OREGON CITY, OREGON, FEB. 4, 1876.

News Column.

Carlisle General Elio is dead. Roseburg has an assay office. Snow is six feet deep in some parts of California. Junction City is going to have a ball masque on the 14th of February. It is now rumored that a railroad will be in running order between Oregon and Winnemucca in three years. Three men, accused of murder, were lynched in West Virginia on the 26th ult. Albany intends sending some of its 2 1/2 pound pears to the Centennial. At North Adams, Mass., last week, two men were blown completely to pieces. A new revolution has broken out in Mexico. Heavy failures have taken place among Russian wheat dealers. Georgia Democrats will meet on the 26th of April to select delegates to the National Democratic Convention. On account of ill health, John May killed himself at San Francisco, last week. Whites and Chinese had a row in San Francisco during the celebration of the Mongolian New Year. The Herzegovinians are dissatisfied with the Austrian peace programme. California Bank stock brought $16 a share at San Francisco last week. It is proposed to run a new line of steamer between Santa Monica and San Francisco. The rain fell in Los Angeles, to date, 17.93 inches. A ship is to be built at Portland by subscription. Haslett, the "Pilgrim Print," is on his way north from Roseburg. Wells, Fargo & Co. have established an office at Ashland. J. H. Brown, Secretary of the Oregon Pioneer Association, wants a brief biography of every pioneer in the State. Ashland has organized and equipped a fire company. T. M. Gale has retired from the Umpqua Call. R. Newcombe is now sole owner. Jacksonville is shipping hides and deer skins to San Francisco. There were 43 marriages in Jackson county last year. The Jacobs Bros. were in Albany last week. Mr. James C. Hileman, Register of the Vancouver land office, died of consumption at that place on the 26th ult. Winslow, the Boston forger, escaped to Europe with his family on board the steamship Rotterdam. His forgeries are now figured as high as $1,000,000. Creditors of Edwin Booth & Co. have declared a dividend of 5 1/2 per cent. A. C. Hoising, Jake Rehm and J. N. Hoyt have been indicted by the grand jury of the United States, at Chicago. The general charge is that of conspiracy to defraud the Government. The burglars who robbed the bank at Northampton, Mass., on the 25th ult., took $29,000 in unsigned $5 notes. Burroughs, the wife murderer of Brooklyn, has been acquitted on the ground of insanity. The third annual session of the Woman Suffrage association began at Washington on the 27th ult., Mrs. M. J. Gage presiding. Fred Douglas is championing the cause. The Turks were victo ions in an engagement with the insurgents near Ragusa on the 26th ult. A dispatch by telegraph from Ragusa reports that the Turks under Montakr Pasha have retaken the forts and entrenchments at Radovan, which were captured by the Herzegovinians in the engagement of the 17th to the 19th ult. The refreshment and waiting rooms of the new International Railroad Station at Boulogne, France, have been destroyed by fire. The loss is heavy. The Oel, a paper lately started at Victoria, proposes to keep an eye on the dark proceedings of the B. C. Legislative Assembly. Claudio Arasbada stabbed and killed Andres Lopez at San Pasquel Cal. on the 24th ult. Pinson has introduced a bill in the California Senate, making it a penal offense to publish any correspondence except over the author's real name. About 200,000,000 feet of logs were put into the waters of Puget Sound last year. Ye local on the Salem Statesman is A. G. Schwatka, who established the first agricultural paper in Oregon. Henry L. Waldo, of Santa Fe, will probably succeed Justice G. Deane, deceased, as Chief Justice of New Mexico. A man named Peter Applan has been found frozen to death in Keep Cool Gulch, Montana. Poor fellow, he only followed instructions, and froze in the attempt. New Mexico has come to the conclusion that the Sabbath is not properly observed in that Territory. What are you going to do about it? The Navigation Company, recently formed at Bozeman, Montana, has bought a small steamer to run on the Upper Yellowstone. Alta, Utah, threatens to take out $5,500,000 worth of gold and silver ore this year. The town of Abanay, South America, was totally destroyed by an earthquake on December 4th.

