Mr. Ed. Clements was the recipient of a plasant surprise party last Friday evening.

Miss Nora Ross was one of the graduating class at the University at Salem last week.

That favorite resort for invalids, Wilhoits Soda Springs, has been opened for the season.

The Willamette Baptist Association will convene in this city to-morrow and continue in session over Sunday.

Meeting of the Clackamas B. B. Club tomorrow evening, at the rooms of the Cataract Hose Co., at 8 o'clock.

Rev. C. C. Stratton, formerly of this city, has been elected President of the Pacific University at Santa Clara, Cal.

T. A. Bacon has a new delivery wagon, and he is prepared to deliver goods to any part of the city or Canemah free of cost.

Portland Lodge No. 201, I. O. G. T., has chartered the City of Salem for a moonlight picnic to this city to-morrow evening.

Mrs. Dr. Lou Patterson, "the celebrated clairvoyant physician and test medium from Oregon City," is attending to the ills of the Astorians.

Mr. H. Hollenback, of Indiana, and Miss Ella Hedges, a resident of these parts, were married at the Malheur reservation last week.

Mr. B. Jennings has favored this office with a box of fine cherries, and has thereby gained the everlasting gratitude and good will of the type-stickers.

There will not be any Sunday morning service at the Congregational church, the pastor, Rev. Mr. Gray, being absent at Seattle. Sunday School as usual.

L. T. Barin, Geo. A. Harding and Frank Albright, visited Clear Creek one day last week on a piscatorial tour and they hooked fifty-seven fine brook trout.

Ralph M. Dement, the able Washington correspondent of the ENTERPRISE, graduated from the Columbian University Law College, at Washington, D. C., on the 1st instant.

Prof. White is getting along finely with his writing school, and has about forty-five scholars. He is an excellent teacher, and will have large schools wherever he may go.

Several trams located themselves in the Congregational church last Monday night with the intention of enjoying a good nights sleep, but the watchman routed them out.

Rev. I. D. Driver was married to Miss Mary Williams at the close of the temperance meeting near Albany, on Saturday, June 16th, by Rev. L. I. Bond, assisted by Rev. J. F. DeVore.

Our city furnished about one hundred excursionists to the Aurora pic-nic last Sunday. There were nearly two thousand persons on the grounds, and the best of order and peace prevailed.

We have received the catalogue of the Christian College at Monmouth for 1877, which is neatly printed, and contains valuable information in regard to this excellent school. The College is reported in a flourishing condition, with an able faculty.

The following were the victorious candidates for municipal honors at Portland last Monday: Mayor, Newbury (R.); Police Commissioner, Riley (R.); Treasurer, Bachman (D.); Assessor, Love (D.); Councilmen, Opitz (D.), Sinon (R.), and Soham (R.).

An ingenious girl on Piety Hill, who never had "a feller" in the world, goads the other girls in that neighborhood to madness by lighting up the parlor brilliantly and then setting her fathers hat where its shadow will be boldly marked against the curtain.

The entertainment at Popes Hall last Friday evening by the ladies of the Congregational church was a very enjoyable affair, and netted a fair sum. The singing and recitation were rendered in good style and afforded considerable enjoyment to the audience. The operatic singing was "way up."

The Standard of last Thursday gives our foreman the following neat notice: "Our old friend Lew Hadaway, foreman of the Oregon City ENTERPRISE, yesterday took unto himself a life partner. Lew, you always Hadaway of making yourself popular and Eudeyserve all the happiness that married life can bring to you."

Sneezer indignantly repels the insinuation of hoodlumism, gossip, etc., in a communication, which we have "laid on the table," as there appears to be considerable ill feeling arising from these letters. We will be pleased to hear from our correspondents at any time, but hope that personal matters will not be the principal part.

Important Exhibition.

The following letter from the Agent of the Land Department of the Oregon and California Railroad Co., explains itself:

Portland, June 6, 1877.

