The good results from advertising in the ENTERPRISE are obvious: H. C. Cross advertised last Thursday a colt, which had been missing for nearly three months, and that very day he went out to the barn and found the colt standing there.

The union temperance meeting at the Congregational Church last Sunday evening attracted a large and interested audience. Short addresses were made by Revs. D. B. Gray and J. T. Huff and Messrs. Walter Fish and F. O. McCown.

The Albany Democrat of last week gives our old friend Mart the following notice: "Very few of our citizens are aware of the fact that this institution has grown to such an extent that it now employs six operatives, but such is the case. Mr. Angel has secured a contract for furnishing Mr. C. D. Simpson with 50,000 burlap grain sacks. Half of the sacks are finished and the remainder are being turned out at the rate of 2,500 per day. As soon as this contract is finished the full force of hands will be put to work on flour sacks, several large orders for which have already been received.

DEAD BUT LIVETH.—A strange story has been told the Salem Statesman, that runs in this wise: Some time ago it was given out that Michael O'Laughlin, living on French Prairie, had died at his sister's residence. The funeral was duly celebrated at the church, though the coffin was not opened, since the deceased requested that it be not done, because he did not want his wife to take a last look at him. They had quarreled some time before, and were divorced. In due time, at the request of the wife of the deceased, E. S. Gregoire was appointed administrator of the estate. The administrator commenced settling up the business as required by law, when rumors reached him that O'Laughlin is not dead, but has been seen since his alleged funeral. The grave has been opened and the coffin lid taken off, when lo and behold! the carcass of a sheep is disclosed. No criminal intent is ascribed to the parties in this transaction, and it is explained by the fact that O'Laughlin is a very eccentric person, and perhaps desired to spite his divorced wife. It is supposed that he is with friends in Illinois.

A FRIENDLY NOTICE.—A Seattle paper has the following notice of the dashing swell who recently paraded our streets, making "eyes" at the pretty girls: "We learn that Chas. F. Robinson, a lawyer whose skedaddlement from this place about two years ago caused so many to mourn his kindness—in fact, his unremitting kindness—has turned up in Portland as the suitor of an heiress. If we mistake not, this fellow was married to a young lady of Nanaimo some seven months ago, and if he is divorced from her, it is something unusual in British legal procedure. At best, he is a 'chevalier d' industrie' who tries to live without work and who would buy the world if the Lord would take 'jawbone' in payment for it."

"LET NO GUILTY MAN ESCAPE."—Indian Jim was blind drunk on the streets last Monday and was put in the lock-up. This is not the first case in the last month or two, and we think it would be well for the marshal to keep a good look out and see who furnishes the Indians with whisky. If it could only be found out who the guilty ones are, the U. S. Marshal would have a call in short order. Any one knowing of the guilty parties should inform on them at once, and let them atone to Uncle Sam for the offense.

Base Ball.

The Secretary of the Agricultural Society announces the following, of interest to base ballists: "The Board of Managers of the Oregon State Agricultural Society offer $300 as a premium for base ball clubs at the coming State Fair—$200 as a first premium, $100 as a second. Seven bona fide entries must be made, or the money will not be offered. Clubs to be governed by rules regulating others who compete for Society premiums. Entrance, 10 per cent. on the gross amount."

DIED.—It was with much regret that we learned of the death of Mrs. Jerome Palmateer, at Mt. Zion, last Saturday. The deceased was a daughter of Mr. J. P. Blanchard, of Canemah, and was married to our old friend Mr. Jerome Palmateer some five years ago, and resided at that place until about a year since, when they removed to Mt. Zion. She was well known in this city and universally loved and esteemed by all. The afflicted husband and bereaved parents and sisters have the heartfelt sympathy of their many friends in this vicinity and at Mt. Zion. The funeral services took place at Canemah last Monday morning, Rev. J. W. Sellwood officiating.

THE MORNING STANDARD.—After considerable delay in waiting for the completion of the Nevada and Northern Telegraph line so as to obtain the latest telegraphic news, our old friend Noltner brought out the Standard last Sunday as a morning paper. The Standard has always been one of our best exchanges, being replete with local, political and general news; only lacking in telegraphic facilities, which have now been obtained. Mr. Noltner is an able journalist, and with an able corps of assistants will furnish the reading public with a first-class newspaper. We don't agree with Tony in politics, but must give him credit for running a live newspaper.

