D. P. Thompson has been sick the past week.

Samuel Burkholt has sold his lot in 112 to E. H. Banks.

V. Short, of Pleasant Hill, has made a notary public.

A new boat has been placed on the at the Stark street ferry.

J. C. Readly, of Powell's Valley, was out last Monday on business.

Alie Burkholt is sick this week and Hattie Cochran is teaching for her.

E. W. Porter will open a first-class sewing shop soon back of Pope's Hardware Store.

A good many horses hereabouts are suffering from catarrhal fever. So far it has not appeared fatal.

Capt. Phil Shannon, who is making his rounds in Springwater, was in town Friday on business.

So one in Oregon City has the grippe, but the grippe has got a great many and got them bad.

The blockade of the Southern Pacific which continued several days of last week is not yet broken.

The Latona expects if the weather is favorable to begin the Sunday ups again about February first.

M. H. Flanagan is blasting on the which he purchased of the county a year ago, preparatory to building.

It is thought that the Occident, which was condemned some time since, will soon be sent out with a new hull.

W. V. Hurst has purchased of Capt.
Apperson his wood engine which he will use to run his wood working machinery.

Mrs. DeVore, mother of Mrs. W. C.
Johnson and her son are with the other assistants in nursing Mr. Johnson.

February 12th is set for the date of Sandy Old's new trial. There is some talk among his attorneys of a change of venue.

M. C. S. Spinney recently from Nevada, Mo., has become a resident of Oregon City, as he believes her prospects are very bright.

A. W. France and J. and H. Jones left on Monday for Astoria. Mr. France will be away several weeks and the other gentlemen longer.

The board of trade cannery committee were busy all day yesterday with the gentlemen from Portland who want to build a cannery here.

Prof. Eastman's gallery, near the Cliff house, will be open on Sunday under the personal supervision of the proprietor. All work guaranteed.

C. A. Armondi, of Seattle, was in town last Saturday on business. He like every other resident of the Queen city, is enthusiastic over her prospects.

Those plate glass windows in the front of Charman Bros. block are 58x8 inches and in conjunction with the small panes make a very attractive front.

You can get anything you want in the line of job work from the smallest hand bill to the finest card or book work, at THE ENTERPRISE office. Call for prices.

W. A. McPhee who was at one time state printer and who has been connected with newspapers in nearly every town in the valley is spending the week in town.

A preemption filing was made a short time ago for forty acres of land just back of Jones' mill, between the Abernethy and the Clackamas. Its probable value is $25 per acre.

There will be German services at the M. E. church in this city next Sunday, Jan. 26; also on February 5th at 2:30 P.M. conducted by Rev. H. Hanson of Milwaukee. All are invited.

Mr. P. H. Cragin was much relieved last Thursday to receive a telegram stating that his two children were much improved in health. A previous telegram had notified him of their dangerous sickness.

Henry Dubois, of Springwater, was in town the last of the week. Henry is one of the best farmers in Clackamas county, and has—well his farm is on Springwater ridge—and you know what a fine section that is.

Charles Athey has part of the material on the ground for a very neat cottage which he is erecting on the hill near Henry Cook's. He already has the woodshed done and is using it as a storehouse for his finishing lumber.

Rev. G. W. Giboney was unable to fill his pulpit last Sabbath on account of threatened relapse of pneumonia with which he had laid up just prior to his coming here. He is about again now and will preach Sunday as usual.

Thirteen thousand dollars has been paid by the state for reform school grounds four miles from Salem. Building will not be begun till late spring.
They will cost $17,000 or more. The penitentiary is to furnish the brick.

H. P. Bestow is intending in the early spring to move his barn near the Abernethy bridge, and which has never been used, back from the road and convert it into a house. He already has the mouldings and lumber stored within ready for use.

E. P. Dredman, of Clackamas, who with his father has been raising vegetables for the East Portland cannery for five years, says that it would be an excellent thing for the farmers of this vicinity if a cannery could be secured for Oregon City.

Adolph Aschoff, R. D. Alexander, and the Peake brothers, from Sandy, were in town last Friday proving up on homesteads. They report lots of snow in their neighborhood. They came down with a sled and found it pretty muddy sludging down here.

The report was current on Sunday that Hon. D. F. Thompson was the grippe and could not live. J. W. Meldrum, who went down to Portland in the morning to see him, brought back word on the evening train that the story was a gross exaggeration. So reports grow, GRADING ALLEY.—Men and teams are at work grading out the alley through the block opposite the postoffice. It is going to add to the appearance of that part of town when this is completed.

