BENEFIT OF Y. M. C. A.—On Monday evening, Pope's Hall was filled with a large and appreciative audience to witness the dramatic and musical entertainment given by a number of young ladies and gentlemen of our city, for the benefit of the Y. M. C. A. The first piece was "Matrimony," and considering of the seven ladies and gentlemen taking part only one of each sex had experienced the knot of Hymen, the play was very creditably enacted. Miss Canfield, Miss Selling, Miss Post and Mrs. Humphrey, the ladies taking part in the play are deserving of special compliment on the manner with which they acquitted themselves. Messrs. Athey, Hatch and Canfield represented the stern r sex, and the writer as one of that unfortunate genus has no hesitancy in saying that we were proud of their achievements. A vocal solo by Miss Emma Mixer met with the applause which it so richly deserved. The "Jubilee Girls" was a very amusing little skit sung by Misses Humphrey and Miss Kate Frazer, and was thoroughly enjoyed. Part second commenced with a very laughable little sketch entitled "No Rose Without a Thorn." Miss Nora Moss was the Rose, and she proved to be no contradiction to the general run of "roses." As Kitty, Miss Clara Canfield performed her part well, and Messrs. Randell and Eastham sustained their parts in good style. "Robbin's Return" was a vocal solo sweetly rendered by Miss Netty Post, and was highly appreciated by the audience. "Bernardo del Carpio," a recitation by S. B. Hendee, followed, and was well received. The evening's entertainment closed with the "Hosedown Dip." That is a piece by that name, not the dance itself. Eva and Ida, characters by Misses Lovejoy and Selling, were enacted in a manner to reflect much credit on themselves. In this charade, Miss Moss strangled under the euphonious name of Mrs. Mulligrubs, and when we say she sustained her well earned reputation as an amateur actress, our readers, we think, will agree with us that we pay her no insignificant compliment. David Canfield as Mr. Mulligrubs was capital, and Mr. Athey as "Kids" was rich, while Messrs. Hudson and Hendee performed their respective parts in a manner satisfactory to all. We congratulate the "getters up" of this very delightful entertainment on the good taste shown in the selection of pieces, and the judgment manifested in choosing the actors. In common with the rest of the audience we pronounce this effort of our young people to raise funds for a very worthy object as highly successful, and we hope that the reception given their first attempt was of such a nature as to encourage them to consider Monday night's entertainment as merely the opening of a series.

IMPORTANT TRANSFER.—Last Friday the negotiations which have been pending for some time between the O. S. S. Co. and the W. R. T. & L. Co. were brought to a close, and the boats, basin, water privileges, wharves, etc., belonging to the former company have been transferred to the latter. The sale includes the transfer of the following property: The steamers E. N. Cooke, Bonanza, Success, Dayton, Fannie Patton, Alice, the basin, the water privilege, the work shop, wharf at this place and at other points along the river, in short, all the right, title and interest of the O. S. S. Co. in and to all their property on the upper Willamette river. The purchase price, as stated in the bill of sale, was $32,000; but we suppose there must have been some other valuable consideration not stated, as this was not near the value of the property transferred, but we are unable to learn of any other at present. By this transfer the O. S. N. Co. are virtually in possession of all the important steamboat lines in the State. The W. R. T. & L. Co. was the ostensible purchaser, but the O. S. N. Co. has the controlling interest in that corporation, and it may be said that both the Willamette and Columbia rivers are now completely under their control. The only opposition left on either river are the City of Salem and Ohio, belonging to Capt. Scott, and they will either be bought off or run out.

MUSIC IN THE AIR.—The old Oregon City Brass Band has been reorganized under the leadership of Mr. Thos. Miller, with Prof. Seliger as instructor. The Professor is an excellent musician, and we expect, under his able instruction, to have the best band in the State. We have the talent and all that is needed is practice, and we would presume from the amount of "tooting" performed by one of the members residing on Main street, that the required proficiency will soon be attained. We understand that the band will make its first appearance in public about the 4th of July.

GONE FROM OUR GAZE.—Mr. J. M. Welch, one of our most prominent citizens, pulled up his tent and left for Walla Walla on Thursday. Mr. W. has been head miller at the Oregon City Mills for the past three years, and has the reputation of being one of the best in Oregon. He has purchased a half interest in the Agate Mills, owned by Schwabacher Bros. at Walla Walla. We are very sorry to lose Mr. Welch, as he was one of the most energetic and enterprising men of our town, and Walla Walla may feel highly favored on gaining such a citizen. His social qualities are too well known to need any mention from us, but we will say that his name, which has become a household word, will not be forgotten for many a long day. We wish James all the success possible in his new ventures, and hope to see his smiling face back in Webfoot some day.

