Bontty Brothers Discharged.

The Portland Bee of last Friday gives the following account of the trial of the Bontty brothers for counterfeiting:

The case of John and Joseph Bontty, jointly indicted by the U.S. grand jury for manufacturing counterest half dollars, has been attracting the attention of the U. S. district court for the past day or two. The prosecution was conducted by Hon. Rufus Mallory, U. S. attorney, and Hon. At 1 o'clock p. m. for the purpose of electing Delegates to attend the Republican County Convention, to be held in Oregon City, on

SATURDAY, THE 6th DAY OF APRIL 1878

Kullus Mallory, U. S. attorney, and Hon. J. F. Caples appeared on behalf of the defense. The following gentlemen were chosen as jurors: Gustaf Wilson, Lewis Love, L. M. Dyer, John Kruse, S. Blumaur, Wm. Cornell, W. W. Jaques, Wm. Gatton, I. H. Grove, E. W. Swafford, R. Bradley, and Jos. Delay. The tools and implements found in their cabin, in Clackamans county, were seized at the tyme of and presented as evidence against the parties. They were to all appearances in-tended for the prosecution of counterfeit-ing purposes, although they were excessively crude and imperfect. The defense claimed the outfit was used in the manufacture of pipes, and to prove their theory, introduced some of the pipes manufactured. The dies, however, were exactly the size of a half dollar piece, and the coincidence was peculiar, to say the least. The milling machine was also an exact counterpart of the coin as were also certain impressions made on a lithographic stone.

impressions made on a lithographic stone. The chief witness testified positively that he saw them manufacturing coin, but his testimony was materially weakened by the introduction of several witnesses who the introduction of several witnesses who testified that his reputation for truth and veracity was not by any means what it should be. The prosecution brought forward eighteen witnesses, the main fact established being that the outfit alluded to was found in their possession. The case was given to the jury about 5 o'clock last evening, and they remained out all night. trict. At 10 o'clock this morning they were call-ed in and reported that they were unable to agree on a verdict. The ballot, we are informed, stood seven for acquittal and five for conviction. It appears that while little doubt remained in their minds as to the intended use of the implements found in the possession of the prisoners, a doubt did exist in the minds of some as to the probability of their having yet been used for the purpose alleged in the indictment. Such being the facts and there being but little probability of securing a jury that would convict the defendants, the district A new postoffice has been established at attorney moved that a nolle pro-sequi be stafford, Clackamas county, with Mrs.

A Deserted Husband and Children.

Mrs. George Githens, of Eagle Creek, concluded last Monday to leave her liege lord and try her fortunes with one Frank Williams, She said she was going to Linn county to visit her son, and was taken to the railroad depot for that purpose, but there she met her paramour and took the train for Portland. The husband, learning that she had started for Portland, followed her, only to find that she had left for Eastern Oregon with her companion. Mrs. an order made discharging the prisoners. Githens has been slightly demented for The officers congratulate themselves on some time past, or at least pretended to be, having at least broken up the nest; for be their intentions what they may, the probabilities are that they will desist from that person. She left three young children and a kind and indulgent husband. Williams is about sixty years of age, poor as Job's turkey, and as lazy a scamp as could found in the county, and it is safe to say that the guilty pair will not have a pleasant road to travel. The descried husband informs us that he will not take issue of March 21, compiled by Mr. W. T. who left him without cause, and will institute a suit for divorce.

BORN.

DIED.

In this city, March 30th, 1878, Inez M. Cochran, second daughter of Hiram and Fannie Cochran, aged 15 years and 5 months. Inez was a sweet, dear child, and greatly beloved by all who knew her. She possessed more than ordinary strength of intellect, a sweet and sunny disposition, and a strict conscientiousness and depth of religious feeling seldom found in one so young. She was baptized when an infant by the venerable Dr.Mc-Carty in St. Luke's church, Vancouver, and was for several years a most faithful and beloved pupil of St. Paul's Sunday School, in this city. Her regular attendance, her well prepared lessons and reverent and devout conduct when there, won for her the highest esteem and love of both teacher and pastor. Long and greatly will her sweet and smiling face be missed from the church and Sunday face be missed from the church and Sunday School, to which she was so devotedly attach-ed. But while her teachers and fellow pupils feel sad and lonely at her loss, they cannot but rejoice at the thought that her pure spirit has ascended from the church on earth to the church in heaven, there to bathe in the bright sunlight of God's glory, to sing His praises and to rejoice in His love, world with-out end out end.

The funeral services were conducted by the rector, the Rev. John W. Sellwood, in the Episcopal church, on Monday morning last. The church was filled to overflowing with a large number of mourning and sympathizing friends. The Sunday School, of which Inex. was so long a member, turned out in a body and were seated around the chancel in the front of the church. They walked out in pro-cession to the grave yard, carrying boquets of flowers in their hands, which they threw into he open grave when the words of committal 'Earth to earth, ashes to ashes, dust to dust,' ere pronounced. It was a most beautiful blemn and impressive sight to see those children standing around the grave and to hear their voices joining devoutly in the Lord's prayer.

The grave was bereft of much of its coldness for loving hands had been out all morning and tastefully covered its walls with ever-greens and flowers. At the head of the grave too stood a large wreath of flowers, With such loving preparations as these it seemed more like laying Inez in a bower of beauty than in the cold, cold grave, to await the resurrection morn. It is needless to say that heart-stricken parents and sisters have deepest sympathy of this community day the richest of heaven's consolations rest pon them in this their hour of trial.

No bitterness for thee be shed, Blossom of being, seen and gone: With flowers alone we strew thy bed, O, blessed departed one! Whose all of life, a rose way, Blushed into dawn and passed away."
