Oregon City, August 26th, 1877: WHEREAS It has been the good fortune of this community to enjoy the ministracongratulate the people who may be fa-vored with his ministrations wherever his lot may be cast. Resolved, 2d, That as ministers and members of different churches we have not only found Brother Day to be a faithful laborer in the church constituting his special charge, but we have found in him a true souled fellow, thoroughly union in spirit, rejoicing in and working for the prosperity of other churches as well as his
