THE ENTERPRISE.

OREGON CITY, OREGON, OCTOBER 15, 1875

AN EXPLANATION.—We have been taken to task for speaking in a commendatory strain concerning a couple of itinerant scientists of whom we knew comparatively nothing. To the extent that we recommended them, they were deserving; that is, they were entertaining and instructive lecturers. Of this fact we were thoroughly satisfied, for we had heard them, we looked before we took the leap. Concerning the curative powers of the one, and the phrenological insight of the other, it was not our province to speak, these were matters upon which the public alone was competent to pass judgment.

HOME AGAIN.—The many friends of Miss Emma Miller were pleased to greet her back home last Wednesday. It is a little over two years since her face has been seen among us, and to many it has seemed an age. During her absence she has been attending the musical institute at Boston, one of the finest in the Union, and we hope soon to have a practical test of her advancement in the art of music, as well as to finish that game of croquet we commenced on our way East. We heartily join with her many friends in welcoming her home again.

REWARD.—A reward of $200 has been offerd by the citizens of Butteville for the arrest of Jas. Whitney Jr., and Wm. Whitney Jr., who are suspected of setting fire to the premises of G. A. Cone Jr., on the 29th ult. The following is the description of the parties: Jas. Whitney, full, rough featured, long neck, about twenty four years of age, long nose, dark complexion, very little beard if any, a scar on one side of his neck, hair very dark and straight, about five feet high. Wm. Whitney is about 16 years of age, rather fair complexioned, a little squint eyed, about five feet four inches in height.

SOLD OUT.—We are reliably informed that Mr. Holladay has disposed of his entire interest in the O. S. S. Co's. boats running on the Willamette river and also the property in this city, to the bondholders of the railroad. For the benefit of Oregon City, we hope this is true, and that the bondholders will give such inducements to manufacturing interests as will cause the water power which has been lying idle to be made use of. The Company have the best water power in Oregon, and all that is wanted to build up Oregon City is that it be put to use.

AN EXPRESSION OF THANKS.—The Good Samaritan Hospital and Orphanage recently established at Portland, wishes to thank the people of Oregon City for their very generous donations. To Messrs. Jacobs, the employees of the Woolen Mills, and Mr. A. Levy, it is especially thankful. This is an institution supported entirely by voluntary contributions and in whose comforts the orphan or sick of any creed or color may share. We commend it to our benevolent people as an object in every way deserving their charity.

IN A HURRY.—The mail car last Friday evening was attached to Mr. Holladay's private car, and when it passed through here it did not go slow enough to throw on the mail, consequently no Oregon City bag went down on that evening. We ought not to complain, however, as it was an unexpected honor thrust upon us to have our mail brought here by the same engine that pulled after it the palladial car of the ex-President of the Oregon and California Railroad Company.

FROM THE MINES.—Mr. J. M. Frazer returned from the mining district last Tuesday. He reports Messrs. Buck and Hurley hard at work opening the ledge, and the prospects very good. Some silver has been found, and everything indicates that when the ledge is fully open, it will pay handsomely. The parties feel highly encourrged with the prospects thus far obtained.

LETTER LIST.—Letters remaining in the Postoffice, at Oregon City, October 15, 1875:

Brouder Joseph; Evans Felix G. 2; Eaton Mohala Mrs.; Fallert Theresia; Fitzgibbens John; Foster Chas. H. 2; Hamilton J. C; Randall Frank A.; Rudolph P. Mrs.; Speess, Geo. Slu James A.; Taylor Frank J. Atty. at Law; Welsh Jane Miss; Wilson Wm. Wells Lizzie Miss;

If called for please say when "advertised." J. M. BACON, P. M.

A POST-OFFICE WITHOUT A MASTER. We have been informed that one of our county postmasters, on account of "domestic infelicities," has left his home and office. His wife we are told soon followed suit, taking an opposite direction, and the mail is now left to distribute itself. This will never do.

