Counterfeiters Captured.

Joseph and John Bontley and Frank Dalezaugh, of Horscheaven, were arrested by U.S. Marshal Waters last Friday on a charge of manufacturing counterfeit money. They were examined by U. S. Commissioner Lamson last Monday at Port- 220. land, and the Bontley brothers were held to answer for the offense. There was no evidence connecting Dalezaugh directly in the offense, and he will probably be Received from apportionment of discharged. The people living in the neighborhood have suspected that these men were engaged in this netarious business for some time past, and have watched them very closely. John and Joseph Bontley were arrested and taken before John Blackwell, J. P., the fore part of the week, and notwithstanding spurious coin was found in their possession, no one would testify to it, and they were dis-charged. The U.S. Marshal was notified, and last Friday, accompanied by Ed. Clements of this city, he went out to Horseheaven to get the supposed counter-feiters. They found Joseph Bontley and Frank Dalezaugh at the cabin in the evening, sleeping on a straw pile, with rifles by their side. The officers laid low until near morning, when the men were sound asleep, and slipped up noiselessly and o took possession of the fire arms, and aroused the sleepers and put them under arrest. The marshal was informed that he had desperate men to deal with, and expected to have to use his shooting irons before he took them, but he caught them at a disadvantage and they offered no resistance. John Bontley, after the ex-amination by the Justice of the Peace, thought it was time to leave for other parts, and taking his wife and the wite of his brother, left for Portland, where he was arrested by the U. S. Marshal. Since the above was placed in type, we learn that the marshal arrested the men Saturday forenoon. He found Dalezaugh

BURGLARS STILL AROUND.-Last Friday night burglars entered L. Jaggar's store and carried off the money drawer, con- cum creek or the fresh water lakes back taining six or seven dollars. They tried of the town. to open the safe, which contained $200, but only succeeded in spoiling the lock, so that the door had to be cut open by the proprietor next day. They effected an entrance by raising a window, and after getting in opened the front and rear doors so as to make their escape in a speedy manner. Mr. Jaggars was sleeping in the back part of the building, and was not awakened by the burglars. "CARRIE NORTON."- Messrs. Inskeep & Young's new steamboat which was aunched at Canemah about three weeks ago, has been christened the "Carrie Norton" in honor of Capt. Z. C. Norton's estimable lady. The machinery has been ordered from Portland, and it is expected to have the boat ready for her first trip up the Clackamas by the first of April. The boat is forty feet in length, 8 feet beam, 3 is feet hold, and will carry about 15 tons.

TRUNK THIEF .- John Boyle, a resident of Yambill county, unfortunately allowed a man named Morand to help carry his trunk from the railroad depot to the Depot Saloon, where he left it while taking a spin around town one day last week. When Boyle returned for his trunk he found that Morand had told the proprietor that it was his trunk and carried it away. Nothing has been heard of either Morand or the trunk since.

DIED.-It is with regret we announce the death of Polly, adopted daughter of Mr. E. B. Fellows, of Caneman, on Thursday of last week.
