Facts for the Million.

The facts referred to in the above caption are the facts in relation to the victories over disease achieved by Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. That renowned tonic is daily adding fresh laurels of popularity to the great reputation which it long since obtained as a remedy for dyspepsia, constipation, biliousness, nervous disorders, urinary trouble, rheumatism and debility, and demonstrating to the satisfaction of the public its superiority to the palliatives which flood the market, and whose make-believe cures are trumpeted in manufactured testimonials.

It is a subject of honest pride to the proprietors of Hostetter's Bitters, that no claims have ever been advanced in its behalf that could not be corroborated by ample proof, but most assuredly had such been the case they could have expected nothing better than that a preparation bolstered up by statements of the same stripe as those indulged in by the proprietors of cheap local bitters and inebriating rubbish, would speedily die of inanition.

Such has been the fate of thousands of befooled shamans, rather less efficacious than filthy waters, and more injurious to the human system, than any other preparation of the same kind. The success of the Bitters is attributable to their genuine excellence. The advertised to do, they do, and that in incredible pretensions are made on this account. They have gained, and will continue to retain, the confidence and respect of an enlightened community, far too intelligent to be long imposed upon by the cheap and worthless unscrupulous quacks and disreputable speculators.
