPRISE.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY COMMITTEE. A meeting of the Democratic County Committee for Clackamas county will be held in Oregon City on Monday, July 5th, at 1 o'clock. The members of said Committee are, A. F. Hedges, Chairman, A. Carmichael and Henry McGugin.

INFORMATION WANTED,-At the time of the explosion of the Senator, some weeks since, the name of B. F. Wardwell was mentioned in the daily papers as being, in all probability, one of the ill-fated victims. His body was not found, and there is no positive proof of his death; but the paragraph has caused a number of letters to be written by his friends in the East asking for information in reference to him. One V. A. Cook was also mentioned as coming from New Yerk with him and going into the vicinity of Oregon City to purchase a farm. Should he chance to see this paragraph, or if Mr. Wardwell should be living and see this, will they please to communicate with Mr. Jo-seph Buchtel, of Portland, or Mr. Wm. H. Curtis, Susquehana Depot, Susque-hana county, Pa. Since the above was in type, we are pleased to announce that Wardwell has come to light.

BATHER SEVERE. - Some person writing from this place to the Oregonian this place and vicinity. recently, gets off the following at the expense of our County Clerk:

ANOTHER FRUIT DRYER .- Mr. A. C. Elmunds has formed a company for putting up a Plummer fruit-dryer in this city, and is now in Portland negotiating with the proprietors, and if they sured that an aparatus will be in operation in Oregon City in ninety days. This is good news for fruit growers, as the competition will secure them good prices for their sarplus fruit.

COMING. By private letter from Mr. Frank Gilder, we learn that he expects shortly to visit Oregon City again with his company, and give one of his concerts. In addition to the vocal and ins rumental concert, the company will thing is growing first-rate. perform the comic operetta Offenbach by Madame Babeox, Miss Galton and Mr. Whilfen, which is said to be very amusing and most excellently rendered by this company. We feel confident that a full house will be in attendance.

RELIGIOUS.-Bishop Peck, of the M. E. Church preached in this city last Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. He is the first Bishop of that Church that has visited Oregon City for twenty years. The Bishop speaks well of our town and says that we have a good foundation for a future great city and that future not a great ways off. That is the general opinion of all who are observers of the natural advantages of

RE-BUILDING .- The Oregon City Woolen Company are pushing their building for the wool-pickers to a rapideompletion and will have it ready by the time the new pickers arrive. The new building, white it will not be fire-proof, will be less liable to fire than formerly, and steam pipes will be arranged so as to extinguish fire instantiv

CONTEST FOR COIN .- Next Monday, July 5th, says the Evening Journal, a match game of base-ball for $100 a side will be played at Oregon City, between a picked nine from this city and a picked nine from the Salem boys. We suppecially to those who may back their

Monday, which was largely attended, being on the occasion of the celebration of their wooden wedding. The presents were numerous and varied both in quality and utility. May they both live to celebrate their golden wedding is the wish of their many friends.

LAUNCHED.—The new boat being built by Mr. Jos. Paquet in the basin for the O. S. S. Co., was launched last Monday and taken out of the dry-dock and is now receiving her machinery. She has been named the "Bonanza," and is of the following dimension: Length, 150 feet; breadth of beam, 36 feet; depth of hold, 414 feet, and draws six inches of water.

ELECTED.—At a regular meeting of Oregon Lodge No. 3, I. O. O. F., held at their hall last Thursday, the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: L. T. Barin, N. G.; H. J. Harding, V. G.; John Rock, R. S.; J. T. Apperson, Treasurer. Installation takes place this (Thursday) evening.

BAD CASE.-We learn that one of the hard and threatened to commit suicide, stroyed the old penitentiary buildbut finally consoled himself by taking a drink. He il probably recover from ed a resolution to wind up the afsuch little attacks.

We understand that quite a number of our citizens, including some of the young men and their sweethearts, propose celebrating the coming Fourth with our country cousins, in the neighborhood of Norton's post office.

BRIDGE COMPANY. THIS COMPANY DESIRES TO INFORM A the traveling public that their road across the Cascade Mountains, formerly known as the "Old Emigrant Road," is now open for the accommodation of Stock Drovers, and will be in good condition for wagons July 1st. The bridges and road are being thoroughly repaired, and travelers will find no difficulty in crossing the mountains by this route. There is plenty of water and grass all through the mountains and the distance across is only 50 miles, being the shortest, as well as the best, road over the Cascade Mountains. Stock Drov-ers will find it to their advantage to travel over this route. Toles reasonable. S. D. COALMAN.

On the McKinzie River. Lane Co., Oregon

Open at all hours of the night.

A CHARMING SUMMER RESORT. THESE SPRINGS ARE LOCATED about fifty-five miles east of Eugene , and within four miles of the colebrated Big Prairie of the McKinzie. They are within a few hundred yards of Horse Creek one of the most famous trout streams in Oregon. Deer and elk are very plenty near these Springs, having been the resort for ages of these animals. The grandest and most picturesque scenery of the North Pacific. I have the best buildings and the best accommodations of any Springs in this part of the State: My bath house is new, and is constructed with reference to the wants of those visiting me from the valley. I also have an excellent vapor bath room constructed near the head of the Spring, and in all things, I propose to keep up with the demand for an instituion of this kind. An experienced physician in attendance at all times. Board and Lodging in good style for those who prefer it. Animals can be pastured for small cost, and be perfect-ly safe. A. N. FOLEY.
