OREGON CITY, OREGON, SEPT. 17, 1875.

SYMPTOMS.

BY JOHN G. SAXE.

If, when you hear a certain lady's name,
You feel your pulses give a sudden start,
Or blush, as if some secret sense of shame
Had stirred, just then, the currents of your heart;
And if that name, to put it rather strong,
In euphony seems very much above
All other names, I think it can't be wrong
To venture the opinion, you're in love!

If, when at last, by some auspicious chance,
You meet the lady at a ball or play,
You shrink abashed before her modest glance,
And quite forget the words you meant to say;
And if, moreover, gazing at her hand,
You wish upon that hand you were a glove,
It isn't very hard to understand
(See "Romeo") you're in love!

If, with two ladies, on a summer day,
You sit alone, at luncheon or at tea,
And think if ONE of them were but away
(a mile or so) how happy you would be;
Yet find your wits in such a giddy whirl,
You scarcely speak to her you're thinking of,
But prattle gayly with the other girl—
There's reason for supposing you're in love!

If, all at once, your amatory pen
(Which ne'er before attempted lyric lines,
Invita musa—bane of gods and men!)
To fervid song and madrigal inclines,
Wherein you rashly rhyme of "youth" and "truth,"
And call your subject "darling," "duck" or "dove;"
Or sadly beg some cruel lady's ruth,
The symptom is unfailing—you're in love!

If, of her sex, no other you can find
One half so bright or beautiful as she;
If to her failings you are wholly blind
(The faults, I mean, that others see);
If in her "pug" you see a "Grecian nose,"
And never doubt the angel bands above
Are silent when she sings—you may suppose,
Beyond the slightest question, you're in love!

Fast Horses.

The Earnings and Losses of Turf Men this Season.

But two horses have made any considerable reputation this year on the turf—Grinstead and Rutherford. Grinstead is the property of Puryear, a South Carolinian, residing in New York. In the great race with Rutherford, Wild Idle, Springbok and Preakness, resulting in a dead heat between the last two, Grinstead was but a trifle behind them. Ten thousand dollars have been offered and refused for him. Rutherford is the brother of Fellowcraft, the great four-mile racer of last year. As frequently happens among gamblers and horses, Rutherford has been twice sold during the Saratoga meeting, first for $7,500, and next for $10,000; he will go to California with Springbok to compete for the $30,000 purse. Springbok was sold by old McDaniel for $15,000 to his partner, Barnard; this is a price seldom received for a horse. Belmont gave $20,000 for Kentucky, and the great Lexington was first purchased for $2,500, next, one-half was sold for $3,500, and the racer was finally bought by Alexander for $10,000. It is believed that Springbok, when retired from the turf, will become the greatest native sire of this racing period; his size, speed and pedigree are all first-class. He is an Australian colt out of a Lexington dam, with Glencoe blood in him, and Henry Clay was the owner of his parent some generations back. The amount of money made by horsemen this season has been very unequal. McDaniel has had poor luck; and his supporters, accustomed to backing his horse heavily, are much disheartened. McGrath lost here much of his winnings at Jerome Park and Long Branch. Sanford has had fair luck. He sold his horse Brigand, which had superb parts, but no confidence in himself, and the next buyer filled the horse with whiskey, by which he got drunk and ran away from the whole stable in two successive days, winning five times his value. Meantime, new adventurers on the turf, like Lorillard, have won enormously and Belmont won three races in a single day. The camp followers, whose name is legion, have lost almost everything, while the book-makers and pool-sellers have had immense profits. About one hundred thousand dollars are laid out in French pool tickets alone on each day's races. You understand that system of betting—the horses are bought uniformly for five dollars apiece, though there are also twenty-five dollar tickets. Holders of tickets on the winner divide the gross sum, less five per cent., which the gambling association takes; this five per cent. makes five thousand dollars, and twelve days' racing will net Morrissey, Reed and Spencer sixty thousand dollars. Their percentage on the field pools, which are sold at auction, probably amounts to as much. Then Morrissey, as a "book-maker," will probably clear fifty thousand dollars. A book-maker is one who individually bets certain odds that no horse will win. Probably one million of dollars is invested on the Saratoga races by wagerers of all classes, and this business is rapidly working out the old system of gambling at faro and roulette.

