Interested parties are about to petition the St. Helens council for a franchise for a city waterworks.

In Eugene a fire that has been going on since the morning has been extinguished. $11,000 has been destroyed.

The Independence postoffice is now graced by 150 handsome new lock boxes, and the city supports twenty arc and 150 incandescent electric lights.

Peach trees all around Walla Walla are budding out and fruit men are fearful that a sharp frost will spoil their hopes for a bountiful crop next summer.

The ice crops at North Yakima was cut when it had reached the thickness of seven inches, and enough was secured to last that city throughout the summer.
