BREVITIES.

What shall we do with our boys? Oregon City has the boss base ballists. The Imperial Mills are receiving a coat of paint

The mountain and sea-side resorts will soon be in order.

Union meeting at the M.E. Church next Sunday evening.

Police Court business has been lively for some time past.

T. A. Bacon has a patent cheese cutter. Call around and see it.

We shall hereafter give a synopsis of the Probate Court proceedings.

Farmers are busy cutting their hay, of which there is an abundant crop.

Miss Ada Thomas is one of the assistant teachers in the East Portland public school. J. Pratt Babcock, nephew of Mr. Wm. Pratt, of this city, died at Salem on the 7th. The City of Salem will bring a party of excursionists from Portland up to the falls this afternoon.

Chas. Wilson has taken charge of the construction train running between this city and Portland.

For being drunk and disorderly, C. F. Robinson was fined $10 t Portland last Tuesday. Lots of fun in Oregon.

Our young friend James Cochran has turned granger again, and is now looking after the crops on his father's farm.

Geo. A. Harding, Prof. Worthington and L. T. Barin started out last Saturday for a few days tishing up the Clackamas.

The installation of the newly elected officers of Oregon Lodge No. 3, I. O. O. F., was postponed from last Thursday until this evening.

Read the financial exhibit of the county in our advertising columns, and then make up your mind that we intend to have a court house.

Crops are looking well in all parts of the county, and we are informed that the late rains have not injured the fall crops to any extent worth mentioning

W. A. Luelling, of Milwankie, was mar-ried to Miss Mary J. Harlan in San Fran-cisco yesterday. Bill has our best wishes for an abundance of happiness.

Theo, Fouts has taken Frank Campbell's place as deputy sheriff. This is a good ap-pointment, and Thede will keep a vigilant watch on the breakers of the law.

Mr. Michael Sheenan has resigned the Williams, 3d b. foremanship of Fountain Hose Co. on ac-count of poor health, and Mr. Jacob Mad-den has been elected to fill the vacancy. Carter, 1st b. Andrews, 2d b....4 3 Barlow, r.f...

Mr. Blake, an attache of the Salem Record, favored us with a call yesterday. He was wending his way homeward from a two-weeks' hunt in the vicinity of Mt. Hood.

Special Constable Rhoades attempted to take a bottle of the ardent away from a drunken man one night last week, and not a head put on him. The case came up hefore the City Rico der, and he decided that the Constable had no right to take the d-d's property, and that the Constable should "grin and bear it."

Rev. C. C. Stratton, pastor of the M. E. Church of this city some years ago, occu pied the pulpit at the Congregational church last Sunday morning and at the Baptist church in the evening. The sermons, both morning and evening, were pronounced to be masterly efforts and attracted large congregations.
