

Home Happenings.

Albertha Moehcke is visiting relatives in Seattle. Last Friday's Statesman contained six death notices. Wm. Mack has laid off an addition to the town of Canby. J. L. Swafford was sick a couple of days the last of the week. Send us the news of your section and it will be put in print. G. A. Harding has been very sick, with the gripe, of course. J. H. Hanna has a cottage nearly completed on Green Point addition. Dr. S. L. Roberts of Clackamas has been on the sick list is getting better. Wm. Pratt got out again last Monday after a tussle with the universal affliction. Miss Grace Williams was the recipient of a pleasant surprise party last Friday evening. The Tillamook Headlight quotes chickens as being and roosters in its market reports. It is a relief to have the snow gone and the bare ground smiling up into one's face again. Sheriff Graham, of Marion county, was in town Monday looking after two escaped prisoners. Oscar E. A. Freytag has a fine lot of fresh butter and eggs; also fine potatoes. Goods delivered free. Mrs. Max Burmeister, of Walls Walla, is visiting her cousins, Misses Gusta and Sophie Logus. H. P. Boston intends to build a commodious and pleasant home on his place near the Abernethy bridge this season. Prof. Eastman preserves all negatives so that parties getting pictures of him may be sure of additional pictures without re-posing. F. O. McCown was taken extremely sick in his office Tuesday morning. It only remains to say it has got him, the meaning is L. Grippe. M. E. Willoughby's auction sale occurs at his farm near Damascus February fourth. He offers all his stock and machinery, besides considerable household effects. C. H. Warner, of Dakota, has recently moved to Oregon where he intends to make his home in future. He is now at Oregon City and is much pleased with the outlook. The Commercial Bank has concluded to keep open on Saturday evenings from 5 till 7 o'clock, for the accommodation of those depositors who cannot well call during business hours. A large rock fell from the upper stairs and demolished a section of stairs. Another large rock was loosed near the depot and fell down on the railroad track Tuesday night. SALOON ROBBERY.—Some one entered Jack Trembath's saloon Monday night by breaking in at the back window, and robbed the till, which contained about three dollars and fifty cents. The Statesman says: The many friends of Mrs. P. H. Hatch will learn with sorrow that she is no better, but continues slowly to fail, her death being expected at any hour. Consumption is her ailment and the disease is gradually wasting her away. J. W. Griggs has found his work crowding him so much that he had to place a third chair in his shop. This, together with his new arrangements for heating whereby the bath and dressing rooms are kept at uniform temperature, enables him to give his customer's entire satisfaction. FIVE PHOTOGRAPHS.—Taken in any weather at the new gallery opposite the wooden mill. Prof. Eastman will be present in person for a few days and will take parties desiring fine work should call at once. Call and examine the work. PLASK REEVE.—Superintendent Cragin showed us the plans and drawings, showing the internal arrangement of the Crown Paper Mill with the machinery in place, which he received the first of the week. He says that the recent very bad weather has delayed them a great deal in their work, but that they will push the work as fast as possible when the weather will permit. The machinery is expected to begin to arrive in about a month. STEEL IMPROVING.—To the professional watchmaker, Mr. W. C. Johnson's attention appears to be improving, as he is gaining in strength slowly from day to day. His stomach will now retain a little stronger food than milk. The first change in diet was made on Saturday, when part of a raw egg was given. While the general symptoms have appeared thus favorable, the physicians in attendance state that an abnormal growth exists in the pyloric region and that this is likely to prove disastrous, though the patient may rally for a time; but they hold out no hope of ultimate recovery. Miss Nellie Hly, whose real name is Elizabeth (Pink) Cochran, by the way, a relative of H. Cochran of this city, has completed her trip around the world having beaten Jules Vera's famous "Around the World in 80 Days," by eight days. Eminent physicians everywhere recommended Ayer's Cherry Pectoral as the most reliable remedy that can be had for colds, coughs, and all pulmonary disorders. Ask your druggist for Ayer's Almanic; it is the best publication of the kind, and full of information. Marion county Pomona grange has passed resolutions favoring the manufacture by convict labor of jute grain sacks; also that a committee secure seed of jute and kindred plants from the secretary of agriculture, with a view to testing culture in this valley, and suggesting that the next governor be chosen from the ranks of the agriculturists or mechanics. General Sherman has been interviewed concerning the sensational story that he buried a large sum of money in Kershaw county, S. C., during the war, and that ex-Secretary Sherman had sent men to recover it. He says the story has no foundation whatever. In fact his troops did not enter Kershaw county. Sherman illustrated his march to show the fact that by a file of maps marked with red and blue, which he carried from Atlanta on the famous march. He keeps these maps in an iron safe and treasures them highly.