A DIFFERENCE.—Prof. Agassiz was so completely infatuated with scientific pursuits that he once told a lecture agent that he could not afford time for money-making. The scientific gentlemen who have just left us do not appear to have been blinded to quite such an extent.

SPECIAL TERM.—A special term of the Circuit Court for this county was set for November 15th, by Judge Shattuck, owing to the fact that a large number of cases could not be tried for want of time at the late regular session.

REGRET IT.—We learn that a number of persons interested, regret very much of having allowed the use of the Baptist Church for the lectures which were delivered last week. They could not get it again for that purpose.

AN ADONIS.—A committee of young ladies on Saturday night last, decided Mr. Henry Wright to be the handsomest young man in Oregon City. Our devil says it it is possible that the committee was not aware of his presence.

CALLED.—We had a very pleasant call from Mr. Philip Foster, of Eagle Creek, well known throughout this State, last Saturday. This was his first visit to our town for years. He looks remarkably healthy and hearty.

RETURNED.—Mr. Geo. Clark, who has been at New Westminister the past summer, returned home last Saturday, looking in fine health and feeling in excellent spirits; George seemed to be pleased to get back among his old friends again.

GONE TO THE FAIR.—Quite a large delegation from this place went up to the Fair last Monday to camp. Others have gone and returned the same day. To-day nearly everybody in town is talking of going.

RETURNED.—Master Ewing King Henderson of Eugene City fame, has returned to our city, and will probably make this his future home. Girls!

A SANGUINARY ERROR.—There are people now in Oregon City who hold it is a mistake to say that physicians no longer resort to "bleeding."

IMPROVED.—Postmaster Bacon has recently had his post office arrangements much improved and more conveniently arranged.

PASSED THROUGH.—Mr. Ben Holladay and wife passed through here last Friday night on a special train for Portland.

A Sensible Correspondence.

We take the following extracts from a correspondence in the Oregonian of last Tuesday, evidently written from this place. It deserves a careful reading by the citizens of this county:

The fruit that will be sent to the fair from the Oregon City manufactory, will present a new source of income to Clackamas county. Its fine condition, as the result of good care, as well as a proof of our good soil and climate, will add a new per cent. to the worth of our orchards, and to the value of even the rough land for orchards. You, who go to the fair, be sure and examine that fruit put up in its neat glass cases. You can see tests of many kinds, and have evidence to the eye, better than to the ear alone. * * * *

But the fruit dryers give a new life to the business and show the farmer that every acre in orchard is worth from $100 to $500 per year to him. Apples at the low price of 25 cents per bushel, or half a cent a pound delivered, pay Mr. Latourette from $100 to $200 per acre of trees, this year. Pears pay nearly twice as much at three-fourths of a cent a pound. Plums pay three times as much at two and three cents per pound. Look at the fine pear orchards of Messrs. Lovejoy and Straight, near the Clackamas bridge for proof of what the products are per acre. Who ever saw such perfect fruit and so much on trees so small? If one or more of those trees could be photographed and sent to the State fair and to the Centennial they would prove more than the dried fruit the value of our soil and climate for these productions.

The Messrs. Wallings' plum orchard ought to have been photographed for the fair and Centennial. The fine apple orchards, now with their rich golden harvests, ought to be pictured on the silver plate and held up to the gaze of the thousands who need to see, as well as to hear and to read.

"How much fruit is sold per year from these two and a half town lots?" was the question put to a friend in Oregon City last Saturday.

"About one hundred dollars per annum. That quince tree pays me every year from five to six dollars. Those two small Bartlett pear trees paid me six dollars this year. My winter fruit nets me one dollar per bushel. The fruit and poultry will pay the rent of such a place as this, and give a family all they want besides." * *

We write this to show our orchards will now pay for care in several ways. If it be asked whether the market for dried fruit will continue and extend, we reply that all the evidence we can get assures us that it will. If it is objected that a farmer cannot afford to haul his apples ten miles to a dry house for half a cent a pound, we answer that one dry house will be needed for every ten miles of farms. That is one will dry all the fruit within a radius of five miles. Put up another when you cannot haul your fruit to the one already built. The world is the market for dried fruit. The freights will become cheaper year by year, and you can be ready with your products of bush, vine and tree to feed the hungry millions.

