THE MASQUERADE BALL.-The elite of our town, of terpsichorean proclivities, are on the qui vive of expectation are also desired for the Good Samaritan and excitement, in anticipation of the grand ball to be given at Pope's Hall on Thanksgivings night. From the objects will be marked by the generospreparations being made by our young people, we feel warranted in predicting that this will be the most brilliant affair of the season. Some of the best musicians of Portland have been engaged for the occasion, and everything necessary is being done to make the ball a grand success. The company is to be select, yet from the large number of invitations given out here and in Portland there will nevertheless be a large attendance presen , for which there is an de room in the spacious and com-modious hall. This is the first masquerade given here in several years, and it is not to be wondered at that everybody is anxious to be present, shrouded in a disgnise that even Terpsichore herself would fail to pene-We are informed that ladies intending to mask car obtain complimentary tickets by calling at Ward & Harding's or Ackerman Bros. Doors will be open at eight o'clock and daneing to commence promptly at nine, with a grand murch. All holders of tickets will be entitled to suppe , which will be furnished by the ladies at Library Hall. Gentlemen will progure tickets beforehand as no money will be taken at the door. Those who intend to participate should be on hand early to avoid a rush and confusion, as everybody is coming determined to have a business for several years, and was good time.

ISSANS.—The many friends of Mr. Chas. Walker will be pained to learn of the sad misfortene that has befallen him. Though the rumor respecting his of Portland, has sold a half interest in present condition are somewhat vague his steamboat and hoisting apparatus in this city: "I suppose Chas. Walker is either insane or dead. He crossed the Columbia river nearly two weeks ago, put up his toum for the might and went to bed in the barn, a mile and a half from The Dalles. In the morning his bed was found empty. Much search has been mole, but without success. Tais, with a clipping from the Portland Bee which we give below, is all we have learned of the unfortunate man thus fir: "Mr. Chas. Walker, one of Commissioners for Yakima county, W. T, who has been missing from the Unatilla Hense, The Dalles, since Oct. 2sth, was found in a log cabin about ifteen miles below that place. He hased and frightened the boy who had found him. The boy says that the unformade man thrown Bible--which be arently been reading-at him. Mr. Walker is now at The Dalles, probably insanc.

FIRE EXTINGUISHERS.—We have before us the proceedings of the National Convention of the Fire Departments, which met in New York city on Oct. 4th, and find that after thorough discussion it was agreed by a large majority, that when any one system is to be relied upon to extinguish fires, the reservoir system (if a head of 100 feet can be obtained) is by far the best.
