Thought it Smelled.—Some months since a good farmer who lives not 1000 miles beyond the confines of Clackamas county was in Albina visiting a friend. Wishing to visit Portland he boarded an electric car, thrusting his pipe into his coat pocket as he did so. Very soon he began to smell something burning. This smell grew more and more noticeable as the car moved along. He thought is queer but concluded that it was a peculiarity of the electric cars, but presently his mind was disabused for the paper in his pocket burst into flames and he had to hustle himself to save the coat. His burning pipe had done the business. The next time he will not suspect the cars of smelling queer.

Surveying for a R.R.—Sidney Smyth went out to Mulino on Monday to run a preliminary survey up the Milk Creek Canyon tor a railroad. Mr. Howard believes that a practicable route exists and that it will touch Mulino and he proposes finding it.

The Circus.—McMahon's circus had just a fair crowd last Saturday afternoon, but in the evening the tent was crowded The performance was only fair and the side shows and gamesters had their usual run. The baloon ascension was very good as it ascended 1000 feet while the aeronaut turned and tumbled in the trapes. The landing was effected near Falls View addition, in safety.

The Baptist Entertainment.

At the Baptist social and entertainment last Friday evening they gave 25 cents worth of entertainment for the dime admission. The house was crowded, and an interesting literary programme given. Following is the programme given:

Recitation by Alta Porter.

Vocal Duet—by Mrs. Geo. Fuchs and Mrs. F. E. Donaldson.

Recitation, — entitled "Fifty Years Ago," by Kittie Koehler.

Song, "Twinkle, Twinkle little Star" by Katie Baird.

Violin Duet—by Messrs Fuchs and Dresser.

March — by the following named small girls: Ruth Cowing, Flora Chambers, Veda Williams, Nettie May, Pearl Meldrum, Hallie Mosier, Ella Hoberg, Dolly Cross, Janie Wilkinson, Ethel Walls, Hulda Holden, Cassie Eaton, Josie Clark, Maude Kennedy, Katie Baird and Myrtie Watson.

Vocal Duet — "Moonlight on the Rhine," by Miss Lottie Baird and Mr. Dresser.

Recitation—"Tax on Bachelors," by Jessie Porter.

Male Quartette—J. N. Graham, Jos., Will and Frank Aldridge.

Recitation—"Mary Garbin" by Mrs. W. T. Burney.

Instrumental Duet — Messrs Fuchs and Dresser.

Lack of space forbids our mentioning all as they deserve, but we deem Katie Baird's song, Mrs. Burney's recitation, Jessie Porter's recitation and the marching especially worthy of praise.

The social which followed was most decidedly a success, if a perfect babel of voices can be called such. The proceeds were nearly $40.

To the Service of God.

The new Congregational church in Oregon City was dedicated Sunday in the presence of a large crowded house. This church was begun over eight months ago, and has just been completed at a cost of $7425.

The building itself is a large and commodious wooden structure with a brick basement, the old church building being entirely remodeled and incorporated in the new structure in neat and harmonious blending, the whole having a seating capacity of 600. The main structure is a building 40x59.6, Gothic style of architecture, surmounted by a spire 102¼ feet in height.

The basement underneath this part is at present to be used only for a furnace room, but ultimately social parlors and kitchens will be furnished therein. The main audience room is seated with 201 assembly chairs, each seat costing $3.75. They are arranged in a segmentary form about the pulpit and choir stand which occupies one corner, and each tier back is raised on a regular slant above the one in front.

From the hall two entrances open to the main room, one to the suplementary audience room and one to the gallery, which is airy and pleasant, with a seating capacity of 150, each sitting of which commands full view and is within easy hearing of the pulpit.

THE OLD CHURCH STRUCTURE

Constitutes the supplementary audience room. When it is thrown open and is filled, as to-day, the congregation is arranged in the form of a semi-circle about the minister. This room is 26x50, and the total length of the structure over all 75 feet, and the width over all 59 feet. Back of the pulpit is a room to be used by the minister for his study and by the choir for a waiting room, while in the front hall is a neatly fitted up library room, for the use of the Sabbath school.

This church bears upon its corner stone the following inscription: 1844, 1889, the first date representing the year of the foundation of the first Congregational church in Oregon, and the latter the year of the building of the new edifice, which is erected as a memorial to Dr. G. H. Atkinson, whom Rev. T. E. Clapp in his dedicatory sermon styled "the foremost man in all Oregon," when death took him hence.

THE FINANCIAL STATEMENT.

The statement of the financial committee showed the total cost to be $7425. Indebtedness on church building, $1610 .36; indebtedness on chairs, $353. Total indebtedness $1963.46. Before the dedication of the building it was necessary to raise this sum. The following named persons contributed in amounts as follows: Ladies' Aid Society, $250; E. M. Atkinson, $100; Mrs. E. L. Eastham, $100; Mrs. C. F. Beattie, $100; W. T. Whitlock, $100, L. H. Andrews, $100, and H. E. Cross $100.

The balance was raised in amounts ranging from $50 down to $5, and an additional sum of over $225 was also pledged by subscription. The concluding gift came from the Baptist church, of this city, in the shape of an elegant pulpit Bible, which was presented by Rev. J. C. Read, pastor of the Baptist church, Rev. O. W. Lucas responded on behalf of the Congregational society of which he is pastor.

DEDICATORY SERVICES.