Salem has 1,451 school children—710 boys and 741 girls. A renewal of hostilities in China is feared by European residents there. Frederick Lematine, the celebrated French actor, is dead. The large gilt eagle that used to adorn the pilot house of the lost Pacific has been picked up near Victoria. An Austrian corvette has been ordered to Crete to suppress the uprising in that island. Gen. Kaniffman will take command of Southern Russia and Caucasus in the spring. Some English capitalists will start a banking house at Los Angeles, Cal. The Albany express train killed a horse which foolishly stood on the track at Salem last week. The Douglas mine, near Canyonville, is "panning out" encouragingly. Tom Henry has been arrested at Salem for robbing Sam Horner of $35. There is talk of erecting a flouring mill at Turner's, Marion county. Gervais is working under incorporation laws. The total valuation of property at Gervais is $150,000, on which a tax of 3 mills is levied for city purposes. A paper 4 1/2 inches called the Daily Banner has made its appearance in Douglas county. Mash and milk festivals have been inaugurated at Corvallis. A new saw mill has been put up at King's Valley. Work has been commenced which will result in the State's owning the swamp lands in townships 39 and 40 south, range 8 east, amounting to 1,396 and 29-100 acres. Sexton beat Blosson at a three-ball game of billiards, in New York, last week. Jonathan Earle, treasurer of the Norfolk and New Brunswick hosiery company of New Jersey, is a defendant to the sum of $140,000. H. H. Starkweather, member of Congress, died on the 28th ult., at Washington. The Black Hills excitement is reviving. The National Democratic executive Committee met at Washington last week and resolved to begin an early and active organization. A revolution has broken out in Hayti. War is brewing between San Salvador and Guatemala. The Cuban insurgents are using the torch very successfully. Heavy suits against the Panama railroad are pending. A bill to allow women to vote in municipal elections and on money by-laws, was defeated by a small majority, last week, in Canada. The Berlin Reichstag has modified the penal code prohibiting immigration agencies, by adopting amendments punishing agents only for willful misrepresentations. A petition signed by all branches of the Armin family has been presented to Emperor William, praying the pardon of Count Henry Von Armin. A hotel proprietor named Malezowsky, of Petrolopolis, Cal., committed suicide on the 28th ult. 14,400 eggs are bought by a man every week at Marion Station. It is now said that Gov. Thompson will be at Boise City about the middle of this month. The reduction of the Austrian army is being seriously discussed. Queen Victoria is expected to visit the Imperial Court of Germany. The Sultan will accept Count Andrassy's note. An eminent Hungarian statesman, is dead. The Lord Lieutenant of Ireland has revoked the Peace Preservation act in the counties of Down, Kildare, Wicklow and Wexmouth. Lovely Hendricks took the first place on the St. Paul's academy roll of honor, at Salem, for the month ending January 7, 1876. Some San Francisco "sharper" is trying to get "beer money" out of Oregonians by writing that "the watch left with him for repairs will be sold if the $2 charges are not immediately paid." The contractors have completed the work of laying the gas and water mains of the State Capitol building. Dayton has got its new school bell hung, and "jingling." Seventy-five thousand bushels of wheat is still in store at Independence. Mr. Taylor Hill has two and a half million feet of logs in the Luckiamuck, which he is rafting to Salem. Calvin B. McDonald is in the lecture field. He will be in Oregon some time next spring. Albany thinks there will be many new buildings put up there in the summer. $275 were scratched off Montana's debt last year. Salt Lake's coldest day this winter was 15 degrees below zero. Wyoming, where women go out electioneering, had their mercury down to 30 degrees below zero. The Olympians pay $25 per ton for hay, and $1 per bushel for potatoes. The mining claims of the Chinamen in Jackson county that were jumped by white men have been decided to belong to the jumpers. Marshfield, Coos county, is out of debt. Newburg has a Centennial dancing club. The secretary of the Oregon Pioneer Association is collecting biographies of the "oldest inhabitant." Delegate Elkins, of New Mexico, has presented to the Secretary of War a petition signed by 509 of his constituents against the proposed abandonment of Fort Craig.

