STRANGER DIED .- A man named Jno. the Cliff House in this city on the 21st inst. He had been suffering from consumption for a long time, and came here from St. Vincent's Hospital, at Vancouver, where he had been receiving medical treatment for some 70 days. He was very much exhausted when he arrived, and was taken in charge by Mrs. Col. White and others, from whom he received every care and attention ground. that he could have had at his own home. No one supposed that his end was so near till Monday, when his spirit quietly took its flight to "the land beyond the river." A small party was collected by Col. White to accompany the hearse to the cemetry and see that the body was decently buried. We know nothing of his history further than this; but should be have a mother, sister, or friend, to whose eye this brief notice may come, it may be a source of much comfort to know that, though among strangers, he did not lack for sympathy and tenderest care dur-ing the last moments of his eartirly

THE GOOD WORK .- As a communication from one of our prominent citizens, we publish the following:

"We think from the spirit manifested Tuesday night, that our young friends are going to make a success of the Young Men's Christian Association, and we hope so, because we like to see these young Christians with all their beautiful lives before them, all their noble, generous impulses for good, set to work in harmony and Christian union; and so we understand this Association has no dogma or creed, but love and good will for all the race; it will form a skirmish line, an out-post, for the different churches of our city. Four churches are each respectively represented by two members in a board of managers. If it gives our town a cozy, warm nice place for our young folks to spend an hour, it will save many a poor boy from the haunts of sin. Mothers, fathers, brothers, sisters, lend us a helping hand "A LOOKER-ON."

Y. M. C. A .- The Young Men's Christian Association met Tuesday evening. Seventy-six members responded to the roll call. After report of room committee it was resolved to rent the hall under the "Good Templars'" as soon as the finances of the organization shall admit of it. The following officers were elected: Vice President, Mrs. S. Humarevs; Treasurer and Librarian, W H. Pope; Board of managers, two members were appointed from each church—Miss Emma Miller and David Caufield, from the Congregational; J. W. Meldrum and Mrs. Sarah Pope, from the Methodist; Willard Latour-ette and Chas. Moore, from the Baptist; and John Myers and Jennie La Forest, from the Episcopal. The Association then adjourned to meet at the M. E. Church on next Tuesday evening, at 7% o'clock.

PROPOSED ROAD. - The people of Eagle Creek settlement met at Foster's school house one day last week to discuss the practicability of building a macadamized or plank road from that neighbor-hood to Portland. We have not learned that any definite conclusion or plan was arrived at, and would suggest that they agitate the matter of a nore direct and better road from that place to this city, which project would be aided by munificent contributions from our citizens, and probably by an appropriation from the county. This road would have a decided advantage over that proposed, as it would not only give them as good market facilities, but ready access to the county scat, and help to develop our county, thereby enhancing the property of every landholder therein.

ACCIDENT.-Mr. James X. Dolan, of Portland, formerly of this place, met with a serious accident the other day. He was running the hand-car on his section near East Portland, and just as he was turning a curve at Mr. Stevens' alace, he collided with a locomotive engine under full headway, which knocked the hand-car into "pi" and knocked Mr. Dolan senseless, cutting an ugly gash in his face, nearly severing one side of the upper lip from the jaw. It was very fortunate under the circumstances that he escaped with his

THE BALL - Quite a large number were present at Pope's Hall on Tuesday night to celebrate the birthday of "the father of our country." The festivities were kept up till a late hour. Mr. Chas. Bray, of Portland, assisted by our home talent, furnished music for the occasion, and all perticipants agree that a most delightful time was had. The supper, furnished at the Cliff Honse, was a repast with which the most epicurean could not fail to be satisfied.
