

NEW!

GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS!

I have just opened a new strictly first class Gents' Furnishing Goods Establishment where may be found a Full Line of Choice Goods embracing all the Latest and Nobbliest Styles in my line. Call and See for yourself. I can suit you.

Gents Furnishing Goods.

Home Happenings.

Park Place is Popular Property.
Grant Bacon is on the sick list.
Do you want cedar posts? Call at this office.

L. Koval, of Portland was on the streets Monday.

C. O. Boynton, of Neddy, was in the city on Tuesday.

M. Parks is building a house near this side of "Kings city."

A Mr. Barker is building two cottages on the hill for rent.

E. L. Eastham went to Walla Walla Saturday on a business trip.

A. Walker has moved his paint shop to the old dry house building.

Mrs. H. C. Sloper was granted a divorce from her husband last week.

The case of Donaldson vs Glasspool was thrown out of court by Judge Taylor.

Olsen and Louis have a paint ad in this issue. You will find it on the second page.

Doris Bacon who has been sick with typhoid fever is able to be out again.

E. G. Caufield and wife took a flying trip to Soda Springs the last of the week.

Mrs. Harvey E. Cross has been suffering for some time with malarial fever and chills.

L. E. Salisbury has moved into the E. M. Atkinson's cottage on the Abberth.

Elder P. B. Williams has moved into a part of Mr. Wishart's house near the public school.

Revival meetings are continuing at the Baptist church during the week with a crowded house.

F. K. Arnold, and D. D. Oliphant, of Portland, were in the city last Tuesday on business.

At the Crown paper mill they are busy getting the timbers in place for the frame of the building.

E. E. Williams has moved his grocery store to the building formerly occupied by May & Cooks.

C. T. Merrill has purchased and moved into the house built by A. Walker above, H. Straights.

The stairs to Falls View have been completed and one can walk to the top of the hill and enjoy the walk.

E. M. Atkinson sold to F. F. and W. A. White on Monday a half block for relatives of those in the East.

Mrs. Welch has built a new fence around her property on Jefferson street and is otherwise improving it.

Mr. L. Schwabacher is having a room fitted up for his private use in the new building of Charman Bros. new building.

P. H. Crain and family have taken rooms in Charman's block, and are having them elegantly fitted up.

S. G. Schoonover has begun the manufacture of patent stone flues at the corner of Main and Eleventh streets.

Joe Harrington has moved to town and will soon build a house on the property he has purchased of Henry Jackson.

South Oregon City property is being pushed by the live agent, Jas. P. Shaw, who is running a huck line there.

A. D. Patrow has just finished painting his fence, and is now busy putting up a house which he is building to rent.

It was current on the streets last week that the Pioneer woolen mills of San Francisco are intending to locate in this city.

E. L. Eastham is employing a large force of men leveling off his grounds on the hill and building the best foundation walls in the city.

W. A. White is remodeling the plans for the M. E. church and putting them to the location and needs of the congregation in this city.

Max Ramsh, of Molalla, who was in town on Monday, says that there are hundreds of acres of grain in that locality that will never sprout till it rains.

George Ringeron's fine three year old, Harwood is in training at City View Park for the June races. The entry will be for three quarter mile or more.

There will be a lawn social at the residence of Capt. Shaw tomorrow, Friday evening, given for the benefit of the Y. P. S. C. E. of the Presbyterian church.

Mr. S. Swabacher and wife of Walla Walla were in town yesterday. Mr. Swabacher is vice president of the Crown Paper Co. and is on his way to Europe.

Walter Creelman, of Osage, Iowa, is visiting his cousin, Mrs. E. M. Rands. Mr. Creelman is very much pleased with the country and climate here and thinks of investing in town.

Bentley and Campbell are running the restaurant in the Clarke building they will soon start a bakery and for it and their grocery business will run a delivery wagon of their own.

The Daily and Sunday Oregonian will be delivered to subscribers in the city till after election for 30 cents a week. Get it and read all the news.

