-Weldon Shank of Canby enters the high school at Portland this week.

-Miss Dora Smith spent the past week with friends in Canby.

-Grant Bacon and Frank Blankinship intend starting to Monmouth tomorrow to attend the normal school there.

-Miss Myrtle Marquam of Butte Creek and Miss Eeno Sangon invaded our sanctum with their bright faces last Thursday. We shall be pleased to have them repeat their visit.

-J. W. Thomas of Molalla will take subscriptions to the Enterprise.

-A. K. Marks of Aurora goes to McMinnville this week to attend school. He is a bright young man and will make a good student.

-Ed. Barnett of Eagle Creek, got badly cut in a logging camp at Astoria, and his uncle Edward Forbes went down on the boat Friday to bring him up if he was able to be moved.

-Some fine Grant's Pass water melons have been making themselves felt about town this week.

-The rains of last week were rough on oats already cut, causing the berry to swell. A few more days rain would have spoiled much grain.

-Back shooting has begun. There being no ducks here the sportsman must go elsewhere for game.

-A better organized and equipped society than the I. O. O. F. of this place would be hard to find. The members take much pride in their society and have it on a good financial footing.

-Again the small boy is happy.

-The Harrison Street school building in Portland was burned Tuesday.

-Mrs. F. W. Campbell is returned from the surveying trip with her husband. Frank is expected back in a couple of weeks.

-Mr. Giddings was thrown from his cart, near Mr. Riley's, last Tuesday and terribly bruised.

-For your choice claret wines go to M. H. Flanagan's.

-Mrs. Skerton's lecture was but slightly attended. Those present spoke well of it.

-Father O'Shea is holding interesting mission meetings at the Catholic church every evening this week.

-Rev. T. L. Sails will preach at McMinnville the coming year.

-State fair next week.

-Miss Daisy Diller returned from Seattle last week. She is preparing to attend business college in Portland.

-W. W. H. Samson goes to Salem Sunday evening to act as gate keeper at the state fair.

-Mr. Marion George who lives on a farm near Middleton lost his house and contents by fire last week.

-A goodly number went from here Sunday to hear Bishop Foster.

-County court is in session this week.

-The rains of last week will give grass a fine start and a better yield of milk will result.

-The brutal whipping of a boy in the lower part of town Monday night caused much indignation among the neighbors. If repeated they will take the matter in hand.

-Preliminary steps for the establishment of a canery will be taken at the board of trade meeting Monday night. A full attendance is desired.

SCHOOL MEETING.-As will be seen by the notices posted by school clerk Harding, a special meeting of the electors is called to hear the report of the directors in relation to the school house, and if deemed proper, to vote such additional tax as is needed.

FREE KIDS.-The boys yelled lustily as the rear coach of Tuesday's train passed revealing a tramp, not a "tramp", but taking a free ride on the break beam.

MOVING.-J. E. Shade found himself cramped for room at his old stand and he may now be found busy at his last in the old fish market.

CONFERENCE ADJOURNED.-The general conference of 1887 adjourned Monday morning. Rev. Case is sent to Halsey and Rev. Willison to this place.

ON PROBATION.-Prof. Rock will speak on prohibition at this place, Saturday and Sunday, the 17th and 18th of September.

THROWN OUT.-Last week as Wm. Boring was driving down an incline the iron that holds the neck-yoke from slipping back broke, allowing the wagon to run onto the horses before the brake could be set. The horses immediately started to run but the wagon struck a log throwing Mr. Boring about ten feet out, dropping him unharmed. His wife and child were thrown out with the seat and received some severe bruises.

NOTICE.-There will be preaching services at the Baptist church next Sabbath at 10:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Morning subject, "The Truth that makes free;" evening topic, "The right ear, the right thumb and the right great toe." Sun day school immediately after the morning service. J. C. Read, supply.

STUDY CAR.-By the courtesy of Mr. Fred Davis, advertising agent for Barrett's show, we were enabled to look through the company's advertising car. A steam heater occupies one end of the car, and makes up barrels of fine paste daily. Berths are arranged for 18 men, and in every conceivable corner are stowed away the bills and immense lithographs used for posters. It is a model of neatness and utility.