The ministers present and on the platform were Rev. T. E. Clapp, of Portland; C. F. Clapp, of Portland; D. B. Gray, of Salem; J. F. Waldrof, of Hillsboro; President J. F. Ellis, of Forest Grove, and the pastors of the city churches, Rev. J. C. Read, of the Baptist; Joseph Parsons, of the Methodist; G. W. Giboney of the Presbyterian and O. W. Lucas pastor of the Congregational Society making the dedication.

The choir for the occasion consisted of Mrs. F. F. White, organist, Mrs. E. L. Eastham, Mrs. C. O. Albright, Mrs. E. E. Charman, Mrs. D. E. Shepherd, Miss Dora Smith, Miss Kate Bonnett, Mr. G. H. Bestow and D. E. Shepherd.

THE PROGRAM.

The following is the program of the dedicatory services:

Sentence, "The Lord is in His Holy Temple," by the choir.

Invocation, Rev. Joseph Parsons, of the M. E. church.

Scripture reading from Mark 11, 1-2 and 7-17 inclusive; also from Timothy 1, iii, 1-7 and 14-15, by Professor J. F. Ellis.

Dedicatory hymn, announced by Rev. G. W. Giboney, of the Presbyterian church; title, "O, Thou, Whose Own Vast Temple Stands."

Prayer, by Rev. C. F. Clapp.

Anthem, by the choir, "O, Father, Let Thy Blessing Rest."

Dedicatory sermon, by Rev. T. E. Clapp, who took for his text these words from Luke vii, 5: "For he loveth our nation and hath built us a synagogue."

Financial statement, read by Rev. O. W. Lucas, chairman of the building committee.

Taking of pledges, amounting to $2200.

Dedicatory prayer, by Rev. J. F. Ellis.

Selection, "With Thankful Hearts, O, Lord, we Come," by Mrs. E. E. Charman, Mrs. F. F. White and G. H. Bestow.

Benediction, by Rev. Joseph Parsons.

The exercises were interesting and participated in by all the other Evangelical churches in the city, and by many persons from abroad, who had formerly lived here. Notable among the latter was Mrs. Mary A. Walker, of Forest Grove, who came to Oregon in 1838, and Mrs. G. H. Atkinson, wife of him who founded the church. Thoughts of the past and present could not be otherwise than strangely commingled, as one recognized in the congregation groups like unto this, the most striking illustration, Mrs. G. H. Atkinson, her son, E. M. Atkinson, and her grandson, all interested in the edifice being dedicated.

The dedicatory service is to be the initiatory of a series of revival meetings to be conducted by Rev. C. F. Clapp, superintendent of home missions.

Is Consumption Incurable?

Read the following: Mr. C. H. Morris, Newark, Ark., says: "Was down with Abscess of Lungs, and friends and physicians pronounced me an Incurable Consumptive. Began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, am now on my third bottle and able to oversee the work on my farm. It is the finest medicine ever made."

Jesse Middlewart Decatur, Ohio, says: Had it not been for Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption I would have died of Lung Troubles. Was given up by doctors. Am now in best of health." Try it. Sample bottle free at G. A. Harding's Drug Store.

No Bogus Stock.

Every one knows that there are several grades of almost all classes of goods, and that it is very easy for a merchant if he so disposed to shove off an inferior grade. Parties who desire to secure just what the goods are represented to be should trade at the Cash Grocery Store, where the proprietor prides himself on the quality of his goods and sells them for what they are Try it and you will be convinced that you are getting your money's worth.

The best place to buy your groceries is where you can get the best and freshest goods, and the most for your money. It is also important that you deal with a merchant whom you know to be square in all his dealing. Just such a place will you and at A. H. Fry, cash grocery house. Mr. Fry prides himself on his clean, pure and neat stock and takes pleasure in showing his customers what he has. It will pay you to call to-day and see him.

The value of a remedy should be estimated by its curative properties. According to this standard, Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best and most economical blood medicine in the market, because the most pure and concentrated. Price $1. Worth $5 a bottle.

A dry, hacking cough keeps the bronchial tubes in a state of constant irritation, which, if not speedily removed, may lead to bronchitis. No prompter remedy can bd had than Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which is both an an anodyne and expectorant.

A Fine Farm.

Stop! If you are wanting a fine farm, here is your chance. 160 acres, three miles from Oregon City, one mile from Clackamas Heights, where town lots are selling for $70 each. Good house, barn, woodshed, root house; 30 acres cleared. Good timber, near sawmill; well and springs never dry. Will sell farm, or farm and stock. For particulars call at this office.

Fine Farm! Fine Timber!

Any party desiring a bargain in acre property should inquire at once at this office for particulars. This a fine chance for some one with a few thousand who wishes to invest it where he is sure of quick and sure profits. The tract besides being convenient to Oregon City has large body of fine timber convenient to saw mill. The land in mostly level and rolling, is very rich and will make fine fruit farms. Will be not over 20 minutes walk from motor line now building.

The Best Company

Parties desiring to insure their property should always select a safe and reliable company with which to place their risks. Oregon is extremely fortunate in having such a company owned and operated by home capital and home men. It is wise and safer to encourage home institutions. Those who insure in the Columbia Fire Insurance company will be safe, will be sure of fair treatment and full pay in case of loss. For particulars inquire of T. L. Charman, agent.

Dissolution Notice.

The partnership hitherto existing between R. Glasspool and Phillipps Bros. has been dissolved this day, April 23rd, 1890, by mutual consent. All debts due will be collected by R. Glasspool only.
