"THAT BAR."-The hunters about Moreland's, on upper Molalla, have been chasing a monster black bear for some time; but bruin is too much for them so far. He comes out at night and commits his depredations in the farmers' orchards, then is suddenly taken with a desire to travel, and is out of reach of hunters and dogs before they got on his track in the morning. We expect soon, however, the hunts-men will outwit his bearship and bring home his shaggy coat as a trophy-a just return for his nightly foragings.

FAIR AND FESTIVAL.-The fair and festival, given at Pope's Opera House. on Thursday evening last, by the ladies of St. Paul's Guild, was one of the most successful affairs of the season. The display of articles for sale was quite large and they were rapidly disposed of to the appreciative growd. The tables, spread with ice cream, cakes and other delicacies, were well patronized. The exercises consisted of select readings, singing, instrumental music and tableaux, all of which were well rendered. The net receipts were $130.

RUNAWAY.—On Tuesday morning as Mr. Chas. Albright was driving his meat wagon near the slaughter house below town, the horses became frightened and ran, spilling Charley out with the contents of the wagon. Luckily he escaped unhurt.