FRENCH SMUGGLER.—With a most cadaverous countenance and crape on his hat, he waited at a Paris station for the coffin to be lifted out of the train; but it was heavy, for it was lined with lead. And while the people looked on with sympathy and wondered if it was his wife, his mother or his father, the well informed police invited him into a private room, where they opened the coffin and emptied it of its contents of Brussels lace.

NO WONDER.—When a clown in a circus gets $125 per week for giving out solid jokes, it is no wonder that a country minister on $500 per annum, part potatoes, oats, hay and shoulder-hams at that, should get discouraged.

BIZ IS BIZ.—When a Cincinnati boarding house keeper tells a young man that he can't stay in the house over three weeks more without paying up, the young man knows that he has got to look around sharply for cash.

The Democratic State Platform.

The Democratic party of Oregon in State convention assembled, proclaim the following propositions of political faith and action:

1. Unfaltering devotion to the cardinal principles of Republican government, as declared and put into practical operation by the Fathers of the Republic.

2. The preservation of the general government in the proper exercise of the powers delegated to it in the Constitution, carefully and strictly construed, and the maintenance, inviolate of the several States of the Union in all their rights, dignity and equality, as the most competent and reliable administrators of their own domestic concerns, and the surest bulwark against the tendency toward a centralized despotism.

3. Opposition to aggression by either department of the government upon the functions of any other and to the exercise of federal authority of any of the rights or powers reserved by the constitution to the States respectively, or to the people.

4. That every attempt on the part of the Federal government to exercise any powers not delegated to it, and especially every interference by the government or any of its departments, with the local affairs of any State, or with the rights of the people thereof to choose their own representatives, is an act of usurpation which should be repudiated and condemned by every friend of constitutional liberty.

5. We demand retrenchment, reform and the most rigid economy in the administration of every department of the government; the honest payment of the debts, the sacred preservation of the public faith; strict accountability of all officers, and the speedy and impartial arraignment of all abuses of public trust before the tribunals of justice; a zealous care of the rights of election by the people; the absolute subordination of the military to the civil authority. The equal and impartial administration of the laws, and the protection of the rights of all; freedom of religion, of the press, and of the person, under protection of the habeas corpus, and trial by juries impartially selected.

6. We protest against the burdens of a protective tariff, as needless exactions from a people already intolerably oppressed by a national debt, and we insist that the tariff be so regulated as to provide only sufficient revenue for an economical administration of the government, and not for the purpose of enriching the few at the expense of the many, or fostering one branch of industry to the detriment of another.

7. That the precious metals are the only basis of commercial values; that an irredeemable paper currency is a national curse, and we insist upon the speedy return by the national government to specie payments.

8. The institution of the system of national banks was a fraud upon the country and an injustice upon the laboring classes, and we demand such prudent legislation as will gradually bring this vicious system to a close; that all currency which may be issued shall be convertible into coin upon demand and be issued directly by the goverement.

9. That the treaty between the United States and China shall be so modified as to apply solely to commercial relations.

10. That we condemn the party in power, only for its contempt of constitutional obligations, but for extravagant partisan and corrupt administration of the federal government; for its reckless expenditure and profligate waste of the people's money; for its oppressive, unjust and defective system of finance and taxation; for the perversion of the functions of the general government to enrich the great corporations at the expense of the people; for the jobbery and frauds which have brought reproach upon democratic institutions; for the iniquities of the protective system; for the curse of an inconvertible paper money; for its disgraceful diplomatic service and unfit appointments and continuance in office of incompetent and corrupt men at home and abroad; for its attempt to pass an unconstitutional force bill, and for a catalogue of other enormities which have rendered that organization offensive to and subversive of the liberties of a free people.

11. That corporations are the creatures of law; their functions and privileges are granted to subserve the public interests, and when they are not used for the object of their creation, but for purposes of oppression and extortion, we declare it to be the right and duty of the legislative power to regulate and control such corporations for the public good.

12. That we disapprove all measures in the interest of monopolies against labor, and therefore we approve of the declared principles and sympathies with the avowed objects of the order known as the Patrons of Husbandry, and with those of all other orders having for their object, retrenchment and reform in public affairs and the social advancement of the people.