EDITOR ENTERPRISE:—We contemplate exhibiting at the Twelfth Industrial Exhibition to be held at San Francisco during the months of August and September of the current year, a collection of Oregon products similar to the Centennial Exhibit, which has proved so much credit to our State, and respectfully request your assistance in this undertaking. You are no doubt aware of the fact, that our neighbors in California are doing much injury to our State by impressing upon intending Oregon immigrants their erroneous ideas of the resources and climate of Oregon, thus deterring them from coming here. To meet these unreasonable prejudices, it seems to us, there will be nothing more effective than to place before the people of California a complete collection of the varied products of our State, and to show that they are unequalled anywhere.

Should this meet your views, I would respectfully request you to send us some specimens of Grains and Grasses in sheaf, Vegetables, Flax, Fruit, Wool, Timber, and articles manufactured from them.

Articles left at any railroad station, addressed to the undersigned, will be forwarded free of charge. Any reasonable expense incurred in collecting and packing samples will be paid.

As the Exhibition opens on the 7th day of August, it is desirable that articles intended for exhibition should reach Portland before July 31st. Fruit will be received after that date and sent to San Francisco on every steamer during the continuance of the Exhibition.

Very Respectfully,
P. SCHULZE,
Land Agent O. & C. R. R. Co.

Temperance.

EDITOR ENTERPRISE:—A very compact, forcible and practical temperance lecture was delivered in the M. E. Church of this city on last Thursday evening, by D. J. W. Watts, of Lafayette. Subject, "The effect of alcohol on the stomach." The speaker illustrated by exhibiting Dr. Sewall's celebrated stomach charts, showing the condition of the stomach in the different stages of intemperance.

At the close, and on motion of Rev. J. McCormac, the hearers evinced their high appreciation of the lecture by a rising vote of thanks to the speaker.

The Dr. was then requested to give another lecture, which he did on Monday evening, the 18th inst. Subject, "The effect of alcohol on the brain." In our judgment this was a masterly effort, and surpassed even the former lecture in interest and value.

Another temperance meeting was held at the same place on the following evening.

G. W. DAY.

Fourth of July.

Arrangements are rapidly being made to have a grand celebration in our quiet village on this day, so justly dear to every true American. Capt. Smallwood, of Vancouver, will address the citizens, Mr. E. L. Eastham read the Declaration of Independence, Rev. Mr. Gray officiate as chaplain, and a large choir of voices make the air ring with patriotic glees. A Liberty Car will form an attractive feature of the procession. The Vancouver base ball club has been challenged for a match game. The Oregon City Brass Band will lead the procession with their inspiring music. A full programme of exercises will appear next week.

THE WEST SHORE.—Last January Mr. L. Samuel, publisher of the "West-Shore," issued a magnificent "holiday number" of that valuable journal, which contained 44 pages of interesting reading matter, and 56 engravings of scenes in the Pacific Northwest. The entire edition cost about three thousand dollars, and surpassed anything ever attempted in the line of enterprising journalism on the Pacific Coast. The enthusiastic reception given to that number, and the liberal patronage extended to him since, have induced Mr. S. to issue a "midsummer holiday number," and for the past two months his artists have been busily engaged in producing beautiful sketches of scenery about the mouth of the Columbia river, Eastern and Southern Oregon, Northern Idaho, Eastern Washington, British Columbia and the great lumbering and coal mining regions of Puget Sound. Besides these sketches a host of able writers are furnishing interesting descriptive articles. When ready for delivery, in July, this number will be a lasting monument to its enterprising publisher, and accomplish a vast amount of good for the Pacific Northwest. As Mr. S. furnishes these mammoth editions to all yearly subscribers without extra charge and as the subscription price is only $1.50 per year, every citizen of the Pacific Northwest should not only have this interesting journal in his own home, but subscribe for extra copies to send to friends at a distance. Address L. Samuel, Portland, Oregon.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES.—A correspondent of the "Telegram," describing the commencement of the Willamette University at Salem last week, gives the following brief sketch of Miss Lenora Ross' essay: Miss Lenora Ross then presented her essay on "Shrines," in which she endeavored to convey the idea that all men have their shrines, before which they worship. The idolaters of olden time had their images and shrines, before which they worshiped; and the people of to-day were scarcely less idolatrous, save the exception in the things they worship. The shrines of to-day are numerous and varied, embracing in some instances that which ennobles, while in others degradation follows. Should we choose one of the former, all is for the best perhaps, as many of the very best of our land have devoted their whole lives to their shrines and accomplished a good work.

