a week has passed for nearly two months without a sociable being given at some of the numerous houses on the hill. Considerable has been said concerning the roads leading from Mt. Pleasant to reach the city limits we find no difficulty in drawing heavy loads. Here, however, it is almost impassable, and there is no doubt but what, before the winter is over it will be quite impossible for us to get to the city with an empty wagon. Many of you, Mr. Editor, never venture off the persons who sounded the alarm last Monday evening to leave the bells alone hereafter, or they will get into trouble. Firemen who have to travel fifteen or twenty blocks do not appreciate the fun of running that distance and only finding a burning cleimney when they arrive. Don't do it any more.