Annual Convocation.

The twenty-third annual Convocation of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the missionary jurisdiction of Oregon and Washington Territory convened in Trinity Church, Portland, Tuesday evening of last week, and held its concluding services on the Sunday following. Sixteen clergy were in attendance besides Lay Delegates from the two churches in Portland, from Salem, Oregon City, Milwaukie, Astoria, Seattle, and Walla Walla. From the parochial reports of the clergy and the Bishop's address we learn that the outlook for the church is of the most encouraging character. Two have been added to the clergy list during the past year, two churches have been consecrated, the corner stones of four more laid and the churches being built thereupon are rapidly verging towards completion, one hundred and three persons confirmed. In nearly every Parish and Mission station there are many evidences of real and most satisfactory growth. On Saturday afternoon the Good Samaritan Hospital and Orphanage was formally opened. Interesting and able addresses were delivered by the Bishop and the Rev. Mr. Burton. This is a noble work of charity and a great venture of faith. That such an institution as this is greatly needed is evident from the fact that six orphans were received even before it was formally opened, and that within 24 hours after it was opened a patient was received into the Hospital. This institution, as its name implies is for all classes and condition of men without regard to creed or nationality. It ought therefore to receive the cordial and liberal support of all right minded people. We were pleased to see a handsome box of clothing and provisions was furnished by St. Paul's Parish of this city, and also that blankets and money were made by the proprietors and employees of the Woolen factory. We hope that others may go and do likewise.

The closing services of the Convocation were very interesting, being missionary in their character. Very interesting addresses were made by the Rev. Messrs. Wells, Fisher and the Bishop. These addresses showed what need there was for missionary works how much there is being done, and how much there is to do for which there is neither means nor men. In this matter of work the Episcopal church is not behind other christian bodies, and no longer can it be said with any approach to truth that she is adapted only for the center of wealth and culture. To many places in this land her services are carried where there are no religious services of any kind.

CIRCUS.—Mr. Wilson, with his entire hippodrome intends giving an exhibition in this city on Saturday morning next. We have no doubt our citizens will turn out in force, "just to take the children, you know."

LOOK FOR HIM.—Sheriff Apperson commences visiting the various precincts next Monday to receive taxes. He will be at Eagle Creek on that day.

Several drunks in town this week, but none worthy of mentioning.

FASHIONABLE GOSSIP.—The fact that Mr. Henry Warren intends making the voyage of Salt River has for a long time agitated politico-social circles. Though this river is laid down on no maps, the Radical beau will have no difficulty in discovering it. We hear that this trip has become of late very fashionable among Republicans. Bon voyage!

When you hear a Warren man say that he (Warren) is honest, ask him how it is that he accepted the nomination at the hands of the most corrupt ring of Federal officials that has ever cursed any State, and stands pledged to support the National Administration of Grant and his pack of thieves.

THE DIFFERENCE.—Hill, in the Oregonian, says that Warren is sure to be elected. In private conversation in this city, he said that this campaign was already decided, and that Warren had not "a ghost of a chance." He will find the latter story to be true on the day of election.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—The failures of Wm. P. Roberts, flour and grain merchant, from losses on advances of grain, but liabilities said not to be heavy; of A. Sherman, dealers in woolens, for $100,000 with assets of $30,000; Geo. Reychenburg, cotton dealer, for small amount, and Murrell & Co., also cotton dealers and a much larger concern, said to be from over-trading, were reported yesterday. The latter firm say their failure is based on a mistake of some figures in a hurried statement taken from the books, and hope to resume Monday.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—Office discontinued—Rye Valley, Baker Co., Or. Name changed—Rattlesnake, Lane Co., Oregon, to Trent. Postmasters appointed—Geo. W. Davis, Peoria, Linn county, Oregon; A. J. Wisner, Owensburg, Whitman Co., W. T.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 9.—In the quarter sessions court to-day Judge Elcock sentenced Westervelt, charged with being implicated in the abduction of Charley Ross, to seven years in Eastern Penitentiary, at solitary confinement, and a fine of one dollar. Westervelt received the sentence calmly.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 11.—The Mechanic's Institute fair closed last night. The attendaance yesterday was greater than on any preceding day. The cash receipts at the door during the season have been, in round numbers, $90,000, about $4,000 of which is net profit.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Oct. 11—Alexander H. Stephens, was taken ill on Saturday. His suffering is represented as excruciating and his condition critical. He is afflicted with stone in the bladder.

NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—The Germania rooms were packed yesterday with working men, who had gathered to listen to the story of grievances of the Fall river mill operatives. John Swenton was chairman and the speakers were John Bailey, Morgan Jefferson and Bitcliff, delegates from the Fall river weavers, and Swinton, McGuire, Winter and Thompson, of New Yoak. The speakers, introducing delegates said they had come to represent the white slaves of Rhode Island. Among the sentiments most loudly applauded was one from L. Thompson, that any man who controlled over $1,000,000 was both a thief and robber.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—The Attorney General is in daily receipt of advices from Mississippi. Governor Ames is averse to arming citizens of the State for their own protection for the reason that it would produce great excitement. Everything is reported quiet.

An official statement of the number of grain and molasses distilleries in operation on the 1st inst., and their daily capacities, shows the number of distilleries to be 174, with a total daily spirit producing capacity of 189,883 gallons, and increase over September of 45 distilleries and 18,874 gallons daily.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 12.—About noon a high wind blew down the unfinished agricultural hall on the grounds. The building was about one-third completed and entirely of wood. Eight laborers were injured five seriously and one fiatally. The building was under contract, to finished by January 1st.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 12.—Ballot Box is represented to be out of the great 4-mile race for the $30,000 purse, owing to the tendons of his legs at the Nevada State fair.

If you want to take a chance in Grant for a third term, vote for Warren. Should the election of the next President go to the House, which is not altogether improbable, Warren will vote for U. S. Grant. He is pledged to his support.

BORN.

In this city, October 11, 1875, to the wife of Dr. A. J. Hover, a son.

Extraordinary Opportunity for the Relief of the Afflicted.

The surgeons of the National Surgical Institute, located in Indianapolis, Indiana, Pacific Branch, 319 Bush street, San Francisco, have finally decided to the many urgent appeals to visit Oregon and Washington Territory. Three or more of the surgeons will be at the Cosmopolitan Hotel, Portland, Oregon, on the 1st, 2d, 3d, 4th, 5th and 6th, of November, 1875.

They will have with them a great amount of surgical apparatus, appliances, etc., and competent assistants and workmen to change, fit, and make such apparatus as may be required. They will come especially prepared to treat all surgical cases: Paralysis, all kinds of Deformities of the Face, Spine and Limbs, Diseased Joints, Diseased Eyes, Catarrh, Private Diseases, Piles, Fistula, etc. On account of the great expense attending such a trip, they will not make another; therefore, all who wish to avail themselves of the advantages of the Institute, without the long journey to San Francisco or Indianapolis, must do so at this time. No case will be undertaken without a fair hope of relief. It is needless to say that the institution is entirely responsible, and the largest and most popular of the kind in America, curing thousands annually. Remember the time and place, and come early. ☞Send to the Institute for circular.

Dancing School.

Prof. J. C. Ryder, lately arrived from San Francisco, proposes opening a dancing class in this city, on or about the 20th of October. He charges $1 00 per lesson, and from the references and reputation he has, this is but a small price for the benefit to be reaped.

POND'S EXTRACT—"Staple as flour" is what druggists say of POND'S EXTRACT, which may be relied on as the best Family Medicine for the cure of many classes of diseases. Send to the POND'S EXTRACT COMPANY, 98 Maiden Lane, New York, for a book, free, giving its history and uses; and ask your druggists for it when you need a Pain Destroyer.