A NEW PARK.—The Oregon and California Railroad Company purchased, last week, forty acres of land on the sightly bluff just north of New Era, and will proceed immediately to lay out a splendid park, with all the modern improvements, for the accommodation of excursions, and out-door gatherings. The view from the bluffs is grand, and overlooks the beautiful Willamette where it enters the deep channels either side of Rock Island. Mr. R. Koehler, the Vice President of the Company, and the energetic Managing Director, has taken the matter in hand, and will make it the loveliest place on the road. The Salem Record suggests that the name of the grounds be called "Koehler Park," and the post town adjacent, New Era, be changed to "Koehler City," in honor of the gentleman who is going to make their little burg an important station on the line of the road.

HUBBARD VS OREGON CITY.—The Hubbard base ballists have challenged the Clackamas club to play a match game on the grounds in this city next Saturday at 10 o'clock A. M., and our boys have accepted the invitation to wield the willow with the Hubbardites. The Hubbard club beat the Gervais club a short time ago and the chances are that our boys will be treated in the same manner as they have not had much practice this season. We will, however, go our pile (ten cents), on our boys, even if it bankrupts us.

LETTER LIST.—Letters remaining in the Postoffice, at Oregon City, Clackamas Co., Oregon, June 21st, 1877:

Buchanan, Anton.	Pendleton, Mrs. J.
Conley, John.	Pedigo, John.
Cumins, Miss Cecelia.	Richardson, M.
Folsom, John.	Rowell, John R.
Gregory, W. H.	Teil, Amos.
Larkins, Wm.	White, Fred F.
Liverty, A. P.	Whit , Mrs. F. F.
Mitts, J. E.	Willis, Andrew.

If called for, please say when advertised.

J. M. BACON, P. M.

MASONIC.—The following officers of the Grand Lodge, A. F. & A. M., were elected at Portland last week: Robert Clow of Dallas, M. W. G. M.; Thomas G. Reames, Jacksonville D. G. M.; F. B. Dunn, Eugene City, S. G. W.; W. T. Wright, Union J. G. W.; R. P. Earhart, Portland, Grand Secretary, and Theodore Wygant, Portland, Treasurer.

MONUMENTAL.—As there has been considerable Monumental stock taken in this city, the following item from the Grant county Times of the 9th inst., will be interesting news: "From C. S. Miller, general manager of the Monumental Silver Mining Co., who has been in this city a few days on business for the company, we learn that a very important development of ore has been made at the surface at a point on the lode 150 feet south of the main shaft. The ore found is of a very fine grade, assaying as high as $6,700 per ton. Judge Sels has just received a fine lot of ore from the mine, many specimens of which are nearly solid silver. They may be seen at the City Brewery."

BASE BALL.—The Clackamas and Accidental ball tossers of this city had a contest on the Clackamas grounds last Saturday afternoon, and the Accidentals came out second best. The playing on both sides was excellent, the boys making it decidedly warm for their opponents, and we predict a closer call when next they meet the enemy on the diamond field. The score stood, Clackamas 31, and the Accidentals 23.

I. O. G. T.—The following are the officers of the Grand Lodge, I. O. G. T. elected at Albany last week: G. W. C. T., W. R. Dunbar.; G. W. Coun., Fanny Myers, of Ashland; G. W. V. T., Mrs. Emma Kellogg, of Portland; G. Treas., J. E. Houstan; Representatives to the R. W. G. L., J. E. Magers, of Gervais Lodge and Mrs. Emma Kellogg; Alternates, Helen Kelly, of Brooklyn Lodge, and E. C. Griffin, of Western State Lodge. R. C. Ramsby was appointed G. Chaplain.

