Coming--Lewis Brothers.

At Popes Hall, on Saturday and Monday evenings, Jan. 15th and 17th, we are to have the celebrated Lewis Brothers, of whom we have good report, and we heartily recommend them to the public. Their entertainments are of an order that is appreciated by the cultivated classes. The exchanges we have received are loud in their praise, of which the following extract from the Albany Democrat will attest:

"One of the most commendable entertainments ever given in our city by a traveling organization was presented at Pacific Opera House on Saturday night, by the Lewis Culmination. The performance was highly appreciated by the large audience assembled, which we are pleased to say was not like the generality of exhibitions heretofore visiting us, and in common with our people we vote it meritorious in every respect. Oregon has, we can safely say, been imposed upon by nefarious exhibitions and tricksters more than any other State in the Union; consequently of late, the majority of entertainments have received but meagre encouragement. The Lewis Culmination is an exception, and all who attend are sure to pronounce it praiseworthy in every respect. The feats and delusions were new, and presented with beautiful paraphernalia and effects. The jugglery was extraordinary; as a mesmerist and magnetizer, Mr. Lewis stands without an equal, we dare say, in the world. Our sides fairly ached with irrepressible laughter at the odd antics of those under his control. Peal upon peal of laughter, which fairly shook the building, followed each act of the subjects. We cannot refrain from pronouncing Prof. A. Cayhel as a violinist the best that has ever appeared in this part of the State. The guitar playing by Mr. Lubin, was excellent; and the musical gems on the piano by Miss Irene Watson, were rendered in good style. The tableaux of statuary by a number of young ladies were beautifull and the scenes from life and living pictures by M'lle. Cecil DeCourcey, were really fascinating.

Proceedings of the County Court.

RANDALL JUDGE.

Court adjourned on the 11th, having been in session since the 3d inst. The term was taken up principally with hearing reports of road supervisors and applications for reduction of taxes of different taxpayers.

Case of Hawley Dodd & Co. vs. Corum Bros. came up for hearing--Judgment given by default.

In the matter of the estate of Isaac Capps, deceased--final report was made and securities discharged.

Sale of property of Volney C. Moss confirmed.

Petition filed and viewers appointed to locate a road leading from Palmateer's Settlement to Philip Linn's.

Report of viewers filed in matter of a road from Oregon City road near Marshfield to Union school house.

Petition filed and viewers appointed to locate a road leading from German settlement of the north fork of Eagle Creek to county road near Sandy.

Amount of bills allowed not ascertained, will be given next week.

In Memoriam.

Hall of Oregon Lodge No. 3, I. O. O. F., Oregon City, Jan. 8, 1875.

WHEREAS, Death has invaded our ranks and taken in his cold embrace our brother Wm. Broughton, therefore,

Resolved, That we deeply sympathise with his bereaved family in their loss of kind father and loved husband, that in view of our lost one who was always just, upright and honorable in his dealings with us and his fellow man, we wear the badge of mourning and drape Lodge for 30 days.

S. ACKERMAN, Secretary.

ANOTHER PIONEER GONE.—Mr. John Crawford died at the residence of his son-in-law, Dr. S. D. Howell, near Oregon City, Jan. 8th, 1876, aged 74 years, 6 months and 14 days. Mr. Crawford was born in Augusta county, Virginia, June 24, 1801. He came with his parents to Tennessee in 1811, and shared the toils of those early settlers until 1828. Then he joined the pioneer settlers who were moving into Arkansas. He remained in Fayetteville, Washington county, cultivating his farm and rearing his family. Since the death of his wife, 20 years ago, he has lived with his children. In 1870 he moved with some of them to Oregon, having a strong wish to see and share the experiences of the pioneers of the Pacific Coast. Eight children survive him, three in Oregon. Two daughters stood by his dying bed, ministering to him as they had done for many years. He was little known among us, but his venerable look and quiet ways made the stranger feel that he was a Christian gentleman, esteemed and loved. He died in the full faith of Christ, having no fear, gently breathing his last as one falls asleep. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church. His funeral services were conducted by Rev. G. H. Atkinson on the 10th inst. Let us honor the memory of the pioneers of our continent in this Centennial year of the Republic. Arkansas and Tennessee papers please copy.