It is no Wonder that invalids lose faith in all specifics, when so many worthless medicines ar advertised for the cure of various diseases; but which, when tried, are "found wanting." We have yet to learn, however, of the first failure of DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, to cure coughs, colds, and pulmonary disease.

The immense sales of HALE'S HONEY OF HOREHOUND AND TAR proves that the people consider it the only sure remedy for coughs and colds and all pulmonary diseases. Sold by all druggists.
Pike's Toothache Drops cure in one minute.

IMPORTANT.—Endorsed by the Medical profession, DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS cures Coughs, Colds and Consumption, and all disorders of the Throat and Chest. DR. TOWLEY'S TOOTHACHE ANODYNE cures in one MINUTE. feb16

The Great Anti-Periodic.

The certainty and promptitude with which Hostetter's Stomach Bitters conquer the most obstinate cases of malarial disease, and the complete protection which they afford the system against the miasmatic poison which impregnates the air of low-lying, marshy localities, stamp them as the foremost of American antiperiodics. Wherever on this continent fever and ague is a regular visitant—in the bottom lands of the South, the new clearings and mining districts of the West, and in all localities in the Eastern and Middle States where malaria prevails, the Bitters are recognized as the only true specific for the disease, and its most reliable preventive. They are, moreover, a safe and agreeable as well as a certain remedy, and on this account are immeasurably superior to the preparations of quinine, arsenic, bismuth, and other mineral poisons mistakenly administered as curatives for maladies caused by miasma, and which if persisted in work irreparable injury to the constitution.

Unfortunately, fever and ague, and the other febrile complaints generated by miasma, are not the only evils which result from it. A great variety of disorders are superinduced by the irritation which it causes. Among these are neuralgia, rheumatism, gout, periodical headache, palpitation, painful affections of the spleen, and various derangements of the stomach. When traceable to malaria, the above affections are apt to assume, like the disease which originated them, an intermittent type; that is to say, they recur at regular intervals. Hostetter's bitters, however, obviates them all, by banishing the miasmatic virus from the system.

THOMAS CHARMAN

ESTABLISHED 1853.

DESIRES TO INFORM THE CITIZENS of Oregon City and of the Willamette Valley, that he is still on hand and doing business on the old motto, that

A Nimble Six Pence is Better than a Slow Shilling.

I have just returned from San Francisco, where I purchased one of the

LARGEST AND BEST SELECTED

ever before offered in this city; and consists in part, as follows:

Boots and Shoes,
Clothing, Dry Goods,
Hats and Caps,
Hosiery of Every Description,
Hardware, Groceries,
Paints and Oils,
Sash and Doors,
Chinaware, Queensware,
Stoneware, Crockery,
Platedware, Glassware,
Jewelry of Various Qualities
And Styles, Clocks and Watches, Ladies and Gents' Furnishing
Patent Medicines, Goods, Fancy N
Rope, Faming tions of Every Implements of Description
All Kinds, Carpets,
Mattings, Oil
Cloth, Wall Paper, etc.,

Of the above list, I can say my stock is the MOST COMPLETE ever offered in this market, and was seleted with especial care for the Oregon City trade. All of which I now offer for sale at the Lowest Market Rates.

No use for the ladies, or any one else, to think of going to Portland to buy goods for I am Determined to Sell Cheap and not to allow myself to be

UNDERSOLD IN THE STATE OF OREGON.

All I ask is a fair chance and quick payments, believing as I do that in Oregon City enables me to know the requirements of the trade. Come one and all and see for yourselves that the old stand of cannot be beaten in quality or price. It would be useless for me to tell you all the advantages I can offer you in the sale of goods, as every store that advertises does that, and probably you have been disappointed. All I wish to say is for I do not wish to make any mistakes. My object is to tell all my old friends now that I am still alive, and desirous to sell goods cheap, for cash, or upon such terms as agreed upon. Thanking all for the liberal patronage heretofore bestowed.

Twenty Years Experience

Come, and See, and Examine for Yourselves