OVERLAND TRAINS.—After over two weeks' blockade in the mountains over which Shasta so gloriously presided, the road is not open. Two THINGS.—You will never be sorry for. First, if you sign the remonstrance against the railroad franchise. Second, if you get your meals at the Vienna Chop House. SCHOOL CLOSED.—Owing to the breaking out of diphtheria in Clackamas the schools there have been closed. William George a 10 year old boy came down with the dread disease and to prevent its spread the directors closed school. BOB-TAILED BEEF.—Cattle are suffering, says the Grant County News, and we understand that Dan Canlin, of Silver Valley, gathered about a hundred head lately, and not having hay for them the poor beasts began eating each other tails off. DEEP SNOW.—A stock shed fell on and killed three head of cattle for Chas. McCown, one day last week at Crookedfinger Prairie. The snow was four feet deep on the prairie last week, and as it has snowed almost continuously ever since; it must be six or seven feet deep. —Silverton Appeal. LOOKS MOTORISH.—A number of Portland parties were in town last week looking at realty, and it now transpires that they are staking their money on the building of the east side motor line, as will be seen by the transfer of several pieces of property below the Clackamas bridge. EXCHANGE NOTICE.—I will exchange forty-five numbers of the Yankee Blade for thirty numbers of either the Banner Weekly, Fireside Companion, Saturday Night, or New York Weekly. Anyone having either of the above papers to exchange for the Yankee Blade, please drop a card in the postoffice to Alex. C. Wallace. GET THIS OUT—paste it in your hat. Sheriff Samson announces by posters nailed up in each precinct that he will pass around the county on a collection tour, beginning at Damascus February eleventh. He will be in the several precincts in the county from 10 to 2 o'clock each day upon the day and date given in notice. STEAM LAUNDRY.—W. H. Bowers and son, Geo. S. have leased the second floor of the old dry house where they are busy fitting up appliances for a steam laundry. George is to be manager and will have full charge of the business. He expects to be ready for washing early next week when he will begin soliciting for business. THOMAS LAND DECISION.—Secretary Noble decided on the 20th inst. that a married woman can make timber land in the state of California, Oregon, Nevada and Washington, provided it is conclusively shown that the entry is made for her own use and benefit, and not for the benefit of herself and husband jointly. HAS A PATENT.—George Randall called on Monday. He says the first intimation that he had that any one was trying to file on a part of his land was conveyed to him by the item in THE ENTERPRISE. He immediately looked up his U. S. patent and found it to have been issued in 1892, and all O. K. The trouble was, it had never recorded in the land office here. CHINESE GAMBLING.—Since a couple of boys at Albany a few days ago made a big winning in a Chinese lottery a little investigation was made and it is discovered—a fact not generally known—that the various Chinese firms daily practice a species of gambling that finds many votaries among boys and men, as well as among the Mongolians themselves. It is an organized lottery system, conducted every day. Not less than four of these drawings are held each day, and it is absolutely surprising to know how well they are patronized. Recently some of the purchasers of tickets won considerable amounts and now a good many dollars are blown in on this swindle every day among the boys, whose manes perhaps know nothing of the manner in which their small change is spent.—Statesman. QUITE AN INDUSTRY.—The business of cutting and rafting cottonwood logs to the paper mill of the Willamette Pulp & Paper company at Oregon City is quite an enterprise, says the Statesman. On Brown's Island, near Salem, there is constantly employed a force of twenty men. Of this number six are in the cutting while the remainder are employed in the logging camp cutting the logs and making them into rafts. Each week an average of 200,000 feet go down with the current and come from the mill after a few days as first-class paper. Work on the island will be continued two or three months longer or until the timber has been felled. Then the men will move on to the Santiam and continue operations. Most of the timber they use is the balsam, or female cottonwood proper, sopulent in the valley. GRAND ARMY ITEMS.—General orders have been issued from headquarters department Oregon G. A. R. at Salem giving notice that the ninth annual encampment of the Oregon department will convene at Eugene at 2:30 p. m. Wednesday, February 12th. The annual convention of the Woman's Relief Corps will be held at the same time and place. R. A. Crossan, of Sedwick Post No. 10 is appointed a special aide to the A. G., to serve during the encampment. The coming annual encampment promises to be one of the most interesting held in the state, and all the comrades are cordially invited to be present and enjoy the hospitality and liberality of the members. A large and active committee of comrades of the G. A. R., and ladies of the W. R. C., of Eugene, are engaged in securing and preparing entertainment and making all arrangements for the encampment. A hearty and earnest welcome will be extended to all visiting comrades. The railroads of the state have all offered to transport members for one and one-fifth fare for the round trip. N. K. Rankin, Commander of Ore. Wright Post No. 1, Portland, has been appointed Chief Musterling Officer, vice Geo. W. Rowan, resigned.—Statesman. Notice. Notice is hereby given to all the people of Highland, Oregon, that if they present a post office longer than June 30, 1890 that they will find themselves a new post master or the post office will be discontinued for the old post master has resigned. G. WALLACE, P. M.