LETTER LIST.—Letters remaining in the Postoffice, at Oregon City, January 14th, 1876:

Bramer, Miss Arminthy; Cooper, John L.; Darrow, R. H.; Eastrich Thomas; Edwiston Lavina; Follard G.; Hanson, Carl; Koppe, Otto; Kaegle, Geo.; Moran, Mrs. Catherine; McKinney, I. R.; Morris, Miss Rebecca; Mack, Mrs. Sarah; Richard, The Hoopman; Raymond, Charles; Swain, W. H.; Selwyn, Mrs. Mariah; Taylor, Clara L. (2); Thompson, W. G.; Tucker, Branch; Vanover, Wm.; Wood, Zachariah C.

If called for please say when "advertised." J. M. BACON, P. M.

CHURCH REPORT.—Treasurer's report of the Oregon City Baptist Church for the year ending Dec. 31st, 1875: Received from Sunday collections $141 73; monthly contribution prior to June 1st, $129. Received for pastor's support since June 1st, $264 32. Total, $534 05. The treasurer states that during the efficient service of Rev. J. T. Huff and wife, the church has received 21 members since June 1st—15 by baptism and 6 by letter.

As the steamer Alice was leaving Independence loaded with wheat on Tuesday, she struck a floating log, staving a hole in her hull. The leak was stopped after considerable trouble and she reached the basin in safety but will have to go into the dry dock for repairs.

THE MARKETS.—Legal tenders, buying 88; selling, 89. Wheat in Oregon City has declined to 90 cts per bus. Oats are worth 50 cents per bushel; butter 33 to 37 cents per pound; eggs 35 cents per dozen; chickens, spring, $2 00 per dozen; grown, $3 00; dried apples, 5@5½ cents per pound; plums, dried, 12@12½ cents per pound; potatoes, 50@55 cents per bushel; bacon, sides, 12 c. per pound; hams, 14 cents per pound; wool is worth 22 cents per pound.

EVANGELICAL.—On Sunday night, Capt. Wilkinson, Mr. Morse, and Wm. McCown, members of the Young Men's Christian Association of Portland, addressed a large audience at the Baptist Church in this city. They are all earnest workers in the cause of reforming the erring, and will doubtless do much good.

THE FUNERAL.—The funeral of Mr. William Broughton on Saturday afternoon was well attended. The Odd Fellows turned out in a body to show their esteem for their deceased brother, and over the remains Rev. J. W. Sellwood, of the Episcopal Church, delivered a most eloquent panegyric.

TRAMP, TRAMP, &C.—On last Sunday night a man whose appetite and capacity were each of a most prodigious kind, wandered into the Cliff House pantry and completely emptied it. The Boe says he was a tramp. Stearns ought to know, he stopped at the Cliff House that night.

ELK KILLED.—Albert Jones lately killed a large elk near his homstead claim on the north fork of Eagle Creek. He says deer have been plenty in his vicinity during the winter, and he has killed a large number of them.

CRYSTAL WEDDING.—There was a pleasant social gathering at the Cliff House last Friday night, on the occasion of the fifteenth anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes' wedding day.

GOOD SELECTION—The Pioneer and Historical society of Oregon has engaged Rev. H. Atkinson to deliver the fifth annual address at its meeting in Portland, on February 22d, 1876.

DAMAGED FLOUR.—About 560 sacks of flour taken from the sunken Gussie Telfair have been returned to Miller Marshall & Co. of this place, and will be disposed of for what it will bring.

EARLY, OR LATE?—Judge Randall showed us some fresh cherry blossoms on Monday morning, which he had just plucked from a tree in his orchard.

LEFT TOWN.—Our young friend Ed. Holmes left on the last steamer for 'Frisco, where he expects to make his home for a time.

NEW POSTOFFICE.—Dr. Jos. Castro has been appointed postmaster at the town of New Era, near Rock Island.

DIED.—In this county, Jan. 13th, Miss Elgerene Wright, aged 26 years 1 month and 10 days.