E. M. Rands, Agent.

J. L. Graham who had just moved his family from eastern Oregon had the misfortune to have a finger crushed and broken by a rock at the sulphite mill on Monday.

The report of the city collector shows collections for the year as follows: Water rents $1034.50; License $2633; Taxes $2671.11; Delinquent accounts $43. Total receipts $7281.61.

The Oregonian which comes up on the Latona on Sundays for the mail subscribers will be delivered to such subscribers as live within easy access immediately on the arrival of the boat.

E. M. Rands, Agent.

J. M. Drake, a pioneer of 52 and Geo. Burchett, a pioneer of 53 were called yesterday. The latter has done his part to settle up Oregon as he is the father of 13 children and the grand father of 27.

Mrs. Harriet Pease lies at the house of Thos. Pope in this city, stricken with paralysis. The stroke seems to be a mild one, yet on account of Mrs. Pease's infirmities and age it is feared that it may result fatally.

Mrs. Pease lies at the house of Thos. Pope in this city, stricken with paralysis. The stroke seems to be a mild one, yet on account of Mrs. Pease's infirmities and age it is feared that it may result fatally.

J. M. Drake, a pioneer of 52 and Geo. Burchett, a pioneer of 53 were called yesterday. The latter has done his part to settle up Oregon as he is the father of 13 children and the grand father of 27.

Mrs. Harriet Pease lies at the house of Thos. Pope in this city, stricken with paralysis. The stroke seems to be a mild one, yet on account of Mrs. Pease's infirmities and age it is feared that it may result fatally.

J. M. Drake, a pioneer of 52 and Geo. Burchett, a pioneer of 53 were called yesterday. The latter has done his part to settle up Oregon as he is the father of 13 children and the grand father of 27.

Mrs. Harriet Pease lies at the house of Thos. Pope in this city, stricken with paralysis. The stroke seems to be a mild one, yet on account of Mrs. Pease's infirmities and age it is feared that it may result fatally.

J. M. Drake, a pioneer of 52 and Geo. Burchett, a pioneer of 53 were called yesterday. The latter has done his part to settle up Oregon as he is the father of 13 children and the grand father of 27.

Mrs. Harriet Pease lies at the house of Thos. Pope in this city, stricken with paralysis. The stroke seems to be a mild one, yet on account of Mrs. Pease's infirmities and age it is feared that it may result fatally.

J. M. Drake, a pioneer of 52 and Geo. Burchett, a pioneer of 53 were called yesterday. The latter has done his part to settle up Oregon as he is the father of 13 children and the grand father of 27.

Mrs. Harriet Pease lies at the house of Thos. Pope in this city, stricken with paralysis. The stroke seems to be a mild one, yet on account of Mrs. Pease's infirmities and age it is feared that it may result fatally.

J. M. Drake, a pioneer of 52 and Geo. Burchett, a pioneer of 53 were called yesterday. The latter has done his part to settle up Oregon as he is the father of 13 children and the grand father of 27.

Mrs. Harriet Pease lies at the house of Thos. Pope in this city, stricken with paralysis. The stroke seems to be a mild one, yet on account of Mrs. Pease's infirmities and age it is feared that it may result fatally.

J. M. Drake, a pioneer of 52 and Geo. Burchett, a pioneer of 53 were called yesterday. The latter has done his part to settle up Oregon as he is the father of 13 children and the grand father of 27.

Mrs. Harriet Pease lies at the house of Thos. Pope in this city, stricken with paralysis. The stroke seems to be a mild one, yet on account of Mrs. Pease's infirmities and age it is feared that it may result fatally.

J. M. Drake, a pioneer of 52 and Geo. Burchett, a pioneer of 53 were called yesterday. The latter has done his part to settle up Oregon as he is the father of 13 children and the grand father of 27.

Mrs. Harriet Pease lies at the house of Thos. Pope in this city, stricken with paralysis. The stroke seems to be a mild one, yet on account of Mrs. Pease's infirmities and age it is feared that it may result fatally.