DECIDEDLY COOL.—Our jovial friend C. P. C. has been afflicted with chills lately and has a rather serious turn of mind. While laboring under this fit of melancholy he undertook to perform the rite of baptism upon himself, and we give the particulars just as we heard them. Last Tuesday morning, as the aforesaid umbra was putting on his clean linen, he had it over his head, and was tearing around the room trying to get his arms through the sleeves, when those unfortunate appendages came in contact with a pitcher of water which was resting quietly on the mantle-piece. The pitcher failed to withstand the shock and it came down with a rush, drenching the church from head to foot. The rest of the scene our quill fails of words to describe, and we leave our readers to inquire of the victim of misplaced confidence.

LECTURE.—Mr. L. H. Wells of the Willamette University of Salem, gave an interesting lecture last Saturday evening at the rooms of the Y. M. C. A., to a large and respectable audience. The subject was "Minions of an Unveiled City," and the speaker treated it in a masterly style. The gentleman sought to represent the underground workings of society, and that the great masses are under the control of a few, and are shaped in opinions and tastes in the interest of a few. This, we are told, was the first attempt in the lecture field, and we must say that he acquitted himself with credit, and we hope that we may have the pleasure of listening to him again, at some future time.

ROBBING GRAVES OF FLOWERS.—Complaints have been made lately that flowers are taken in quantities from the graves at the cemetery. Independent of the desecration to the dead, it is just as much a theft to take these tributes of the living to those "gone over to the great majority," as it is to steal flowers from the garden of a neighbor. We are surprised to hear of people from whom we expected, if not better judgment, at least better hearts, committing such a downright sacrilege. To rob the dead of these offerings from living friends is a most contemptible piece of business, and we hope that it will cease immediately.

PREMIUM LIST.—E. M. Waite, Secretary of the State Agricultural Society, has favored us with a copy of the Premium List for 1876, containing the programme, rules and regulations for the next annual Fair, reports of committees, secretary and treasurer for 1875, together with the premiums awarded at the last Fair. It is published in pamphlet form and has 150 pages of interesting matter, compiled and printed by the Secretary, of which he may well feel proud.

LETTER LIST.—Letters remaining in the Postoffice, at Oregon City, June 2nd, 1876:

Cox, Mrs. J.; Fairgrieve, William; Greeg, J. A.; Harris, T. L.; Jones, Maggie A.; Kelly, Frank; McMahan, Miss Emma S.; McCarthy, Kate; Ogle, Robt.; Potts, S. D.; Schultger, Harry; Warner, Charles.

If called for please say when "advertised." J. M. BACON, P. M.

MR. GEO. SHEPARD, wife and children of Gervais, are now in Pendleton. Mr. S. brought his wife to the land of light air to effect a cure of the asthma, with which she had for some time been affected. To his astonishment the invalid had not been but a few days in our excellent climate ere she was cured. Mr. S. is so well pleased with the country that he has nearly made up his mind to remain.—East Oregonian.

THE Cliff House has been undergoing repairs for the past week. The rooms have been kalsomined throughout and everything put in shape, and it is now one of the first-class hotels of the State. Mr. T. W. Rhodes, the genial landlord, is prepared to receive guests in the best of style, and always furnishes the table with the best the market affords.

WHAT is the matter with the mail carrier between Portland and this city? We have been receiving our northern exchanges by the southern train for some time past. We hope the young man will stir himself, and see if it is not possible to distribute the mail matter by the time he arrives at this station.

MOONLIGHT EXCURSION.—The Waverly Club, of Portland, will make a moonlight excursion to this city next Tuesday evening. Pope's Hall has been engaged by the Club for the occasion, where they will trip the light fantastic. They have also ordered an elegant supper at the Cliff House for a hundred couple or more.

REPAIRING.—The W. R. T. & L. Co. have put the Dayton in the dry-dock, where she will receive a thorough overhauling. We have been told that the Annie Stewart is to be brought to this city and put in the dry-dock as soon as the Dayton is out.

