At the last meeting of the Official Board of the M. E. Church of this city, it was ascertained that the finances of the church were in quite a healthy condition. Measures were adopted by which the balance due the Elder and Pastor, on salary,—for the conference year just closing—has been paid in full. The indebtedness of the church has been reduced more than one half, and respectable sum has been secured in aid of the benevolent enterprises of the church at large.

Thanks to all the contributors,—not repairs during the last month or so, and only our own members, but the many friends not connected with our church, who have aided in reaching these results, so gratifying to us.

SMALL-POX AT MILWAUKIE.-The small-pox at Milwaukie, and that the patients have not received the neces-Portland papers tell of seven cases of sary medical attention. We are informed by reliable authority that there are only five cases—all of a mild type; that Dr. Norris of this city has been attending the sufferers, and that every attention possible under the circumstances has been rendered by the neighbors. The disease is confined to the family of a Mr. Gray. The "sixty or seventy persons exposed," have passed over the time in which the disease should have shown itself, and, as all precautions are being taken, there is no reason for any further spread of the contagion at that place.

Don't Borrow.-The young and fas-Shades Saloon has come to grief. It seems that on the 4th of July Mr. Jas. Harding loaned him a ring, which was to be returned on demand. Last Saturday Harding called for the ring, and oux, because they must have left the young gent did not know where it was surreptitiously, as they hired was. The demand has been repeated no one to drive their "rig" out of several times, but the ring was not forthcoming. On complaint of Harding the Bourbon knight was arrested on a charge of "larceny by bailee," and Judge Athey "set him up" for $25 and costs, amounting to $36 or 18 days in limbo. The borrower of the ring skirmished around and secured $14, and decided to take the remaining eleven days in the Hotel de Willis.

> HARPER'S FOR SEPTEMBER.-The September number of the Magazine contains an unusual variety of reading matter. Book vii., of George Eliot's "Daniel Deronda," is given entire. In this part Deronda meets his mother, and Gwendolen's career reaches its culmination in one of the strongest dramatic situations that George Eliot has ever portrayed. In addition to four strong serial stories, there are in this number five excellent short storics. In the editorial department the reader will find discussed all the noteworthy current events of science, literature and society. The Weekly and Bazar are overflowing with the usual good things.