MORE SEATS.—The Presbyterian church has already found the seats in their building insufficient, and have ordered four and one-half dozen additional chairs which will be here this week.

STOLE THE CHICKENS.—Last Friday morning some entered the chicken house belonging to J. N. Graham and stole a lot of chickens, among the number being two roosters of fancy breed worth two dollars each.

FOUN COAL.—John T. Myers, of Rocky Point, reports having found very strong evidences of the existence of fine coal beds in the Rocky Point country.
He is from the coal section of Pennsylvania and is pretty well informed about coal beds.

CROWDED HOUSE.—Pope's hall was well filled last week to listen to the readings of Miss Jessie Couloumb. Those who attended were well pleased with the reading entertainment and the school is gratified to have about $40, to be used in purchasing a library.

TOUCH MITCH LOAN.—Engine No. 33 going south last Friday with the train of street cars found the frosty grade too steep to climb.
Four trials were made before the train was pulled into the station, and it was only accomplished for that purpose, and 1890 will be a year of railway building, as we may all judge by the signs.

FORMER OREGONIAN DEAD.—From the Kahoka, Mo., Gazette-Herald we extract the following death notice. Capt.
D. A. Day a former resident and attorney of Waterloo died recently in Chicago.
Capt. Day moved to Oregon in 1878 and lived on P. M. Rinckearns' farm till 1883 when he moved to Chicago. He was an old soldier and a member of Masonic Post No. 2 G. A. F. of this city.

BLOOMING "KNELL THE SNOW."—The flowers of Oregon are most infatigable bloomers, and persist in putting forth their blossoms in the most inauspicious weather. Last Thursday we received from Mrs. La Forest in a bouquet a handsome rosebud almost bursting into bloom which she had plucked from a bush standing out of doors. It was found peeping up through the snow when the beautiful melted. The rose was of the "Giant of the Baltic" variety.

WANTS TO COKE.—G. W. Holeman, of Clackamas who with his sons owns a controlling interest in the Oregon Packing Company of East Portland, is desirous of moving that plant to this city. During the past week he has, we understand, consulted with the special committee of the board of trade appointed to canvass the community in the interest of a cannery with the result that he will probably at an early date submit to the board definite propositions.

APPLICATION REJECTED.—Miss Flora Thorne, who is working with her father at the Court house, making a set of abstracts, recently discovered that 40 acres of land near New Era was not covered by a government filing. She accordingly made applications at the land office to file on that 40. Her application was rejected by the register but we understand that Miss Thorne's attorney will appeal her case to the commissioners of the general land office. George Randall is said to have the fort applied for under cultivation, it being very fine land.

PLANS FOR BUILDING.—The season of 1890 may not be said to have opened as yet, but inquiring among builders shows that many of our citizens are planning for new and better houses in which to eat their New Years dinner in 1891.
This class of work has never heretofore been in progress at this season of the year and the fact that it is being done now presages an unusually busy season.

CHURCH PLANS.—The Methodist church held a meeting last Saturday evening to consider plans for a church building. Various plans were considered, but no definite arrangements were decided upon, rather than that a suitable building will be erected early in the spring. They are now considering the advisability of building the walls of brick up to the eaves.

EAGLE CREEK ROAD.—Mr. W. T.
Lynn, of Eagle Creek, was in town last Friday and we learned from him that the committee on the Eagle Creek and Bakers Ferry bridge road has now secured pledges to the amount of $300.
He says that they are not going to have any difficulty to raise the required $1000, and further that they expect to make it up to $200 the additional $200 to be used in widening and improving the road beyond the Deep creek bridge.
The Portland rod and gun club has shown its interest in the work by volunteering to supply all necessary powder to blow out the stumps for a 60 foot road. By raising the $200 extra, with this help from Portland they expect to get a good 60-foot road.

OREGON FRUIT IN CHINA.—Judge O. N.
Denny writes to a friend in this state as follows: "As this seems to be a suitable climate and soil for the purpose, I have decided to push the introduction of Oregon's valuable varieties of fruit. Upon my recommendation several hundred fruit trees have been ordered from Oregon, besides small fruit, such as raspberries, currants, gooseberries, grapes, etc. I am sending orders to the mail for 600 trees for myself, which will no doubt be repeated from time to time. While my wife and I are in good health, we are growing very restless for at least a visit to our dear home in our cherished country, and shall surely leave here in April, after the expiration of my second contract with him who was doing.