J. M. Drake, a pioneer of 52 and Geo. Burchett, a pioneer of 53 were called yesterday. The latter has done his part to settle up Oregon as he is the father of 13 children and the grand father of 27.

Mrs. Harriet Pease lies at the house of Thos. Pope in this city, stricken with paralysis. The stroke seems to be a mild one, yet on account of Mrs. Pease's infirmities and age it is feared that it may result fatally.

J. M. Drake, a pioneer of 52 and Geo. Burchett, a pioneer of 53 were called yesterday. The latter has done his part to settle up Oregon as he is the father of 13 children and the grand father of 27.

Mrs. Harriet Pease lies at the house of Thos. Pope in this city, stricken with paralysis. The stroke seems to be a mild one, yet on account of Mrs. Pease's infirmities and age it is feared that it may result fatally.

J. M. Drake, a pioneer of 52 and Geo. Burchett, a pioneer of 53 were called yesterday. The latter has done his part to settle up Oregon as he is the father of 13 children and the grand father of 27.

Mrs. Harriet Pease lies at the house of Thos. Pope in this city, stricken with paralysis. The stroke seems to be a mild one, yet on account of Mrs. Pease's infirmities and age it is feared that it may result fatally.

J. M. Drake, a pioneer of 52 and Geo. Burchett, a pioneer of 53 were called yesterday. The latter has done his part to settle up Oregon as he is the father of 13 children and the grand father of 27.

Mrs. Harriet Pease lies at the house of Thos. Pope in this city, stricken with paralysis. The stroke seems to be a mild one, yet on account of Mrs. Pease's infirmities and age it is feared that it may result fatally.

J. M. Drake, a pioneer of 52 and Geo. Burchett, a pioneer of 53 were called yesterday. The latter has done his part to settle up Oregon as he is the father of 13 children and the grand father of 27.

Mrs. Harriet Pease lies at the house of Thos. Pope in this city, stricken with paralysis. The stroke seems to be a mild one, yet on account of Mrs. Pease's infirmities and age it is feared that it may result fatally.

J. M. Drake, a pioneer of 52 and Geo. Burchett, a pioneer of 53 were called yesterday. The latter has done his part to settle up Oregon as he is the father of 13 children and the grand father of 27.

Mrs. Harriet Pease lies at the house of Thos. Pope in this city, stricken with paralysis. The stroke seems to be a mild one, yet on account of Mrs. Pease's infirmities and age it is feared that it may result fatally.

J. M. Drake, a pioneer of 52 and Geo. Burchett, a pioneer of 53 were called yesterday. The latter has done his part to settle up Oregon as he is the father of 13 children and the grand father of 27.

Mrs. Harriet Pease lies at the house of Thos. Pope in this city, stricken with paralysis. The stroke seems to be a mild one, yet on account of Mrs. Pease's infirmities and age it is feared that it may result fatally.

J. M. Drake, a pioneer of 52 and Geo. Burchett, a pioneer of 53 were called yesterday. The latter has done his part to settle up Oregon as he is the father of 13 children and the grand father of 27.

Mrs. Harriet Pease lies at the house of Thos. Pope in this city, stricken with paralysis. The stroke seems to be a mild one, yet on account of Mrs. Pease's infirmities and age it is feared that it may result fatally.

J. M. Drake, a pioneer of 52 and Geo. Burchett, a pioneer of 53 were called yesterday. The latter has done his part to settle up Oregon as he is the father of 13 children and the grand father of 27.

Mrs. Harriet Pease lies at the house of Thos. Pope in this city, stricken with paralysis. The stroke seems to be a mild one, yet on account of Mrs. Pease's infirmities and age it is feared that it may result fatally.

J. M. Drake, a pioneer of 52 and Geo. Burchett, a pioneer of 53 were called yesterday. The latter has done his part to settle up Oregon as he is the father of 13 children and the grand father of 27.

Mrs. Harriet Pease lies at the house of Thos. Pope in this city, stricken with paralysis. The stroke seems to be a mild one, yet on account of Mrs. Pease's infirmities and age it is feared that it may result fatally.