CROWDED OUT—Owing to pressure of matter two communications have been unavoidably crowded out.

The beak of a saw-fish is exhibited in a window on main street.

PRAYER MEETING.-Noon-day prayer meetings are being held here.

Read Lewis Bros' ad.

The Olympia Echo says: After two miles and a half of road are opened on the north side of Black river and five miles on the north side of the Chehalis river, the settlers on the north side of the lower Chehalis can come to Olympia without fording either of those large streams. This will be a great convenience in the winter season.

They want oats at Olympia.

DIED.

At his home, in this city, Jan. 7th, William Broughton, aged 49 years, 3 days.

[Mr. William Broughton, whose sudden death we are called upon to record, was born in England January 4th, 1827, and was thus at the time of his death aged 49 years and three days. He came to Oregon in the year 1852, since which time he has resided in and near Oregon City, and been more or less identified with its general interests. He had held several offices of trust in our city government, and had so acquitted himself as to gain the universal respect and esteem of his fellow townsmen. He was a skilled mechanic, a respected citizen and a true friend, and by many will be greatly missed. He leaves behind him a wife and several children to mourn his loss. May "the God of the widow and the Father of the fatherless" comfort and support them in this their heavy trial.]

Medical Science never gave the world a nobler boon than when one of its men of genius gave us DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY. Consumption, Coughs, Colds and Bronchitis can be cured. Take it in time, and you will not regret it.

We Can't Talk

Without showing the condition of our teeth. Every laugh exposes them. In order not to be ashamed of them let use that standard dentifrice, ZOZODONT, which is sure to keep them white and spotless. No tartar can encrust them, no canker effect the enamel, no specie of decay infest the dental bone, if ZOZODONT is regularly used. It is a botanical preparation, and its beneficial effects on the teeth and gums are marvelous, as it removes all discolorations, and renders the gums hard and rosy.

Religious.

Rev. George H. Atkinson will hold regular services in the Congregational Church, in this city, on the first and second Sabbaths of each month. Morning services at 10½ o'clock. On the first Sabbath at Holmes' School House at 3 o'clock, P. M.

M. E. Church—Rev. G. W. Day, pastor, will conduct services on each Sabbath, at 10½, A. M. Sabbath School at 1½ P. M. Will preach at Holmes' school house on the third Sabbath at 3 P M.

Baptist Church—Elder Huff, pastor. Preaching every Sabbath at 10¾ A. M. Sunday School at 12 M. Prayer meeting every Wednesday evening at 7 P.M.

St. Paul's Episcopal Church—Morning Service at 10:30 A. M., and Evening Service at 7 P. M. Sunday School and Bible Class at 2 P. M. J. W. Sellwood, Rector.

Catholic Church—Rev. Father Gibney, pastor. High mass at half past ten; Sunday school at 2 P. M.; Vespers at 4 P. M.

A Remedy that has made its Mark.

Success is the meed of excellence. The truth of this has never been more forcibly exemplified than by the triumphant career of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. No sooner did the people discover the genuine merits of that supreme invigorant and corrective than they hastened to stamp it with the seal of popularity. The press and medical profession speedily followed in the wake of the public, and emphatically endorsed it. Thus from the very outset the success of the Bitters as a remedy and preventive was an established fact, and a degree of popularity which it often takes proprietary medicines years to attain, was achieved almost at a stride by the then new preparation. Since that time every successive year has witnessed fresh accessions to the favor with which the Bitters were early regarded, and the area of its popularity is no longer confined to the United States, but includes the British Provinces in North America and the West Indies, South America, Mexico, portions of Europe and Australia. That it is not only a remedy for dyspepsia, constipation, biliousness, urinary and uterine complaints, nervousness and debility, but also a preventive of those maladies to which air and water, impregnated with miasma, give birth, has been nowhere so strongly evidenced as in those regions where climatic conditions unfavorable to health exist, and where the Bitters have been long and constantly tested. To call this superb cordial a remedy that has made its mark, cannot, we think, be regarded as boasting, since there is probably no proprietary remedy more widely known, universally respected and emphatically endorsed than these Bitters.
