LOOK OUT FOR TRAMPS .- Last Sunday Chas. Anderson was hunting in the vicinity of the Carothers claim pany him back. above Canemah, when he came across s man sleeping under a tree, covered up with bark and blankets. Charley imagined that he had discovered the Wandering Jew, and was proceeding to examine the sleeping beauty when he awoke. He informed Charles that he had been exposed to the small-pox and was staying in the woods for the benefit of suffering humanity. The stran-ger had a pair of white blankets, a small box, etc., which looked out of place for a man in his condition, and exfulness of the stranger's story. On returning to Canemah he found that the articles answered the description to some that had been stolen on Saturday from that place, and a party was at once organized to go in search of the robber and the stolen goods. All o the articles except a pistol were found secreted under a log, near by the place where the light-fingered gent had been sleeping, but nothing was seen of the "small-pox man." Farmers throughout the county will do well to keep their weather eye open.

THE Jacksonville (Ills.) Courier has the following notice of the death of Mrs. S. M. Williams, mother of our respected townsman, Mr.C.O.T. Williams: "Mrs. S. M. HYMENIAL, -- Last Thursday evening s large number of invited guests assembled at the residence of Mr. R. F. Canfield, to witness the marriage of his lovely daughter, Miss Clara, to Mr E. L. Eastham, Rev. J. W. Sellwood tied the knot that made them one. After their many friends had tendered their hearty congratulations and good wishes for their future prosperity, the company repaired to the dining room, where an elegant collation awaited The banqueters paid ample attention to the repast, and after an hour or two of social enjoyment, they wended their way homeward, all join-ing with "ye local" in saying that it was a very pleasant affair.

JUGGED. - A constable of Tualatin precinct, named I. B. Kauffman, attempted to serve a writ of attachment on a man bearing the familiar cognomen of Brown last week. Brown would not see it in the right light, and commenced an action on the constable's frontispiece, thereby seriously spoiling the said constable's counte nance, and then made good time for Portland. Last Tuesday he was arrested in Portland and turned over to Sheriff Apperson, and justice will be meted out to Brown in sufficient quantity to deter him in future from putting heads on officers of the law.

CLOSED DOWN .- Mr. J. H. Moore, who has been running a foundry in this city for some years, has concluded to retire from that business in this place, and will remove to some more congenial situation. He has disposed of his water power to Messrs. Miller, Church & Co., of the Oregon City Mills. An Unuanswerable Argument. The strongest argument which can be urged against the advisability of administering such corrosive and nerve-destroying poisons as arsenic and quinine for intermittent and remittent fevers, is the vastly superior success in the prevention and cure of such diseases of a medicine which is the very antipode of the above named drugs, both in respect of its composition and the results wrought by it. For months she remained in the same debilitated condition; but from the 1st of September last, when she commenced taking the Syrup, the digestive functions improved, and she steadily gained strength and vivacity; and now, after taking two bottles, she is restored to a good state of health; indeed, she appears more really healthy than she has for several years past.