THOMAS CHARMAN ESTABLISHED 1853. DESIRES TO INFORM THE CITIZENS OF Oregon City and of the Willamette Valley, that he is still on hand and doing business on the old motto, that

A Nibble Six Pence is Better than a Slow Shilling. I have just returned from San Francisco, where I purchased one of the LARGEST AND BEST SELECTED STOCK OF GOODS ever before offered in this city; and consists in part, as follows: Boots and Shoes, Clothing, Dry Goods, Hats and Caps, Hardware, Groceries, Paints and Oils, Sash and Doors, Queensware, Chinaware, Crockery, Stoneware, Glassware, Plateware, Jewellery of Various Qualities and Styles, Clocks and Watches, Ladies and Gents' Furnishing Goods, Fancy N. Patent Medicines, Goods of Every Description, All Kinds, Corsets, Mattings, Oil Cloth, Wall Paper, etc. Of the above list, I can say my stock is the MOST COMPLETE ever offered in this market, and was selected with especial care for the Oregon City trade. All of which I now offer for sale at the Lowest Market Rate. No use for the ladies, or any one else, to think of going to Portland to buy goods for me. I am determined to sell Cheap and not to allow myself to be undersold in the State of OREGON. All I ask is a fair chance and quick payment, believing as I do that Oregon City enables me to know the requirements of the trade. Come one and all and see for yourself that the old stand of THOMAS CHARMAN cannot be beaten in quality or price. It would be useless for me to tell you all the advantages I can offer you in the sale of goods, as every store that advertises does that, and probably you have been disappointed. All I wish to say is Come, and See, and Examine for Yourself. For I do not wish to make any mistakes. My object is to tell all my old friends now that I am still here, and to sell goods cheap, for cash, or upon such terms as agreed upon. Thanking all for the liberal patronage heretofore bestowed, THOMAS CHARMAN, Legal Tenders and County Scribe taken at market rates. THOMAS CHARMAN. $275,000 lbs wood wanted by THOMAS CHARMAN.

YOUNG MEN Who are suffering from the effect of youthful follies or indiscretion, will do well to avail themselves of this great good book, laid at the altar of suffering humanity. DR. SPINNEY will guarantee to restore to health any individual suffering from any of the following diseases: seminal weakness, or private disease of any kind or character which he understands and fails to cure. He would, therefore, say to the unfortunate sufferer who may read this notice, that you are treading upon dangerous ground when you longer delay in seeking the proper remedy for your complaint. You may be in the first stage; remember you are approaching the last. If you are bordering upon the last, and are suffering from all or any of its ill effects, remember that if you persist in procrastination, you will never come when the most skillful physician can render you any assistance, when the door of hope will be closed against you; when no angel of mercy can bring you relief. In no case has the doctor failed of success. Then let not despair work upon your imagination, but avail yourself of the beneficial results of his treatment before your case is beyond the reach of medical skill. He will administer death buries you to a premature grave. Full course of treatment $25.00. Send money by Postoffice order or Express, with full description of case. Call or address, DR. J. H. THE WEEKLY SUN, 1876. NEW YORK. 1876. Eighteen hundred and seventy-six is the centennial year. It is also the year in which an Opposition Party of Representatives, the first since the war, will be in power at Washington. It is the twenty-third election of a President of the United States. All these events are sure to be of great interest to our countrymen, especially the latter; and all of them are worthy of being known to every citizen. The Sun will be fully and freshly reported and expanded in THE WEEKLY SUN. The Opposition House of Representatives, taking up the line of inquiry opened up by the late session, will diligently investigate the corruption and mismanagement of the late Administration; and, it is to be hoped, lay the foundation for a new and better period in our national history. Of this it is certain. The Sun will contain complete and accurate accounts, trustworthy information upon the above-mentioned topics. The twenty-third Presidential election, with the preparations for it, will be mentioned as they occur. Grant's aspirations for a third term of power, and the candidates of the Opposition Party, and as electing that candidate, (concerning all these subjects, those who read THE WEEKLY SUN, will be enabled to form a correct and intelligent opinion. The circulation of over eighty thousand copies, nearly has its readers in every State and Territory, and we trust that they will continue to be a thorough newspaper. All the general news of the day will be found in it condensed into concise articles, of length when of moment, and always, we trust, treated in a clear, interesting and instructive manner. It is our aim to make THE WEEKLY SUN the best family newspaper in the world, and we shall continue to give in its columns a large amount of miscellaneous reading, such as stories, tales, poems, scientific intelligence and agricultural information, for which we are not able to find room in our department especially is one of its prominent features. This department also regularly reports in its columns, and so are the markets of every kind. THE WEEKLY SUN, eight pages with fifty-six broad columns is only $1.20 a year, postage prepaid. This price includes the cost of the paper, and is only $1.20 a year. THE DAILY SUN, a large four page newspaper, published daily, except on Sundays, postage prepaid, $5 a month or $50 a year. We have no traveling agents. Address, THE SUN, New York City.
