The Salem brought down to the mill Saturday from Eldridge's warehouse, 2,400 sacks of flour.

A good sized raft of logs was brought down to the pulp-mill by the Manzanillo Wednesday morning.

G. W. Fisk, Molalla, is confined to his bed with sickness, but indications point to his early recovery.

Father Hillbrand has had the walk opposite Catholic square, put into good shape. It is much improved.

Recorder Johnson made happy with his usual documents this week, Mrs. Schmidt and Kurt Vonstauffer; Olena M. Oren and A. L. Larkins.

Rev. Father Hillbrand received for Christmas a beautiful murex pearl presented to him by his congregation. He is much pleased with the memento of their appreciation of his good work.

Hugh Miller, of Eagle Creek, was arrested last week by Deputy Morris for stealing some underclothing from a Mr. Ramo. He was put under $25 bonds to appear before Justice Fouts today (Friday).

Two couples were united in holy wedlock by Justice Fouts on Tuesday. They were Olena M. Oren to A. L. Larkins, both of Clackamas county, and Mrs. Pauline Schmidt, of this county to Kurt Von Stauffer, of Louisiana.

Married in Oregon City, Oregon, Jan. 7th 1903, at the residence of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Norris, by Rev. O. W. Lucas, Mr. Dadd D. Shindler of Portland, and Miss Daisy E. Diller, of Oregon City.

On the afternoon of New Year's the Catholic school enjoyed themselves at a social tea given by Rev. Father Hillbrand. All had a jolly good time, and they will probably hold long remembrance of Father Hillbrand for the same.

Deputy Morris was circulating among McLainites a few days last week. He reports farmers lately over the advent of sufficient rain to permit of their putting in their crops, and they are therefore busy, Oregon and Clackamas county against the world.

D. N. Trullinger expects soon to leave for the Sound country, whether he goes in quest of work. Mr. T. is said to be a first class mill man, and if he does not succeed in getting a position it will be through no fault of his own. Success to him is the wish of his many friends.

J. Slover, sexton of the city cemetery left last week with his wife for Valley Springs, Santa Clara county, Cal., where he will spend a couple of months for the benefit of his health. During his absence Capt. F. W. W. will have charge of the cemetery.

A basket social will be given at the Baptist church Thursday evening January 15, by L. C. Driggs' class. A short literary program will be rendered after which the baskets will be auctioned off to the highest bidder. Admission 10 cents.

Wm. Lovridge, of Molalla, killed thirteen geese on New Year's, which averaged 120 pounds each, and were but eight months old. This is a good shoo, but it only adds to the fact that Mr. Lovridge's reputation for raising good porkers, as he is listed among the best in the country.

There is claimed to be living in Lac Qui Parle county, Minnesota, the oldest married couple in the world in the persons of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Salinger. Mr. S. has just celebrated his 103rd birthday and his wife lacks but a week of being 101 years old, and they have been married 50 years. The couple are certainly desirous to live and attend the World's fair.

The residence of J. M. Bacon as postmaster of this place was sent in last Monday, and accepted. Inspector Monroe, of Portland, came in on Tuesday, and found the accounts of the office all right. E. M. Kamin is acting as postmaster until the appointment of Mr. Bacon's successor takes place.

The steamer Champion, Capt. Miles Bell, sunk Wednesday morning while on her down trip from Wientland. She was loaded with 2,000 sacks of wheat and went down opposite Lambert, a bar in six feet of water. The cargo was saved and uninjured, but it is probable that the old boat will come up and will be placed with a broken back and will be placed among her many discarded sisters who serve their purpose long since and are now lying forsaken and forgotten in the Portland barge-yards.

J. M. Mover & Co., corner of First and Morrison, Portland, goods furnishers, was followed with a check by a dealer who had a broken back and will be placed among her many discarded sisters who serve their purpose long since and are now lying forsaken and forgotten in the Portland barge-yards.

The Manzanillo was at Salem again yesterday and left shortly after noon for Oregon City, having gone up to the Willamette Pulp company's logging headquarters on the Siskiyou and taken in tow a large raft of cottonwood logs. These logs are to be manufactured into paper at Oregon City, and in this towing service Capt. Smith will be engaged with the Manzanillo this season, landing all freight tendered him as he makes the trip up the river and down. This steamer will make about two round trips weekly making landings at Salem going each way.—Statesman.

A local camp of the Modern Woodmen of the World will be organized in the Odd Fellows Hall, this city, on Saturday night, and Mr. W. A. Rampion, of Portland, special deputy head consul of that order, will be in charge. It is sufficient to say that the organization is well organized. Considerable interest is manifested among the business men concerning the new lodge, and we believe it will have a large membership. Those who are desirous of becoming charter members should not fail to be present Saturday night. It is strictly a benevolent fraternity, and inquiry has led us to believe that it is much above the average.

S. W. Hardesty, of Molalla Corners, has disposed of his store to Levi Robbins & Son. Mr. Hardesty will hereafter devote his attention to his store at Need, where he is well known and where he has many friends and a large patronage. Mr. Robbins needs no introduction, especially to the older residents of Clackamas county, for for many years he has been one of its prominent residents. His son, who will soon arrive from Corvallis, will have the business management of the store, which is sufficient assurance that it will gain popularity. The ENTERPRISE wishes both the new and old firm unlimited success.