J. M. Drake, a pioneer of 52 and Geo. Burchett, a pioneer of 53 were called yesterday. The latter has done his part to settle up Oregon as he is the father of 13 children and the grand father of 27.

Mrs. Harriet Pease lies at the house of Thos. Pope in this city, stricken with paralysis. The stroke seems to be a mild one, yet on account of Mrs. Pease's infirmities and age it is feared that it may result fatally.

J. M. Drake, a pioneer of 52 and Geo. Burchett, a pioneer of 53 were called yesterday. The latter has done his part to settle up Oregon as he is the father of 13 children and the grand father of 27.

Mrs. Harriet Pease lies at the house of Thos. Pope in this city, stricken with paralysis. The stroke seems to be a mild one, yet on account of Mrs. Pease's infirmities and age it is feared that it may result fatally.

J. M. Drake, a pioneer of 52 and Geo. Burchett, a pioneer of 53 were called yesterday. The latter has done his part to settle up Oregon as he is the father of 13 children and the grand father of 27.

Mrs. Harriet Pease lies at the house of Thos. Pope in this city, stricken with paralysis. The stroke seems to be a mild one, yet on account of Mrs. Pease's infirmities and age it is feared that it may result fatally.

J. M. Drake, a pioneer of 52 and Geo. Burchett, a pioneer of 53 were called yesterday. The latter has done his part to settle up Oregon as he is the father of 13 children and the grand father of 27.

Mrs. Harriet Pease lies at the house of Thos. Pope in this city, stricken with paralysis. The stroke seems to be a mild one, yet on account of Mrs. Pease's infirmities and age it is feared that it may result fatally.

J. M. Drake, a pioneer of 52 and Geo. Burchett, a pioneer of 53 were called yesterday. The latter has done his part to settle up Oregon as he is the father of 13 children and the grand father of 27.

Mrs. Harriet Pease lies at the house of Thos. Pope in this city, stricken with paralysis. The stroke seems to be a mild one, yet on account of Mrs. Pease's infirmities and age it is feared that it may result fatally.

J. M. Drake, a pioneer of 52 and Geo. Burchett, a pioneer of 53 were called yesterday. The latter has done his part to settle up Oregon as he is the father of 13 children and the grand father of 27.

Mrs. Harriet Pease lies at the house of Thos. Pope in this city, stricken with paralysis. The stroke seems to be a mild one, yet on account of Mrs. Pease's infirmities and age it is feared that it may result fatally.

J. M. Drake, a pioneer of 52 and Geo. Burchett, a pioneer of 53 were called yesterday. The latter has done his part to settle up Oregon as he is the father of 13 children and the grand father of 27.

Mrs. Harriet Pease lies at the house of Thos. Pope in this city, stricken with paralysis. The stroke seems to be a mild one, yet on account of Mrs. Pease's infirmities and age it is feared that it may result fatally.

J. M. Drake, a pioneer of 52 and Geo. Burchett, a pioneer of 53 were called yesterday. The latter has done his part to settle up Oregon as he is the father of 13 children and the grand father of 27.

Mrs. Harriet Pease lies at the house of Thos. Pope in this city, stricken with paralysis. The stroke seems to be a mild one, yet on account of Mrs. Pease's infirmities and age it is feared that it may result fatally.

J. M. Drake, a pioneer of 52 and Geo. Burchett, a pioneer of 53 were called yesterday. The latter has done his part to settle up Oregon as he is the father of 13 children and the grand father of 27.

Mrs. Harriet Pease lies at the house of Thos. Pope in this city, stricken with paralysis. The stroke seems to be a mild one, yet on account of Mrs. Pease's infirmities and age it is feared that it may result fatally.

J. M. Drake, a pioneer of 52 and Geo. Burchett, a pioneer of 53 were called yesterday. The latter has done his part to settle up Oregon as he is the father of 13 children and the grand father of 27.

Mrs. Harriet Pease lies at the house of Thos. Pope in this city, stricken with paralysis. The stroke seems to be a mild one