THE ENTERPRISE.

REGAN CITY, OREGON, AUGUST 20, 1874.

ARRIVED .- Mr. Thos. A. Sutherland arrived in this city last Friday, and expacts to make it his future home. He Waring is well known as an engineer s not altogether a stranger to our read- and a farmer, as well as a graceful and ers, nor to the editor, being brothers by entertaining writer. In his recent Eumetime past he has ropean travels he was naturally attractadoption, and fo been writing letters to the ENTERPRISE from New York ity, signed "Tom."
Our readers wil gree with us that they were exceed interesting writer. He is not a new-comer to this coast, being born in San Diego, California. the son of the lamented Judge Thos. W. Sutherland, well known to many Oregoniums and to all old Cali-fornians. Mr. Sutherland will be connected with us in the editorial department of the paper and with his aid, we expect to make the ENTERPRISE one of age. the best papers in Oregon. He is a democrat by high and education, having been taugh, by the same noble doubt if these vacation days yield any mind from whom we had our first lessons in Democracy.

THE HORSE TRAINERS. - In an age when it costs money to look across the will vanish before the appearance of street, it was truly refreshing to have this monthly novelty. As for the visitbeen treated by Professors Rockwell and Hurlburt to a most enjoyable lesson in the art of training animals for the moderate entrance fee of nothing, Their way of doing business is to form classes, five dollars being the terms of tuition, the payment of which entitles each member to the full use of their patents in bits and bridles, makes him he owner of a work of 200 pages and gives to him an exhibition of animal training at once amusing and instruclive. Like Rarey, and other men of this profession these gentlemen obtain control over the most vicious animals through kindness and by addressing their intelligence.

OFF FOR FOREIGN PARTS. The Ma. simic Excursion to Puget Sound has rabbed us for the time being of the genial presence of Mr. A. Noltner, and we to A. Noltner, Esq., for a copy of the a perfect stranger to the editorial chair, proceedings of the 20th annual comare left in charge of the EXTERPRISE. When Lieutenant Berby of "Phoenixiana" fame changed the politics of the paper of which he was left the manager, he was whipped for it on the editor's return. We forbear to say whether it is through fear of similar treatment or devotion to "Jeffersonian principles" which keeps us from imitating this well known escapade. ertheless, we wish them all a safe journey, and if it is not too seldsh, we would like to see a speedy return.