ONE BETTER.-G. W. Shank, well known as a prosperous farmer of Canby, had in 265 acres of grain this season and reports an excellent yield. A field of 13 acres of oats shelled out 95 bushels to the acre, and a field of 50 acres of wheat turned out 30 bushels to the acre. Not much of a failure of crops this.

STELL BEVY.-N. W. Randall is still busy collecting specimens of fruit for the state fair. Clackamas county promises not to be behind in the matter of county exhibits.

DELICIOUS FRUIT.-Miss Nora Beatie placed upon our table a fine basket of pines most temptingly arranged. They were from the farm of H. L. C. Phelps of New Era, being the largest and finest flavored that we have seen this year. Many thanks.

OREGON CITY ILLUSTRATED.-The West Shore for September comes to hand with illustrations of Oregon City, and a description of the town. As is usual in such matters, various opinions are heard as to the merit of the work. The lithographs are good and will give anyone a very fair idea of the appearance of the place, the only exception being perhaps that the falls are taken from a different point than usually seen in the pictures.

SCHOOL DIFFICULTY.-Last spring, the school district comprising Sellwood and Willaburg was divided forming two districts, one for each town. Much heat was manifested at the time in regard to the division of the money, in which the teacher at Willaburg J. F. Rhoda took a prominent part, making himself particularly obnoxious to the Sellwood people.

THIS SUMMER Sellwood built a school house and Rhoda applied for the position of teacher, which strange to say he received. His election is peculiarly obnoxious to the people, and they last week called a mass meeting which was largely attended. Resolutions were passed asking the director to resign. As he refuses to do so, it yet remains to be seen how the matter will terminate.

If you are indebted to the undersigned please call promptly and settle your account. J. W. NORRIS, M. D.

BEING REPAIRED.-The railroad living house by the depot, which has for a long time been occupied by the Chinese section hands has had a double board roof put on and other needed repairs made. The old roof resembled a pepper box, so numerous were the holes made by rocks thrown from the bluff by the "hoods."

CALLER.-Hon. John Kruse was among our callers this week. He thinks that Robert Lincoln would make an acceptable candidate for the lead of the republican ticket.

WAY UP OR BMS.-The school board opened the bids for building a school house last Saturday and found the lowest to be from a Portland man. It was for $250, without heating and plumbing. As these last two items would, according to the lowest bids, cost $1625 it would bring the cost of the school house up to $1875, or about $3000 more than the district voted.

MOVED.-R. F. Caulfield has moved into the shop so long occupied by W. F. Higginbotham, where he may be found ready to do good work repairing watches.

FINE STOCK.-Mrs. C. H. L. Burmeister carries a fine line of clocks, watches and jewelry, and may always be found at her place of business ready to show goods or make needed repairs.

TWO THOUSAND DOLLARS POORER.-This county Monday came to a realization of the fact that it was about $2000 poorer off than it had been the previous morning. The suit of Eastman against the county was Monday decided in favor of Eastman and against the county, $1500, and costs the tune played to. In June 1886 Eastman was driving a pair of horses hitched to a buggy along the road when he came to a bridge. There was a hole in the bridge and the planks were loose. The foliage of trees hid the hole from the driver and when they came to it they slid to one side and as there was no railing on the bridge the whole outfit went down into the bed of the stream. Eastman's forearm was fractured, his side hurt and the horses and buggy more or less damaged. The Legislature after the accident passed a law against allowing damages in such cases and this was the principal ground of the defense.

TO MEET FREED.-Mossie Ware and Jaggars were in town Tuesday getting some repairs for their threshing machine. While running with good motion the line pinion broke leaving the power alone as a check to the horses, which simultaneously with the breaking of the pinion started round the track in a vigorous attempt to beat Maud S. For a few moments things were lively about there, but the excitement was soon checked with only a few broken bolts to attest up to loss along with the pinion. Jim says he likes to give good motion, but don't like to be in the center of a trial of speed.