STILL VERY SICK.—When a person lies for six weeks upon a sick bed and that with a relapse as is the case with Mr. W. C. Johnson, and he lies upon his bed from day to day with but little appetite change it is a difficult matter to make a satisfactory report of the progress of the disease, especially when, as in this case, the attending and consulting physicians have been somewhat at a loss as to the real source of trouble. At present Mr. Johnson's treatment is more a matter of care and diet than of medicine, as we understand it. He began the treatment by taking after a few days a teaspoonful of milk at regular intervals of time. Milk is still administered in doses of two tablespoonsfuls every twenty minutes. Each hour a tablespoon or more of chamo-pagne is given just before the milk.
This is all that is done except to give medicine once in every three or four hours.
This milk diet has appeared to agree with him from the first, the digestion being apparently perfect. His retention of strength must be an indication that assimilation as well as digestion is in progress as about two quarts of milk is now taken daily, he should derive considerable nourishment from his food.
When it is given he takes it in his hands and raises his head, drinks it usually without trouble. This he is not always able to do as he has spells of stupor when it is difficult to rouse him. It is during these times that the glass is held for him. Appearances indicate that the stupor is daily less profound and the spells of shorter duration, the worst time having been on Saturday.
Should this prove a correct conclusion and the gain continue, with no relapse of indigestion causing nausea, which would most likely prove fatal, the one chance of a hundred accredited him by a Portland physician would be his and Mr.
Johnson live to be welcomed back to the business and social community.

THEY COME HIGH.—Speaking of potatoes, the Oregonian of recent date says: Potatoes have advanced in price since the freeze and are being retailed at 2½ cents per pound, while wholesale dealers are paying 1½ cents. There is still a considerable surplus here and the present high price will draw them out from all parts of the state, and the prospect is that the price will drop as soon as all danger of cold weather is past. There is no demand for Oregon potatoes in San Francisco as great quantities are being shipped in from St. Louis. A reduction in rates has been made by the railroads, which enables St. Louis potatoes to be landed in San Francisco at 15¢ per pound, with a profit. This of course shuts out Oregon potatoes at the prices now ruling here, and will necessarily lead to a drop in price.

ACQUITTEE.—After the arrest by mistake of Jonas Sholin and his discharge, George Chambers swore out a second warrant, this time against Dick Turpin, who proved to be the man who struck him.
A jury trial was demanded, and Turpin offered in defense testimony showing that he did not know that Chambers had a club over his shoulder he was afraid that he was a tramp, so hauled off and belted him in the face. As Chambers is but a youth of 16 he found this pretty cruel treatment, coming as it did from a man grown. The jury seemed to be swayed by the striking party as the same and he asked witness if defendant was the man that struck him and he replied, "Yes." This, of course, ended the suit except that costs were taxed up to compensate witness, and were paid by him, the amount being $20.00.

and will preach Sunday as usual.

THIRTY THOUSAND DOLLARS.—A sum of thirty thousand dollars has been paid by the state for reform school grounds four miles from Salem. Building will not be begun till late spring.
penitentiary is to furnish the brick.

PENITENTIARY.—H. P. Bestow is intending in the early spring to move his barn near the

ATKINSON.—Is the name of a suburb to the pleasantly situated town of Mil-lawn which has been laid out into small tracts. It lies between the Foster road and Kellogg Creek, these being over 100 acres in the tract.

GRAND REMOVAL SALE.—Charman & Co. are preparing to move into their new store in Charman Bros.' fine block about the 15th of February, and to renew their stock they will for the next thirty days sell goods at greatly reduced rates.
Now is the time to take advantage of this.

STEAL THE CHICKENS.—Last Friday
two dollars each.

ROCKY POINTERS.—There were a good many of the good citizens of Rocky Point, near upper Springwater, in town last week on read business with the county court, among whom we noted our old friend John T. Myers; also John Bowditch and Mr. Albright. They live in one of the finest sections of Clackamas county and a jolly crowd they were.

ROAD TO SILVERTON.—Says the Silverton Appeal, referring to the prospects of that town: Need we prophesy that the terminus of a railway route through Clackamas county to East Portland?
A company is already incorporated for that purpose, and 1890 will be an extra fine year in the state to get suited. Work guaranteed in every particular.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.—At the meeting of the members of the Willamette silver band last Saturday evening in Portland, when each was apparently on a hunt for himself there is something in the wind. What is it? We don't want any band, but this looks as