THE CANNERY.—The committee of the Board of Trade having in charge matters relative to the securing of a cannery here are pushing matters, having secured options to valuable property on the river front where it is proposed to erect suitable buildings for canning fish, fruit and vegetables and for making cider, pickles, vinegar and preserves, the capacity of the building to be such as will enable the operators to employ 350 hands when running at their full capacity. The committee feel the importance of their work and are pushing the work of getting the required bonds. NARROW GAUGE IRON.—It is stated on what seems to be good authority, says the Albany Herald, that the Oregonian, or Narrow Gauge railroad is to be well extended to a standard gauge road, and extended from Coburg to Springfield in Lane county. Some officials of the road have recently made a trip to the latter place, and it is believed by many that the plan is to extend the line up the middle fork of the Willamette, thence southeast across the mountains to a connection with the Central Pacific road. The new proprietors of the Narrow Gauge road certainly intend to improve it. BOAT SUNK.—One day last week the steamer Isabel sank in about twenty feet of water at Sellwood. She was at the dock loading with brick to be brought to Oregon City and had about 8000 aboard when they quit loading for the night. When the fireman got up the next morning to start the fires he found the fire pit flooded and the hold rapidly filling with water. The brick were at once thrown overboard, and soon after the boat went down. The brick were thrown overboard so as to make it possible to raise the steamer. The supposition is that when the tide ebbed in the night she rested on a snag which made a hole sufficient to sink her when the tide turned. KNOWN HERE.—The following notice refers to a young lady, formerly well known in Oregon City as Mrs. George LaRoque: Stella Chase Ainsworth is a California girl who came East last season to join Augustin Daly's company. Mr. Daly did not find a great deal of work for Miss Ainsworth, however. She is a pretty girl, and had made an admirable record for herself before she left the Pacific coast. Sooner or later, we presume, she will drift back to the land across the Divide. Somehow, the love of home is nowhere so strongly implanted as in the breasts of Californians. But Miss Ainsworth is one we least desire to see leaving us for the distant shore where lies her home. SHAKESPIREAN HOPES.—Mr. Ernest Hofer, late of McGregor, Iowa, has bought a half interest in the Capital Journal of Salem. We know Mr. Hofer of the McGregor News, a wide-awake republican paper. Mr. Hofer was considered one of the best editors in the "old Fourth" in Iowa and his paper was copied from copiously. As a republican he did excellent work for the party, and he could always be relied upon to advocate with a keen and logical pen the cause which he espoused. His work as a journalist, we believe, is of great advantage to the state in every way, and we are glad to welcome him to the land of wheat. CHINESE GAMBLING.—Since a couple of boys at Albany a few days ago made a big winning in a Chinese lottery a little investigation was made and it is discovered—a fact not generally known—that the various Chinese firms daily practice a species of gambling that finds many votaries among boys and men, as well as among the Mongolians themselves. The illustrations are intended to give the reader a correct idea of the plant or flower illustrated. The grossly exaggerated, absurd pictures which detract so many catalogues and reflect upon the integrity of those who issue them, do not appear in this. The first of potatoes is good, and several new kinds are offered, among them the Early Market. It is said to be of the Ohio class, and is especially recommended for early marketing as the quality is excellent in the early stages of growth or "unripe" condition. The entire catalogue is one that will repay the examination of its readers.—Rural New Yorker, New York, N. Y. Letter List. The following is a list of letters remaining in the postoffice at Oregon City, January 30, 1890: Brown, Vile Owens, Charles Ruth, Charley Quener, J. H. SELLING.—In Oregon City, January 24th, 1890, of erysipelas followed by pneumonia, Isaac Selling, aged 69 years, 2 months and 14 days. Mr. Selling was born in Germany and came to America 35 years ago. Two years later he married Barbetta Garde, in Sonora, California. Twenty-five years ago he moved to Oregon City and engaged in the mercantile business, which had grown to good proportions under his management. Three weeks prior to his death he was prostrated by an attack of erysipelas, from which he seemed in a fair way to recover, when pneumonia set in and he quietly passed away. He was laid to rest in the Jewish cemetery in Portland on Sunday. He leaves a wife and two children to mourn their loss.