NOT ALL LOVELY.-A newspaper office is not all sunshine. It sometimes happens that the type is not in the forms, when the time draws nigh for the mails to close, and to have the papers in those mails is of the utmost importance. Out make up last week was sufficient illustration to our readers of the result of such a state of affairs.

Mass Ida Labourette will remain in town this winter and give painting lessons. Her very artistic work may be seen at Mrs. Driggs'.

Ayer's Ague cure acts directly on the liver and biliary apparatus, and drives out the malarial poison which induces liver complaints and bilious disorders. Warranted to cure, or the money refunded. Try it.

JO-JO, WITH THE DOG-FACE.

A Remarkable Human Curio. Prominent among the special features of S. H. Barrett's New United Monster Shows which appear here on Wednesday Sept. 21, is the famous protoge of the Czar, "Jo-Jo," the dog-faced Russian boy. This human miracle has attracted widespread attention throughout Europe, and he will no doubt duplicate in this country the interest he aroused in the Old World. The New York Journal speaks of the prodigy as follows:

"A wonderful curiosity, the dog-faced boy, 'Jo-Jo' from Russia arrived on the City of Chicago yesterday. 'Jo-Jo' has the face of a full-blooded slye terrier, the resemblance extending to the dark, rounded eyes that gleam through the long silken hair which covers his face. From the root of his nose the hair of his forehead is combed up hill, and blends with the darker hair of the head proper, which is combed straight back over the head. From the top and sides of his nose, and from the cheeks right up to the orbits of the eyes, the hair falls down, quite covering the mouth and chin.

"Jo-Jo" is very amiable generally, but he showed a little of the canine nature for an instant, yesterday, when a reporter gave him what appeared to be a fine large banana but which in reality was only a banana skin covering a lot of finest tobacco. 'Jo-Jo' is morally opposed to the weed. He uses chewing gum, however, and fairly dozes on gum-drops.

"It was Mr. S. H. Barrett's money and diplomacy which secured permission from the Russian Government to bring 'Jo-Jo' to this country, and even now an agent for the Czar, Mr. Nicholas Forster, accompanies the boy, and will be with him wherever he goes, to see that he is properly cared for and returned to St. Petersburg at the stipulated time."

Engagement Extraordinary. We are pleased to announce that arrangements have been made whereby Wad-el-Ward, the great oriental traveler and distinguished scholar has been secured to give two of his oriental entertainments in Oregon City. The entertainments, which have drawn immense audiences in all the large eastern cities and in Portland, will be held next Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, Sept. 13 and 14, in Pope's hall under the auspices of the Y. P. S. C. E. of the Congregational church.

Wad-el-Ward is a native of Jerusalem, Palestine, he speaks 13 different languages, is a graduate of King's College London and Leipzig University Germany. He conducted Gen. Grant and party through the Holy Land when making their tour of the world. He is well known to all the principal men in the United States and is one of the most pleasing and interesting speakers upon the platform. His audiences are always kept in the best humor and shouts of applause greet his witty sayings, yet he often moves them to tears. Dr. Ward appears in his elaborate Oriental costume. His descriptions of Eastern manners and customs is unexcelled and every body is pleased.

Tuesday evening he will speak on "The Manners, Customs and Conventions of Eastern Life," Wednesday evening, "A Pilgrimage to Mecca in disguise, with the Mohammedans."

Terms: both entertainments, 75 cents, single ticket 50 cents. Children under 15: both entertainments, 50 cents, single ticket, 25 cents. Reserved seats 25 cents extra, to be had at the post office or the hall.

Bob Bardette on "Jo-Jo." "Jo-Jo might be pointed out as an evidence that the days of miracles have not yet passed away. He is the masterpiece of Nature's wildest whims I never saw a human curio that interested me so much as did Jo-Jo. Apart from his singular canine appearance, he is very quick-witted and 'gets back' at sarcastic visitors in an amusing way. He delights in gaudy inquisitive dudes. There is nothing repulsive about Jo-Jo, but, on the contrary, he is quite attractive."
