ACQUITTED.—Mr. John V. Smith, who was engineer on the ill-fated steamer, the Senator, was tried last week at Portland for manslaughter, and after a two-day hearing, he was acquitted. The jury, after a few minutes of deliberation, brought in a verdict of not guilty. Mr. Smith was released from the charge which was apparently urged on to protect others and to make a record of him. He shall procure the evidence taken in the case, and the Inspector of Boilers and publish the same, and by his own statement we understand that he will come to the conclusion that the important position of Inspector of Boilers in Oregon is held by an uneducated incompetent and unfit for the position. He was rewarded, not for any competency for the position, but because he is one of the faithful workers for Mr. Mitchell, and what was given him was his due. We understand that he will be removed without further risk to human lives on boats he inspects. We understand that he will be removed from the position, and the authorities of Multnomah are anxious to visit the State, and the responsible party, let them go for the Inspector of Boilers, who still holds his position, and is liable to have a boat explode from the fact that he is incompetent to test the boilers. The case was conducted in a most honorable manner by Messrs. Page, Johnson & McCown, Young & Robb; and Prosecuting Attorney Thompson for the State. The arguments were made by Messrs. Page and McCown for the defendant.

DELEGATES ELECTED.—At a meeting appointed by District Deputy Master E. Forbes, to be held at Oregon City, for the purpose of electing delegates to the State Convention, to commence the 15th of August, in September next, the following delegates were elected: Butte (C. N. S.), Moulton (H. C. Canby), Mountain View (4), Upper McCalla, St. Eagle Creek (2), Highland (7), Beaver (2), Warner (17), Canby (12), Deschutes (15), Viola (3). This county being entitled to five delegates, the following were elected: A. Nicholas, H. C. Canby, N. W. O'Neil, Mountain View, 14; F. W. Foster, Harding, 12; C. W. Warner, 15; N. W. Randall, Warner, 17; N. W. Randall, Secretary.

TO SCHOOL DISTRICTS.—The Irreducible and for Clackamas county is, and the warrants are issued for the clerks of its respective districts. From the School Superintendent we learn that there are 288 children who are entitled to draw from this fund. The amount apportioned to the county is, coin, $192.08, and currency, $85.47. The sum of 38 cents and nine mills in coin, and 20 cents and two mills in currency is apportioned to each child in the county.

FINE FARMS.—Clackamas county has some handsome farms in the vicinity of this place. A person can go a long distance before he will see finer looking farms than those that are to be seen here. Messrs. W. P. Partlow, Wm. Holmes, John Brush, Bell & Parker and Arthur Farmer. Their fruit trees look well, and the crops splendidly. They are really handsome places.

LETTER LIST.—The following is a list of the Letters remaining in the Post-office at Oregon City, July 16, 1875: Affet, Isiah (2); Beers, Wm.; Barnes, Francis; Carby, C. W.; Lawson, Isaac; Lang, Col. T. C.; O'Conner, Edward; Stormer, Isaac; Stormer, John; Wagner, John.

If called for, please say "advertised." J. M. BACON, P. M.

DEMOCRATS ATTENTION.—The Democrats of Oregon City precinct will meet at the Court House, on Saturday, the 17th inst., at 1 o'clock for the purpose of electing five delegates to the County Convention, which meets next Wednesday in this city.

DEMOCRATS, REMEMBER!—The Primary meetings next Saturday, the 17th. Turn out in full force.

A PLEASANT SURPRISE.—A most agreeable and unexpected surprise was perpetrated on Rev. J. W. Sellwood by Sunday School scholars.

Just as he was about to close the school, Hon. John Myers came forward, and he would like to have a permission to say a few words, when a beautiful pitcher was brought from the street, and presented to present it in behalf of the Sunday School scholars.

The pitcher is a very large one, handsomely engraved on one side "To our beloved Pastor, Rev. J. W. Sellwood."

It was the occasion of the tenth anniversary that brought forth this gift from the children, and we know that the little ones enjoyed the giving as much as the recipient did the receiving, and both will long remember the beautiful occasion.