CANCER CURED.—Dr. H. T. Bond, of Philadelphia, has discovered a perfect antidote for the terrible scourge of cancer. Dr. Bond's treatment cures without pain, and absolutely without plasters, caustic or knife, but simply by acting on the cancer cell while forming, thus stopping the supply to the local disease or tumor, which is broken down and carried away by the absorbents of the system. Dr. Bond's remedies can be sent to any part of the country. Full particulars sent free. All interested should address Dr. H. T. Bond, Philadelphia, Pa. *

FIFTY MILE RACE.—J. P. Smith, the champion distance rider, will attempt to ride fifty miles in two hours and ten minutes at the White House, across the river from Milwaukie, next Saturday, June 23d at 3 o'clock, P. M.

INDIAN WAR IN IDAHO!

Col. Perry, half of his Command, and 35 Settlers Killed.

WALLULA, June 18.—The Almota from Lewiston has just arrived and brings the following Indian news from the Lewiston Teller's extra: Thursday's stage brought down the news that the Indians, embracing Joseph's band and the Salmon river Indians, were assembled on Camas Prairie and were making demonstrations of hostilities. Friday morning news came that Larry Ott and three other white men had been killed on Salmon river near the mouth of White Bird, and that the settlers on Camas Prairie had become so much alarmed that they were gathering at Mount Idaho and asking for troops to come to their relief. No troops were ordered upon the request. About 5 P. M. of Friday an Indian messenger came through to the agency with a letter from L. P. Brown to the effect that the Indians had made an attack upon the settlers on the prairie; had killed Ben Norton, shot his wife and broke both her legs; shot Mr. Moore through the hips; had badly wounded Norton's son, aged about eleven, and mortally wounded a Mr. Day; had attacked all the teams on the road and forced the men to abandon them, and at the time of writing had possession of Camas Prairie save Mount Idaho, and were threatening an attack upon that town, and demanded aid be sent to their rescue. It is stated that the roads were blockaded by Indians, and urged that the mail and xpress do not start from Lewiston on Saturday unless under strong escort. Upon receipt of this letter orders were given at the garrison that two companies of cavalry be ready and start for the scene of hostilities forthwith. The alarm has been generally given, so as to reach settlers throughout the country.

LATER—June 17th, 4 o'clock P. M.—Rumors are and have been for the last 36 hours very conflicting in relation to where the Indians are and what they done. Many of them are very exaggerated. The truth is bad enough to alarm the whole country. The most authentic is that on Friday evening at 8 o'clock a military force of 100 troops, 20 friendly Indians and several citizens left the Lapwai garrison under command of Col. Perry for Mount Idaho. Various letters are brought th ough by Indian messengers to the agency and the garrison from Mt. Idaho and the Kamai, some of them having come through since the arrival of the troops at Mt. Idaho. The following is the substance from Mt. Idaho: That a part of the Indians had gone to attack the settlers on Salmon River, and a part had gone to a fortified place on Cottonwood creek, below Chapman's; that Captain James Baker, Samuel Benedict, wife and four children, Harry Mason, Henry Elfrez and the Warrens expressman had been killed on Salmon River. That a pack train of forty mules had been attacked near Cold Spring and the two white men, Davenport and Onsley, killed, and two half-breed Indians scaped and the cargo was captured; that the Indians and settlers were fighting below Chapman's. After the arrival of Col. Perry a dispatch came to the effect that he arrived at Mt. Idaho on Saturday morning and found the reports of killed true; that the Indians had gone to Salmon River; that the troops were in pursuit of them in hopes of overtaking them at the crossing. Messages from the Kamia, brought also by Indian runners to the agency, state that it had been ascertained that 29 whites had been killed so far as known; that the whites had killed White Bird, the chief of his band, and his family. Lal. Dunwell, the Oro Fino expressman, came through safely on Saturday evening unconscious of the trouble till he arrived on the Lapwai, although he saw on the mountain a mounted and nude painted Indian in the brush near the road. The Indian would not respond to his salutation, yet he was allowed to pass on without molestation. Mr. Lytle came through a few hours afterwards and saw several Indians on the prairie at a distance. Two of them pursued him but he outrode them and made his escape. The different Indian messengers tell many things, giving particulars which are not contained in the written dispatches which may or may not be true. Lewiston has an organization of about sixty men poorly fitted for home duty in case of an emergency. Two companies of infantry are expected here on the steamer from Wallula to-night, and 25 cavalry men from Walla Walla to-morrow. Five hundred Indians are on Hang Man Creek. No hostilities there yet.