HEARD FROM.—Ed. Pullen, a typo who worked in our office recently, was thrown from a buggy near Corvallis last week and badly hurt. The young man is decidedly out of luck; and we believe that if he would quit bilking hotels, and quit borrowing money from tender hearted (?) publishers, as he did in this city, and never paying it back, and not indulge in so much "red wine," the chances are that his chums wouldn't have an opportunity to steal his clothes, and he would be better able to manage the fiery mustang.

EXERTION NEEDED.—The Portland Standard always has a kind word to say for Clackamas county: "The ENTERPRISE says Clackamas county is the banner fruit county of the State. No question about that, and if proper exertions were made it would be one of the best agricultural counties in Oregon, and ought to be the manufacturing county of the great Northwest. Nature has made her such, but we fear her children will not improve the opportunity."

CAMPING AT THE FAIR.—All who contemplate camping at the State Fair should read the following, which is quoted from rule 4, page 9, of the Premium List for 1877: "Each family is allowed, on the west camping ground, a space of 20 feet front on the street, and 30 back from the street, for camping and building purposes; but this provision is only temporary, and subject to change at the next meeting of the Board. Parties desiring ground will apply to Chief Marshall."

INDIAN WAR.—A boy named Shannon had some difficulty with a Siwash across the river one day this week, and he took a shot at the redskin with his gun. Luckily for the boy, he missed his mark; but, notwithstanding his eagle-eye was out of gear, he will have to answer to a complaint made to the justice of the peace for this precinct.

CALLED.—Newton Swineford, passenger agent at Portland for the Pacific Coast S.S. Co., called yesterday. Newt. resided in this city some years ago, and has many warm friends here, who were pleased to see him after his long absence. He reports things lively in his business, and says his company intend to run on this route permanently.

PORTLAND AND THE DRUMMERS.—San Francisco drummers were victorious in a suit at Portland last week, in which they were charged with selling goods for San Francisco wholesale houses without paying license required by a recent city ordinance. Judge Adams decided that the ordinance was unconstitutional and void. The case will be appealed.

WHEAT COMING IN.—Miller, Church & Co., last Monday, received nearly one thousand bushels of wheat from wagons at their mill. This is believed to be the largest receipt ever brought into Oregon City by that means, in one day.

LETTER LIST.—The following is a list of the letters remaining in the postoffice at Oregon City, Clackamas county, Oregon, September 6th, 1877:

Allen, Chas.	Long, R. J.
Ball, Arthur T.	Patterson, J. G.—2
Fernahan, Mrs. F.	Porter, Geo.
Frillman, Louis.	Schervoelol, Maggie.
Hagan, Mary E.	Williams, Miss Lena.
Holmes, T. P.	Wood, Mrs. T. C.

If called for please say when advertised.
J. M. BACON, P. M.

SHOT.—Last Sunday a young man named Atkinson, of Milwaukie, and another young man, whose name we did not learn, were out bird hunting, and the former was peppered with a load of shot by his companion, who mistook him for a pheasant. The shot took effect in his arms, breast and neck and put one hole through his ear, but did not inflict any dangerous wounds. Dr. Rafferty, of East Portland, was sent for, and the shot extracted, and the young man is getting along finely.

APPOINTMENTS.—The M. E. Conference, which has been in session at Seattle, has appointed Rev. W. D. Nichols as pastor of the M. E. Church of this city, Rev. John Flinn, Clear Creek; Rev. C. Alderson, Rock Creek and Howell Prairie; Rev. Wm. Butt, Hillsboro and East Tualatin. Rev. G. W. Day, late pastor in this city, was stationed at Vancouver. Rev. M. Judy, formerly of this city, is stationed at Tacoma. Rev. Johnston McCormac, of this city, is stationed at Empire City.

DELEGATES ELECTED.—At a recent meeting of the vestry of St. Paul's parish, Oregon City, the following persons were elected delegates to attend the annual convocation which meets to-day: Capt. F. H. West, Mr. H. L. Kelly, and Hon. John Myers. Substitutes, Hon. A. E. Waite, Mr. A. B. Clark, and Mr. George Snyder. A leave of absence of three weeks was given to the rector, which he may take at any time he thinks best.

