CULMINATION TROUPE.-The Lewis Brothers' Culmination troupe on Tuesday evening ended a most successful series of entertainments at this place. The juggling, vocal and instrumental music, tableaux and magic deceptions were all well executed and of a highorder. The mesmeric subjects afforded much amusements for the audience, as did Mr. Lewis's many witty remarks. German and Music classes are making permitted himself to be tied by a good teacher. two well known citizens, and in the brief space of five minutes was entirely free. He lays no claim to spiritual influence, but is honest in this, as in his other tricks. On Tuesday night the evening's entertainment closed with a dance, which was greatly enjoyed, and kept up till a late hour. former proprietors of the Benton patronage of all Oregon amusement

CELESTIAL CARELESSNESS.-As our night watchman was going his rounds one night last week, at about midnight, he discovered a smoke issuing from a Chinese shanty, in such a manner as to arouse his suspicion that something was wrong. On entering he found that a lot of wood and kindlings, lying on the floor, had caught fire. He procured water and extinguished the fire, and then tried to rouse the occupants of the premises, and give them a "Scotch blessing," but found them too much stupefied with opium to comprehend the situation, so was obliged to leave in disgust. Had it not been for this lucky discovery we would probably have had a destructive fire, all originating from the carelessness of those opium-smoking Celestials.

The Magazine, likewise elegantly and profusely illustrated, has connected with it a staff of contributors surpassed by no literary monthly in the world. All three for $10 a year, postage free.

Religious Work.-Union services are continued at the Baptist Church with unabated interest. Rev. Mr. Huff | marry the first woman that proposes. and Rev. Mr. Day, ably seconded by the Y. M. Christian Association of Portland, are preaching nightly to a large congregation. On Tuesday evening D. W. Wakefield, and on Wednesday evening Rev.Mr. Atkinson, gave a helping hand to the good work. This (Thursday) evening General O. Howard will lead the services, and on Friday night the earnest Capt. M. C. Wilkinson.

DIED .- In this city, on the 14th inst., of typhoid fever, E. W. Harding, aged 18 years and 7 days. He was a young man of moral and temperate habits, and hig Iv respected by all who knew him. By this, his untimely death, a widowed mother is bereft of a kind and affectionate son, and brothers and sisters of a dear and beloved brother. The funeral took place on Sunday from the Episcopal Church, Rev. Mr. Sell-wood officiating.

ESCAPED.-The man arrested in this county some time since for stealing horses in Nevada, escaped from the officers at Astoria while they were deep in a game of cards. They were on thro their way to Nevada, via San Francisco, at the time. We think the Bee mis-taken in supposing these officers will be rewarded by the Nevada authori-