STILL LATER—6:30 P. M.—The troops with 150 men from Mt. Idaho encountered the Indians at the head of White Bird Canyon; troops dismounted and left a few soldiers and the 20 friendly Indians to hold their horses. The Indians opened the fire upon the troops and fighting was continued for some time. The friendly Indians became alarmed, and the soldiers guarding the horses could see that the Indians were getting the best of the fight and the soldiers retreating. The citizens' captain, Sergeant Lytle, and one soldier were known to be killed, and the whole horse guard of Indians and whites broke and run, some for Lapwai and some for Mount Idaho, leaving the horses to run loose over the prairie. Those coming to Lapwai never stopped till they reached the post. The result of the fight is not known. Many of the houses on the prairie are burned.

8 o'clock A. M., June 18.—D. Munroe arrived from the garrison at half past 2 this morning and tells us that a third soldier had arrived at the garrison last evening from the fight, and reported the troops on foot are surrounded by the Indians in the canyon and in a hand to hand fight. Col. Perry and about one half of the command are said to be killed and the remainder surrounded in the canyon and fighting against odds when the soldier left.

Should all the disaffected tribes of Indians, including the non-treaty Nez Perces, Cœur d'Alene, Palouse, Spokane, Flathead, and other scattered bands, join White Bird and Chief Joseph's warriors in common cause against the whites, it is estimated that at least 2,000 braves can be mustered into the campaign. If this should result, a protracted and sanguinary Indian war would inevitably follow.

The latest from the Indian war in Idaho: Perry was not killed; the Indians have stationed themselves in the roughest portion of the country between Little Salmon and Snake rivers; Lieutenant Theller, thirty-two soldiers and thirty citizens were killed in the late battle; Gen. Howard says he will collect sufficient force to make sure work before pushing operations; soldiers are en route from all parts of the Department for the scene of action.

The Bashi-Bazouk papers of the Democratic press continue to call President Hayes his fraudulency, etc., in sickly imitation of the eclipsed and spotted Sun of New York, but we fail to see that any of them, even of the irrational Standard rule-or-ruin stripe, which can say aught against him as a man or one word to the predjudice of his course while in power.

As soon as anybody hears that a movement has been made among the citizens of this place to raise funds for the building of a new Court House, we hope we will be apprised of the fact in order to contribute our mite, whether by taxes or otherwise.

A few weeks ago the the question with the "stalwart" Republicans was: Whether they would submit to Mr. Hayes' policy or not; now the question is: What can they do but submit?

By the way! has anybody heard that anybody intends doing anything towards building a new Court House for this county?

State News.

Corvallis is afflicted with diptheria.

Six miles of the Yaquina railroad have been graded.

G. W. Yocum, of Poraland, will orate on the Fourth.

John A. Johns' residence near Salem was destroyed by fire last week. Loss $1,600.

The number of school children in the State, between the ages of four and twenty, is 50,589.

In Southern Oregon, it is said the hay crop will not be very heavy. Early rains were in-sufficient.

An iron foundry is under construction at Oakland. It will furnish castings for all kinds of machinery used in that part of the country.

A corporation to take charge of the salmon hatching interest, has been organized at Astoria. Shares, $50 each. Directors will be chosen this week.

The Gervais foundry will be removed to Salem in a short time. It is the only foundry in the state which casts hollow ware, and insists that Oregon iron is the best in the world.
