ARRESTED, - Jacob Madder, of the firm of Humbel and Madder, procient by the Court to bind him over to appear before the Grand Jury of that Court. Before this Mr. Madder's reputation for business integrity, as far as we are aware, has always been above suspicion; and we hope in this case he will also be able to prove his innocence satisfactorily to all his friends. Mr. Madder stoutly denies that any crime was committed, and says that with the large business they at-tended to, he could not afford to risk his prospects by trying to defraud Uncle Sam out of his just dues. The amount of fraudulent stamps used are claimed by the prosecution to be of the value of three dollars.

Twenty Years Experience in Oregon City enables me to know the requirements of the trade. Come one and all and see for yourselves that the old stand of

THOMAS CHARMAN cannot be beaten in quality or price. It would be useless for me to tell you all the advantages I can offer you in the sale of goods, as every store that advertises does that, and probably you have been disappointed. All I wish to say is

Come, and See, and Examine for Yourselves, for Ido not wish to make any mistakes. My object is to tell all my old friends now that I am still alive, and desirous to sell goods cheap, for each, or upon such terms as agreed upon:

Thanking all for the liberal patronage heretos fore bestowed
