

THE CONCERT.

Successful in Every Particular.

Perhaps never before has Pope's Hall held a larger or more select audience...

An English adaptation of "The Congressional March" from the opera bouffe "Le Fille de Madame Angot" called "Sweet Dawn Awakes"...

Mr. E. T. Hatch followed this duet with "By the Blue Sea" a song most judiciously chosen and most admirably rendered...

Decidedly the gem of the evening was that dear old song of Tom Moore, the favorite of Papa Rosa, "The Last Rose of Summer"...

Very bright the space of life, the second part of the entertainment began with most creditfully selected and well delivered recitation, by Miss Kate Frazer...

Following in name the "Tanquet" a good song for a good voice which was not wanting in Mr. Hatch.

SWINDLER CAUGHT.—Deputy District Attorney Chamberlain has petitioned Judge Grover for an injunction to restrain John Easterbrook back to this State...

THE ST. NICHOLAS MAGAZINE for November, like its namesake, the patron of boys and girls, comes loaded down with goodies...

A MODEL GARDEN.—As evidence of the fruitfulness of our soil, we have been requested by Mr. Henry Soules to publish a list of the various products raised by him...

BEAR KILLED.—A bear had for some time past been making himself quite at home in the orchard of Mr. Howland...

NARROW ESCAPE.—A bold mountaineer who had inhaled too volitionally the gentle dew of Kentucky, and the sympathy of whose nasal organ had been sadly interfered with by one of our "boys"...

LETTER LIST.—Letters remaining in the Postoffice, at Oregon City, November 3rd, 1875:

ARRESTED.—Deputy Marshal Warren found a desperate case of dead drunk on the street Saturday night, and in sending him to the calaboose found him snoring in a slumber...

NEW STEAMER.—The O. S. N. Co.'s new light draft steamer Orion, built at Portland, Captain Pratt in charge, has taken the place of the E. N. Cooke on the route between this place and Portland...

RETURNED.—Mr. N. O. Walden returned last week from Malheur Reservation, where he has been engaged in surveying for the past eight months...

AN IMPORTANT MOVEMENT.—At the regular meeting of the City Council, held last Monday evening, Mr. Geo. A. Harding, Chief Engineer of the Fire Department, filed his report and recommended the purchase of 400 feet of carbonaceous hose...

LIVERY STABLE.—In another column appears the advertisement of Mr. A. Willis, who lately purchased the Livery and Feed Stable of this place from Mr. Frazier...

THE MARKETS.—Legal tenders, buying 8 1/2 cent, selling, 6 1/2. Wheat in Oregon City has advanced to 55 cts per bushel...

LIBRARY HALL.—We notice that the young ladies of our city are busily engaged in decorating Library Hall...

TO LEAVE US.—Mr. J. Wortman has sold his store to Mr. J. Jagers, and proposes moving to Junction City in the Spring...

BAPTIST CHURCH.—It is expected that several persons will be immersed by Pastor Huff next Sunday, after morning service.

MR. H. C. STEVENS has been deputed to bring back Easterbrook from San Francisco. He left by steamer yesterday.

AT A REVIVAL.—Rev. Mr. Huff, of this city, has been assisting at a revival in Eugene City.

IN the Washington Territory Legislature on Saturday last a petition was presented from Cowitz county asking for $10,000 to drain Silver Lake and Tuttle river.

THE Secretary of the Treasury addressed a circular to collectors of duties on the 27th inst. for the purpose of the payment of all City orders issued to date...

THE extension of the Seattle and Walla Walla railroad, to deep water on Duamish river is proceeding as fast as the weather will permit, and will soon be accomplished.

THE Port Townsend Argus protests most vigorously against the passage of the pilot law now before the Legislature. Its objection is that it requires pilots to go outside the straits.

THE burnt district in Walla Walla is already being rebuilt.

ON the 2d of this month, elections were held in eleven different States. The "rag-baby" has been deservedly strangled in Pennsylvania...

THE new Secretary of the Interior, Zack Chandler, is reported to be rich, so we need not fear his dabbling in petty peculations...

AN OLYMPIAD.—For the following poetical outburst, handed in by Mr. A. Non, we do not hold ourselves responsible:

Awake from pressure of the things he eat, And to the several vessels in the room He gave a ghastly and a flashy bloom...

TO HOLDERS OF CITY ORDERS. NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT there is now on file in the City Treasury for the payment of all City orders issued to date...
