The Enterprise.

OREGON CITY, THURSDAY, APRIL 18, 1878.

BREVITIES.

Lecture at the Baptist Church to-night. Circuit court convenes in this city next Monday.

Wells, Fargo & Co. have re-established their office at Aurora. Mr. D. P. Thompson returned from Washington last week.

Owing to several errors in the school report (not the printer's), we print it again this week.

The Carrie Norton will probably make her trial tripup the Clackamas the latter part of next week. The voice of the candidate is heard in the land. It warbles as sweetly as the The Clackamas county Greenback convention will convene in this city on next Saturday, the 20th inst. Don't fail to hear the lecture by Dr.Mat-thew Hale Smith this evening, as this will be your only opportunity.

In the circuit court at Portland last Tuesday, Mary Ann Dolan was granted a divorce from Jas. X. Dolan.

City election will take place two weeks from next Monday. Candidates for mu-nicipal honors are not very numerous. James Kershaw and Jeff Shaw, of this city, started last week for Eastern Oregon, from whence they will assist in driving a band of cattle across the plains to Kansas.

The new fence around the Congregational Church has been completed and makes quite an improvement in the appearance of the church and grounds.

Mr. Thos. Killin, from Lower Molalla, called last Monday. He says the Repub-licans of his section are entirely satisfied with the ticket, and are prepared to give a John M. Gearin has been nominated by the Democrats for prosecuting attorney of this judicial district. John is one the boys, but he is on the wrong ticket, and we are sorry to say he is doomed to go up Salt

From all parts of the county reports are received that the farmers are busy putting in their crops, and that the acreage will be largely in excess of any former year. A large amount of land has been cleared in the past year, and sown in grain. Mr. C. T. Locey, formerly of Clackamas ounty, has been nominated for county commissioner by the Republicans of Baker county. Cyrus is well qualified for the place, and if he was running on his native heath we would go our pile on him, but Baker smells too strong of Bourbon.

W. W. Carr, of Oswego dropped into our sanctum on Monday and informed us that Oswego is well pleased with the Repubhandsome majority for the entire ticket. Wallace is a wheel horse Republican, and he is pretty well posted. Jasper Slover has adorned the school which makes quite an improvement in the looks of the building. Jasper is a first rate hand with the brush and his work gives gives general satisfaction. Give him a call if you have any work in his line.

Chas. Wilson, postmaster and merchant at this place, proposes to lay out forty acres of land on the river for a town site, and the embryo city has already been christened Wilsonville.

Mr Schwarts, lately from the East, will burn a kiln of fire brick about the first of June, and will ship them to Portland in barges. He says the clay bank is the best he has seen on the coast, and he is well posted in this line. Fred Sekliekeiser, one of the solid men of Wilsonville, was recently married to Mrs, Rosa G. Davis,

MURDER.-Just as we go to press we are informed that Capt, Jas. Goodwin, of Upper Moladia was found in the mountains about 3 miles from his residence on the 16th with his skull fractured. It is supposed that he had considerable money on his person and was murdered for it,

PIRE.-Last Tuesday forenoon, about 11 o'clock, the house of Capt. Miles Bell, at Canemah, caught fire, and the Canemah fire department, headed by shief engineer Wm. Elliott, came to the rescue. A few buckets of water quenched the flames, but buckets of water quenched the flames, but buckets of water feet of the roof had believed in it, and each spent the entire dames, but not until three or four feet of the roof had been dayoured by the flames. The fire had atmost penetrated through the ceiling, and the house would have been a mass of rains but for the prompt action of Mr. Elliott, It is supposed the roof caught from sparks out of the chimney.

City Council.

Council met at the court house last Monday evening, the following members being present: L. T. Barin, mayor, Wm. Whitlock, recorder, Couns. Paquet, Morton, Logus and Dement.

J. S. McDonald petitioned for license to sell liquors in less quantities than a quart. On motion it was ordered that petition be granted on filing of bonds and complying with the law regulating licenses.

Petition of F. Miller and L. Comer, ask ing to be released from the bond of P. Zingsem, saloon keeper. On motion it was ordered that petitioners be released upon filing of new bond by Mr. Zingsem, to be approved by mayor.

The following bills were ordered paid:
Wm. Whitlock, $10; M.C. Athey, $5; T.J.
Broderick, $36; S. B. Califf, $32; F, S. De-

On motion the street commissioner wa authorized to remit the road tax of Mrs. Forbes Barelay, as an error had been made in her assessment for the year 1876, by which she had paid double the amount due on property.