Too Inquisitive.—Some persons are rather inquisitive, in fact too much so. This is suggested by a report which charges the authorship of a communication in last issue, signed "Observer," to a clergyman in this city.

BLKS.—J. Thompson, Hanna & Co., of New York, whose advertisement appeared in this paper a short time ago, are first class bilks and swindlers.

IN SESSION.—The Siloam Baptist Association held their 23rd annual meeting in this county last week, with Elder J. Stipp as moderator, and Elder T. J. Crooks as clerk.

IN TOWN.—Senator Kelly arrived in town last Wednesday, and expects to remain here a few days, visiting his old friends. He looks as natural as ever, and does not seem to diminish in either weight or his Democracy.

EXCURSION.—The children of the Taylor Street M. E. Sunday School are to have an excursion to this place this Thursday evening.

COUNTY CONVENTION.—The Democratic County Convention will be held in this city next Wednesday, the 21st inst. Let there be full delegations from every precinct.

COUNTY EXHIBIT.—The official exhibit for the past year in relation to county matters appears in this issue. We shall have something to say in regard to it next week.

THANKS.—Mrs. John Schram will please accept our thanks for a dish of excellent berries and cherries, and a most artistically arranged bouquet.

Rev. N. A. Starr will preach in the M. E. Church Sabbath July 18, both morning and evening.

CHAPTER CXXIX. Preface to chapter CXXIX. Adventures in the Life of Edward Payson Hammond.

Should you ask me, why I wrote this I would answer you, I would tell you, it was written to give pleasure to the readers of this paper.

Then the mighty Edward Payson, He the traveler and the preacher, He the mighty story-teller, He the man who will come to the conclusion that the important position of Inspector of Boilers in Oregon is held by an uneducated incompetent and unfit for the position.

Then he said I'll take a journey To the Lark and Dam The people, if they do not pay expenses We'll harangue and will abuse them Call them lost and wicked sinners Till concluding it don't pay them To hold out against us longer, Doing works meet for repentance, Filling up the hat with silver.

SCRIBER FOR JULY.—The contents of Scriber for July have been described as follows: "Keamy at Seven Pines," a ballad by Stedman, illustrated by Barley, takes the lead in the July number.

Next we have a profusely illustrated sketch of "The City of the Golden Gate," by Samuel Willard, the best known editors of San Francisco, who writes apparently with discretion as well as enthusiasm.

Not the least interesting part of Mr. Williams' paper is that in which he describes John Chinaman—but his article is lively and readable from beginning to end.

In Topics of the Time, Dr. Holland writes about "Old and New," now consolidated under the name of "International Copyright," "Thought in Art," "The Plea of Humility and the Picket's Excuse," "Home and Society," "Culture and Progress," "The World's Work, and Brice-Brace have their usual variety.

The publishers promise that there will be no falling off in the interest of the summer months.

Religious. Rev. George H. Atkinson will hold regular services in the Congregational Church, in this city, on the first and second Sabbaths of each month.

Incurable Restored.—Do not despair, because your physician shakes his head. Professional opinions are not infallible; and they are never wider of the mark than when they are given. Chronic Dyspepsia, an incurable malady. To mitigate its effects, the faculty usually prescribes opiates, and bromide. The first two are God's medicines, the last is a satanic poison.

The only medicine that would liberate and its concomitants is Dr. J. WALKER'S CALLENS' PINKETTES, Dr. BROWN'S, the great vegetable tonic of the age.

It is seldom that we notice anything in the medical line, nor would we now, unless we could be convinced that we are not doing our duty as a journalist in recommending the use of the celebrated botanical preparation of Dr. Henry's Cough Balm.

Whoever induces the victim of scrofulous humors to use this medicine if prescribed by the doctor, he is a sure cure for scrofula, rheumatism, Salt Rheum, and indeed all complaints arising from vitiated or impure blood. It is just what a good physician would prescribe for these complaints, and we confidently recommend it as the best article now in use.

Dr. Henry's Cough Balm is the most effective remedy for coughs, colds, and croup. It is a sure cure for scrofula, rheumatism, Salt Rheum, and indeed all complaints arising from vitiated or impure blood.