13. That we are in favor of laboring to secure judicious appropriations from Congress for the purpose of improving our harbors along the western and northern boundaries of our State, and we demand that our representatives in Congress shall use their best efforts to secure the aid of the general government for the free navigation and improvement of the Columbia river, by the construction of locks at the Cascades; the improvement of the Willamette and Coquill rivers; the construction of the Portland, Dalles and Salt Lake and Winnemucca Railroads, and the early completion of the Oregon and California Railroad from Roseburg to the State line.

14. That the policy of the Republican party in dealing with the Indian tribes is impolitic and unwise; that the time has arrived when the few Indians now occupying the Umatilla, Grande Ronde and Siletz reservations should be removed to some other locality, and thus open up to settlement by the whites some of the richest portions of the State.

15. That we invite the hearty co-operations of all persons, whatever may have been their past political affinities, to unite with us in carrying out the principles herein enunciated.

SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Clackamas:

BETHESDA SPRINGS!

On the McKinzie River. Lane Co., Oregon.

A CHARMING SUMMER RESORT.

THESE SPRINGS ARE LOCATED about fifty-five miles east of Eugene City, and within four miles of the colebrated Big Prairie of the McKinzie. They are within a few hundred yards of Horse Creek one of the most famous trout streams in Oregon. Deer and elk are very plenty near these Springs, having been the resort for ages of these animals. The grandest and most picturesque scenery of the North Pacific. I have the best buildings and the best accommodations of any Springs in this part of the State. My bath house is new, and is constructed with reference to the wants of those visiting me from the valley. I also have an excellent vapor bath room constructed near the head of the Spring, and in all things, I propose to keep up with the demand for an institution of this kind.

An experienced physician in attendance at all times. Board and Lodging in good style for those who prefer it. Animals can be pastured for small cost, and be perfectly safe.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER

Every year increases the popularity of this valuable Hair Preparation; which is due to merit alone. We can assure our old patrons that it is kept fully up to its high standard; and it is the only reliable and perfected preparation for restoring GRAY OR FADED HAIR to its youthful color, making it soft, lustrous, and silken. The scalp, by its use, becomes white and clean. It removes all eruptions and dandruff, and, by its tonic properties, prevents the hair from falling out, as it stimulates and nourishes the hair-glands. By its use, the hair grows thicker and stronger. In baldness, it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, and will create a new growth, except in extreme old age. It is the most economical HAIR DRESSING ever used, as it requires fewer applications, and gives the hair a splendid, glossy appearance. A. A. Hayes, M.D., State Assayer of Massachusetts, says, "The constituents are pure, and carefully selected for excellent quality; and I consider it the BEST PREPARATION for its intended purposes."

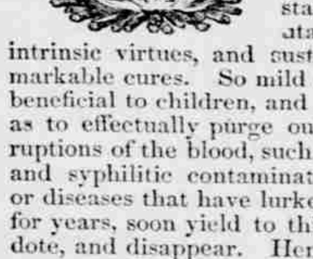
Ayer's

Sarsaparilla



Is widely known as one of the most effectual remedies ever discovered for cleansing the system and purifying the blood. It has stood the test of years, with a constantly growing reputation, based on its intrinsic virtues, and sustained by its remarkable cures. So mild as to be safe and beneficial to children, and yet so searching as to effectually purge out the great corruptions of the blood, such as the scrofulous and syphilitic contamination. Impurities, or diseases that have lurked in the system for years, soon yield to this powerful antidote, and disappear. Hence its wonderful cures, many of which are publicly known, of Scrofula, and all scrofulous diseases, Ulcers, Eruptions, and eruptive disorders of the skin, Tumors, Blotches, Boils, Pimples, Pustules, Sores, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, and internal Ulcerations of the Uterus, Stomach, and Liver. It also cures other complaints, to which it would not seem especially adapted, such as Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Fits, Neuralgia, Heart Disease, Female Weakness, Debility, and Leucorrhœa, when they are manifestations of the scrofulous poisons

It is an excellent restorer of health and strength in the Spring. By renewing the appetite and vigor of the digestive organs, it dissipates the depression and listless languor of the season. Even where no disorder appears, people feel better, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. The system moves on with renewed vigor and a new lease of life.