CIGARS.—J. M. Bacon, at the postoffice, has received a fine lot of cigars consisting of the "Bon Ton," "Green Seal," and "Bouquet." The "Bon Ton" is the latest brand out, and it is said to have the greatest part of the nicotine extracted, thereby preventing the pernicious effects arising from the constant use of the weed. The samples left at this office were first class, and we advise our friends who indulge to give them a trial.

PRESENTATION.—Mr. Asa McCully, of Salem, has presented Capt. Cochran & Co.'s new steamer, "A. A. McCully," with an elegant set of colors, consisting of an American flag, Union Jack and streamer. The flag and streamer are each sixteen feet long, and the jack ten feet, and cost fifty-four dollars in the East.

OFF FOR 'FRISCO.—Among the passenger list for the Bay city this week we noticed the following familiar names: Capt. J. D. Biles, Miss Frankie Holmes, C. Barlow, Frank Barlow, Henry Wright, Mrs. Geo. Marshall and daughter, and King Henderson.

A shooting affray occurred in Tillamook on the 24th ult., in which old man Root, living on the Netart, fired 13 buckshot into the body of Wm. Glenn, not killing him but leaving him in a critical condition. The cause of the affair was, as alleged by Root, because Glenn had been shooting his sheep.

Grant county Times: One hundred Chinese are now engaged in ground sluicing on Dixie creek, near Prairie City. Over $30,000 worth of dust is annually taken from these diggings. They extend for a distance of from three to four miles above Prairie City, and the Chinese have the whole creek to themselves, with but little white opposition.

Jacksonville Times: We learn that the immense underground recess recently discovered in Josephine county has been more thoroughly explored. It has been found to be over five miles in extent, and the exploration is not yet completed. Mr. G. Shindler has disposed of his interest in the Oregon Furniture Manufacturing Company, at Portland, to Mr. Sam Lowenstein.

A Result of Obstructed Digestion.

Among the hurtful consequences of obstructed digestion, is the impoverishment of the blood, and since a deteriorative condition of the vital fluid not only produces dangerous organic weakness, but, according to the best medical authorities, sometimes causes asphyxia, it is apparent that to improve the quality of the blood by promoting digestion and assimilation, is a wise precaution. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is precisely the remedy for this purpose, since it stimulates the gastric juices, conquers those billous and evacuative irregularities which interfere with the digestive processes, promotes assimilation of the food by the blood, and purifies as well as enriches it. The signs of improvement in health in consequence of using the Bitters are speedily apparent in an accession of vigor, a gain in bodily substance, and a regular and active performance of every physical function.

From Hon. W. H. Jones, of West Dover, Vermont.

"I have been troubled from my boyhood with chronic or hereditary lung complaint. Some years since, early in the winter, I took cold, which as usual settled into a severe cough, which continued to increase as the season advanced, although I made use of all the cough remedies I had knowledge of. My family physician also prescribed for me, but I experienced no relief. During all this time I was gradually running down, losing flesh and strength, until my friends as well as myself, became very much alarmed, thinking I should waste away in consumption. While in Boston, during the spring following, I was induced to try WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY. After one day's trial I was sensible that it was relieving me; in ten daystime my cough had entirely ceased, and I was soon restored to health and strength. I have ever since kept the BALSAM in my house, and whenever any member of my family has a cough or cold, it is immediately resorted to. No family should be without it." Sold by all druggists.

The Machine Was Worn Out.

Why? Not because it was not well built, but it was wrongly run. Thousands of men who have run down long before their three-score and ten years are accomplished, might have been renewed into sprightliness and vim if they had tried the well known PERUVIAN SYRUP, which contains among its compounds the Protoxide of Iron, so combined that it assimilates with the blood and invigorates the whole system. This syrup has proved efficacious in thousands of cases, and will do everybody good who uses it. All druggists keep it.

All I ask is a fair chance and quick payments, believing as I do that in Oregon City enables me to know the requirements of the trade. Come one and all and see for yourselves that the old stand of cannot be beaten in quality or price. It would be useless for me to tell you all the advantages I can offer you in the sale of goods, as every store that advertises does that, and probably you have been disappointed. All I wish to say is for I do not wish to make any mistakes. My object is to tell all my old friends now that I am still alive, and desirous to sell goods cheap, for cash, or upon such terms as agreed upon. Thanking all for the liberal patronage heretofore bestowed.

Twenty Years Experience

Come, and See, and Examine for Yourselves,