PISH PROPAGATION ON THE CLACKAMAS. It has been satisfactorily demonstrated to the skeptical that the regular Chinook salmon ascend the Clackamas in sufficient numbers for propagation purposes, and the only thing wanted now is more money to place the propagation scheme on a sure footing. A liberal amount has been subscribed for the purpose, but it is not sufficient to carry the enterprise during the coming season, and interested parties should give a helping hand without delay. Prof. Stone gives the following estimate for the present season at the fishery: Dam the river, $1,000; fishing expenses, $500; taking eggs and hatching young sal-mon, $1,000; incidentals, $1,000; salary of superintendent, Mr. Hubbard, $1,000; total, $4,500. This estimate is made for a small scale of operations, say three or four mil-lion salmon, and he estimates that it will cost one thousand dollars for every additional million. Prof. Stone is now in the east, and is using every endeavor to secure an appropriation of $5,000 from Congress for this enterprise. In a letter to the pres-ident of the Fish Propagation Co., he says: "I still have the utmost confidence in the tocation of the fishery, and I feel sure that it will vindicate itself triumphantly over all criticisms, if no accident happens, in the course of three years. It is bound to be the largest salmon breeding location in the world at the end of that time. The run of salmon in the Clackamas will not be large until the Oregon legislature has met and passed the requisite laws for their protection, when you will have fish in abundance."

A CANDIDATE FOR SHERIFF.—Mr. M. G. Wills, formerly of this county, but now of Washington county, has been in town the past week. Mr. Wills has been nominated by the Democrats of Washington county and styles.

LAYING OF A CORNER STONE .- Although the weather was very stormy, quite a large number of persons gathered at Canemah to witness the beautiful and impressive ceremony of laying the corner stone of St. Paul's mission chapel. Besides the Bishop of the diocese, there were present, taking part in the services, the Rev. Messrs. Plummer, Rosenberg, J. R. W. Sellwood, and the Rector of St. Paul's Church, in this city, under whose supervision the erection of this chapel has been undertaken. At the close of the ceremony Bishop Morris made an address, which was shortened by the gathering storm, setting forth the pur-poses for which the building about to be erected was to be set apart. It was a clear erected was to be set apart. It was a clear practical address, and we only regret that the storm brought it to such a speedy close. In the stone were deposited the tollowing documents: A copy of the Holy Scriptures, a copy of the Book of Common Prayer, the Oregon Churchman of March 21, 1878, two pastoral letters, one of July 1, 1873, and the other of July 1, 1874, from the Rev. John W. Sellwood to St. Paul's congregation, Oregon City, Oregon; the Oregon City Enterprise of April 11, 1878, the Daily Oregonian of April 11, 1878, the Daily Standard of April 11, 1878, a list of the present Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen of St. Paul's Church, Oregon City, Oregon, the Paul's Church, Oregon City, Oregon, the Pacific Churchman of March 28, 1878, a copy of the Journal of Convocation for the year 1877. The Rev. Mr. Sellwood desires to return thanks to Mrs. Jerome for the use of the organ, to Mrs. Lazelle, the car-penters, mason and others for many kind-nesses shown to the Bishop and clergy.

RETIRED FROM ACTIVE SERVICE.- Last Friday morning, in St. Paul's Church, this city, after the litany service and penitential prayers, Bishop Morris solemnly de-posed the Rev. Geo. Burton from the ministry, in accordance with the canonical requirements of the Protestant Episcopal Church, declaring it to be unlawful for him to officiate in the future in any of the offices of the sacred ministry The Bishop has appointed the Rev Geo . TEMPERANCE LECTURE. - The lecture given by Mrs. Logan on Temperance, in the M. E. Church last Sunday evening, to a large audience, was pronounced very good. This lady has been lecturing in our State during the past winter, as we have seen by our exchanges, and has been well received not only in the cities, but in the principal towns. She purposes visit-ing the Walla Walla country before returning to California.

IMPROVEMENTS.-Julius Logus has the lumber on the ground and carpenters have commenced work on his new residence. C. N. Greenman is making an improvement in the shape of a new fence in front of his residence. Wm. Pope, G. W. Church and N. W. Randall have manifested an interest in the public welfare by erecting a bridge across the hollow on lith street, near Judge Randall's residence.

The Democratic majority in the House at the commencement of the present session was 13, and they have made it 21 by ousting Republicans on any gauzy pretext, without regarding the decision of the people at the polls. An attempt is being made now to oust Rainey, Smalls, and Cain, the only colored representatives in Congress. Smalls' case is already in the hands of the committee on elections, and his case is contested by one O'Connor on similar grounds. O'Connor's brief is a remarkable document. Cain received a majority of 8,000 votes. His district has so large a colored population that since the war up to the last election no Democratic ticket was nominated. Last election the White League nominated a Congressman, and he received 8,000 votes out of about 24,000. O'Connor, Democrat, claims that he should have been elected, but for the proclamation of President Grant in October, 1876, disbanding the rifle clubs, which proclamation he says in his brief did overawe, intimidate, and threaten so as to prevent qualified voters of said district from the exercise of the free right of suffrage, and further. because the disarming of the rifle clubs by said proclamation rendered terrorism most effectual in intimidating, and preventing Democrats from affording themselves any protection in the free exercise of the right of suffrage.

Beriah Brown, of the Seattle Dispatch, an old time Democrat, gives the following complimentary notice of the Democratic leaders in Oregon, caused no doubt by reading the gauzy platform adopted by the Democracy at Portland a few

This is a "slap in the face" for our present Democratic Administration, but the funny part comes in when they placed Brown in the field again for State Treasurer, when it is an acknowledged fact he has drawn two or three times the amount of "one salary."