Thirty degrees below zero in St. Paul last week. Whow! Sold Beck, a Portland Chinese merchant, was partly burned out last week. The Washington legislature has set February 27th as the date of adjournment. Ex-Senator Riddleberger died at his home in West Virginia last Saturday morning. Albany is appreciating the benefits of a free bridge and wants one across the river there. They ought to have it too. Eugene is after the dog tax. If the latter is not forthcoming the city is intimated with the dog without the tax. The parents of Kate and Hattie Mattson, who pilfered at Albany, intend to pay for all goods stolen by their daughters. Gideon S. Cox, a pioneer of 46, died near Silverton on the 17th inst. He was the father of seventeen children by one mother. The most remarkable cause of aneurysm on record has been accomplished by Hood's Sarsaparilla. Try it. Sold by all druggists. The Wasco Sun thinks from the amount of lying lying around loose about The Dalles that the devil must have his home in that locality. T. J. Bell was recently married to a Miss Beard. He is now known to have a family in Roseburg, and has been arrested at Albany for polygamy. An Oregon farmer netted from his Greening trees $7.50 each. At 70 trees this would return $525 for an acre planted to Greenings—always providing Senator Hermann has secured the passage through the house on a special bill on appropriation of $70000 for continuing the jetty work at the mouth of the Columbia. A North Dakota legislator has sought to make his name immortal by introducing in the legislature a bill designating "Flicker-tail" as the proper cognomen to be applied to all natives of that state. All right. Let her flicker. It is uncertain whether Chicago or New York secures the Great Exposition, but it is a positive fact that Binholder is the infallible remedy for all blood diseases, and is a safe, sure and reliable tonic. Sold by E. G. Cauffield. St. George, of Merry England, destroyed the fiery dragon, but the American champion carbolic acid conquers St. Anthony's fire, chills, frost bites, cuts, wounds and itching and irritating diseases. Sold by E. G. Cauffield. In another place the World says: "A senatorship has just been disposed of in Ohio. It cost the purchaser at least $500,000." Albany Democrat, Oregon City Courier, Portland World, Pendleton East Oregonian, et al. please copy.—Oregonian. Two girls, Kate and Hattie Mattson of Drain, Oregon, have been implicated in robbing families where they worked in Albany of goods of various kinds. They recently went home leaving two trunks to be sent after them. These were found filled with stolen goods. What enhances the beauty of fine features more than a clear skin? Even plain features are made attractive by a good complexion. To secure this, purify your blood with Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Price $1. Six bottles, $5. Worth 45 a bottle. Several democratic journals of Oregon have found fault with the Oregonian because it stated that the election of Brice in Ohio was brought about by corruption. Perhaps these journals would like to know what the democratic New York World says about it. After speaking of Brice as "a road wrecker" and "Wall street sharp" the World says: It is reported that the census taker of Mills City recently completed his rounds and figured out a population of 198. The next morning an excited citizen rushed into his presence and exclaimed "Say! Mister you will have to go your work all over again." "The old woman has twins, which makes just 200." We fear this was doubt to beat the census taker. St. Paul or Minneapolis would do well to import that family just before directory publishing time. The Oregon City papers are loud in their commendation of the efforts of a company to have the county court grant the right to lay a railway track across the free bridge over the Willamette at that place. And right they are too. The county built the free bridge and it should ever remain free—from any railway track. Oregon City boasts the only free bridge over the Willamette. Portland and East Portland, with all their wealth, should have long ere this built a free bridge across the Willamette at this point.—Vindicator. The above from the Albany Herald reminds us that the story is current that a short time since the agent of the Associate Press was out here and had planned to visit Astoria and make arrangements with the Astorian to have it take the press reports; but he was delayed over one boat in Portland by parties who hurried a man down to Astoria to buy the Transcript. Having completed his bargain with the Transcript, the same man met the agent of the Associate Press at the boat and contracted for the Press reports thus depriving the Astorian of the chance. If the story be true it was pretty well worked, and Astoria may be certain of a way up paper. Three young men started for a ranch in the coast range near the Eagle mills, in the mountains ten miles west of McMinnville last week, and entertained four feet of snow, and had a hard time to make any headway, after they had gotten well up in the mountains. Within a mile of their destination Jensen gave out, and his two companions had to drag him up to the house, they breaking through the snow every step and sinking in it up to their waists. It took them half a day to drag Jensen up, and when they got to the house he was senseless. They came down to the valley on snow shoes and experienced no trouble.—Reporter.
