The Swedish and Norwegian Consul at Steilacoom, Washington Territory, desires information as to the whereabouts of Carl Frederik Kindgren, a native of Sweden.
A large bear was killed on Salt creek, Polk county, the other day, by John Butler and Geo. Conlee, that had been fasting on the hogs and sheep of the county all winter.
Becher lectured in the Academy, in New York, on the 5th, for the benefit of the new Soldiers' Home. The house was jammed, and $13,700 was raised by subscription in a few minutes.
The stockholders of the Astoria Farmers' Warehouse have called a meeting at Astoria on the 28th inst., for the purpose of selling the warehouse and grounds, and dividing the proceeds among the shareholders.
O'Leary and Schmeidl are to commence a walking match of six days' duration on the 15th, at San Francisco. The match is for $2,000 a side, and the contestant walking the greatest distance within that time is to pocket the filthy lure.
Brother Sankey's voice, says the New York Sun, had almost given out in the last days of the revival. "A poor man who had a large family and quality of volume, and frequently refused to obey his will. It has been painful at times to witness his straining; and on Tuesday night, when he tried to fill the vast building with the solo sound of that emotional hymn, 'Almost Persuaded,' it seemed as though he would break down long before he reached the last line which thrilled the seven thousand and silent listeners. His voice has certainly, during the last six months, been put to a test which we do not think any other man's ever endured. It was at its best and freshest during the open meetings in Brooklyn. Since then, last October, he has sung almost daily before huge audiences, and often as many as six or seven times a day, at all hours of the day and evening. Brother Sankey is entitled to a long rest, by which his voice can regain its native qualities powers. It has given pleasure to many millions of people during the past five years."
SENDING PRAYERS IN A CART.—Mr. Sprague tells the following story: "A poor man who had a large family and a very comfortable support while he was in health. He broke his leg, and was laid up for some weeks. As he would be for some time destitute of the means of grace, it was proposed to hold a prayer meeting at his house. The meeting was led by Deacon Brown. A loud knock at the door interrupted the service. A tall, lank, blue-frocked youngster stood at the door with an ox-goad in hand, and asked to see Deacon Brown. 'Father could not attend the meeting,' he said, 'but he sent his prayer and they are out in the cart.' They were brought in, in the shape of potatoes, beef, pork and corn. The meeting broke up without the benediction. But the poor sufferer during his whole confinement was provided for. The substantial prayers of the donors became means of grace."
HEALTH NOTES.—For crump, take a knife or grater, and grate or shake in small particles about a teaspoonful of alum; mix it with about twice its quantity of sugar, to make it palatable, and administer it as quickly as possible. Almost instantaneous relief will be afforded. An eminent physician of Chicago says he cures ninety-nine out of every hundred cases of scarlet fever by giving the patient warm lemonade with gum arabic dissolved in it. A cloth ring out in hot water and laid upon the stomach should be removed as rapidly as it becomes cool. Dyspepsia is cured by muscular exercise, voluntary or involuntary, and cannot be cured in any other way, because nothing can create or collect gastric juice except exertion; it is a product of the human machine. Nature only can make it.
KEEPING THE HANDS SMOOTH.—A writer in the American Grocer says that glycerine is not used in the right way. She asserts that to preserve the smoothness and softness of the hands, keep a small bottle of glycerine near the place where you habitually wash them, and whenever you have finished washing, and before wiping them, put on or two drops of glycerine on the wet palm and rub the hands thoroughly with it as if it were soap, then dry lightly with a towel. Household work and bad weather will not prevent your skin from being smooth and soft, if this plan of using glycerine is followed.
GIRLS, let us tell you a stubborn truth. No young woman ever looked so well to a sensible man as when dressed in neat, plain, modest attire without a single ornament about her person. She looks then as though she possessed worth in herself, and needed no artificial rigging to enhance her value. If a young woman spends as much time in cultivating her temper, and cherishing kindness, meekness, gentleness, mercy, and other qualities, as most of them do in extra dress ornaments to increase their personal charms, she would, at a glance, be known among a thousand. Her character would be read in her countenance.

Of the above list, I can say my stock is the MOST COMPLETE
ever offered in this market, and was selected with special care for the Oregon City trade.
All of which I now offer for sale at the Lowest Market Rates.
No use for the Ladies, or any one else, to think of going to Portland to buy goods for sale, as I am Deputed to Sell Cheap and not to allow myself to be UNDERSOLD IN THE STATE OF OREGON.
All I ask is a fair chance and quick payment, believing as I do that Twenty Years Experience in Oregon City enables me to know the requirements of the trade. Come one and all and see for yourselves that the old stand of
THOMAS CHARMAN
cannot be beaten in quality or price. It would be useless for me to tell you all the advantages I can offer you in the sale of goods, as every store that advertises does that, and probably you have been disappointed. All I wish to say is Come, and See, and Examine for Yourself for I do not wish to make any mistakes. My object is to tell all my old friends now that I am still alive, and to desire to sell goods cheap, for cash, or upon such terms as agreed upon. Thinking all for the liberal patronage bestowed.

YOUNG MEN

Who are suffering from the effect of youthful follies or indiscretion, will do well to avail themselves of the greatest boon that has ever been offered to humanity. DR. SPINNEY will guarantee to cure, if you are suffering from any kind of weakness, or private disease of any kind or character which he undertakes and fails to cure. He would, therefore, say to the unfortunate sufferer who may read this notice, that you are standing upon dangerous ground when you longer delay in seeking the proper remedy for your complaint. If you are in the first stage; remember you are approaching the last. If you are bordering upon the last, and are suffering some relief. In no case has the doctor failed to succeed. Then let not despair work upon your imagination, but avail yourself of the remedial results of his treatment before your case is beyond the reach of medical skill, or before grim death hurries you to a premature grave. Full course of treatment $5 00. Some cases may require order or Express with full description of your case, and address, DR. A. B. SPINNEY, No. 11 Kearny Street, San Francisco, Sept 16th