OUR young friend Wheeler Church has just received a fine carriage from the East, and we are waiting patiently for the young man to come around and invite us out to ride with him. We are in no hurry about it, any time will suit the poor printer.

NOTA BENE.—Notice is hereby given that we have authorized our devil to introduce his boot-maker to the gentleman's tailor that makes himself conspicuous by reading copy on the hooks. "A hint to the wise is sufficient."

HARVEY CROSS, who has been studying law with Johnson & McCown for the past winter, left town this week for Sandy, where he will be located for the summer, in charge of the Barlow road.

THE Spiritualists will hold a grove meeting at New Era, about five miles south of this city, commencing to-day (Friday) and extending over Sunday. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Speaker Kerr has been charged with fraud and the impeachment trial still goes on, but you can get a first-class meal just the same at Jimmy Wright's.

W. E. DEMENT, formerly of this city, is the Independent candidate for Coroner of Clatsop county.

THOSE hairs continue to be found. Somebody will be bald before she knows it.

Brackets, frames and wall-pockets at the postoffice. Keep it in your mind and buy one for your girl.

Everybody should go to Jimmy Wright's restaurant if they want to get a good meal.

J. M. BACON has a few frames and brackets left.

UNIQUE.—Messrs. Mullins & Weatherston have on exhibition at their store one of the finest pieces of furniture we have ever seen in the State, and it is of home manufacture, made by Mr. John Miller of this city. It is a bureau, finely inlaid and carved, and has all the necessary apparatus for a writing desk, and to say the least it is complete in every respect. It must be seen to be appreciated.

PARLOR ENTERTAINMENT.—The world renowned Mart Taylor and troupe will give one of their unique parlor entertainments at Pope's Hall this (Friday) evening. Mart is too well known to need any recommendation from us. Give him a good house. Admission 50 cents.

THE candidates for Prosecuting Attorney of this district, Raleigh Stott and F. R. Strong, addressed the citizens at the Court House Wednesday evening. The hall was well filled, and the speakers solved the political issuses of the day satisfactory to all.

MR. J. M. WELCH has the thanks of the ENTERPRISE OFFICE for a fine box of cigars, and we shall think kindly of the giver while puffing the fragrant Havana.

ERRATTA.—In our last issue we stated the name of the lecturer at the tent as a Mr. Lee; it should have been Van Horn. The meetings will be continued for three or four weeks.

OWING to the resignation of Mr. J. M. Welch, an election for school director was held last week, which resulted in the election of Mr. Peter Paquet to fill the vacancy.

THE candidates for county honors will orate at the Court House Saturday afternoon.

The plat of an addition to Seattle has been recorded.

Facts for the Million.

The facts referred to in the above caption are the facts in relation to the victories over disease achieved by Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. That renowned tonic is daily adding fresh laurels of popularity to the great reputation which it long since obtained as a remedy for dyspepsia, constipation, biliousness, nervous disorders, urinary trouble intermittent and remittent fevers, rheumatism and debility, and demonstrating to the satisfaction of the public its superiority to the palliatives which flood the market, and whose make-believe cures are trumpeted in manufactured testimonials.

It is a subject of honest pride to the proprietors of Hostetter's Bitters, that no claims have ever been advanced in its behalf that could not be corroborated by ample proofs, but most assuredly had such been the case they could have expected nothing better than that a preparation bolstered up by statements of the same stripe as those indulged in by the proprietors of cheap local bitters and inalcoholic rubbish, would speedily die of inanition. Such has been the fate of thousands of bepuffed shams, rather less efficacious than bilge water.

The success of the Bitters is attributable to their genuine excellence. The public has observed that what they are advertised to do, they do, and that no incredible pretensions are made on this account. They have gained, and will continue to retain the confidence and respect of an enlighted community, far too intelligent to be long imposed upon by the Sham Abrahamism of unscrupulous quacks and disreputable speculators.

Armed to the Teeth,

Is a very common expression, but we think that armed to embellish and preserve them to a ripe old age is decidedly more appropriate. This can be done by keeping yourself supplied with a bottle of that splendid dentifrice, Fragrant SOZODONT, which will beautify the teeth and preserve them from the ravages of decay. SOZODONT contains no acids or gritty substances which injure the enamel, but is composed of rare and antiseptic herbs, which have a beneficial effect on the whole economy of the mouth. Sold by druggists.
