The new wheel for the city pump is now being put in. Plenty of water in two weeks. Mr. A. B. Nelson commences a five months term of school next Monday in the Bar district, near Needy.

For bargains in notions, toilet articles, fancy goods and toys go to the Bargain store, old McCarver building. United States Marshal L. T. Barin, was in the city visiting friends and on business a few days the first of the week.

Mr. Chas. Holman, one of Clackamas county's prominent farmers, spent a few hours in town the first of the week. At the residence of Capt. Colton, Feb. 18, 1891, Mr. Abies Williams to Miss Estella Colton, Rev. C. Anderson, officiating.

A new cross-walk has been put down across the street in front of Charman's drug store. It is a much needed improvement. Mr. R. A. Jones, mineral expert for the Union Pacific railroad, was in Oregon City Monday.

Miss Maud Pope, of Portland, has been in the city for several days visiting Miss Eda Pope. Mr. A. J. Carson, who had a stroke of paralysis some time since, has recovered sufficiently to be able to get about his room.

Everything cheap at the Bargain Store. Linens, fabrics, silks, toilet articles, toys, notions, tinware, glassware, etc., from 5 cents up. Until further notice, Jas. P. Shaw will have his office in the rear of the Commercial Bank, where he can be found during business hours.

The water in the Willamette raised ten inches above high water mark last Tuesday. Heavy snow and rain falls in the mountains caused it. Jas. Welch, a pioneer resident of Damascus, died last Monday of inflammation of the bowels. His funeral took place at the cemetery on Wednesday.

It is reported that a lot of French Macquerons, are killing robins and other birds by the score, near the half way house on the macadam road. The free mail delivery for East Portland has been delayed until July 1st on account of the lack of sufficient room for the handling of the mails.

A lengthy communication was received the first of the week from Oswego, under the title of "The Jail Breakers in Oswego," which was unavoidably crowded out.

The new machine of the W. P. & P. Co., did not get working on March 1st, as the boiler in the boiler is in readiness. It will be at work, however, in about two weeks. Since the five foot book and ladder boys expressed themselves as more than satisfied with their old truck, they are not likely to get a new one.

Mr. James Nicholson, of Highland, has been in the city Tuesday. Mr. Nicholson, who recently fell and broke her arm, is improving under the care of Dr. Goucher. Andrew Foley, an employee of the paper mills got on a "tear" last week and was escorted to the cooler by Officer Kelley. Recorder Porter fined him $10 the 4th day following.

Chas. Albright is the happiest butcher in all Oregon. It is all on account of a new machine that he has just received. It is a new machine that he has just received. It is a new machine that he has just received.

Astoria has a new evening paper, the Bulletin, which made its appearance last Sunday. It is published by a combination of the late Col. C. E. Meacham, who has purchased a new plant and start out under a very favorable auspices.

Mr. F. Selling, one of the leading capitalists of Portland, accompanied by his wife was in the city Wednesday visiting relatives. He is an uncle of Mr. I. Selling, one of our leading merchants.

Owing to the limited space in the Enterprise this week, a number of communications were crowded out, and others curtailed. The Enterprise will soon be enlarged to eight pages, when it is hoped there will be no lack of space for anything that comes in.

At the annual school meeting held in Canby, last Monday, Clerk (Gonz.) Green, who has served as district clerk for the past year, was elected director to fill the expired term of Fred Raphael, and Wm. Higgins was elected clerk. A 24 mill tax was levied to provide a sinking fund to erect a new school building.

The death of Mr. Jas. Welch, of Damascus, is among the saddest events, which we are called upon to chronicle this week. He took his departure from this world, on Monday, at the age of 65 years, and his remains were interred two days later at the Damascus cemetery. Every sympathy is extended his bereaved and sorrow stricken family.

People owning property on business streets might as well commence making arrangements for putting down substantial sidewalks—something that meets the demands of the public, as it is more than probable that an ordinance under the new charter will be enacted, compelling them to do it. At least three ought to be.

Whitney Palache, adjuster of claims of the Hartford Insurance Company for the state of Oregon, is looking in on Idaho, has the distinction of being the first special insurance agent on the grounds after the fire and assisted H. E. Cross, agent of the same company, in looking up Mr. Livermore's claim of $1250 against the company. The amount is to be paid in full.

Mrs. G. C. Bacon, of this city, was suddenly called to Vancouver two weeks ago, owing to the severe illness of her son, Mr. Edw. Sparks, at that place. It gives us to say that after a short illness, Mr. Sparks passed away, leaving a sorrow-stricken family to mourn the loss of their only son. A poor, devoted mother, and a member of the G. A. R. The citizens of Oregon City extend to Mr. and Mrs. Bacon their heartfelt sympathies in their great loss.

"New girl, Saturday morning, ten pence" was the happy intimation given by a reporter upon accounting the tidings of the wedding of Miss R. The citizens of Oregon City extend to Mr. and Mrs. Bacon their heartfelt sympathies in their great loss.

The death of Mr. Dave Biller, of Mt. Pleasant, occurred on Friday, of last week, at 3:30 o'clock, aged 30 years and six months. The funeral services took place Sunday, Rev. F. Reichle, of Portland, officiating. Mr. Biller was an energetic and successful business man, and his death is a great loss to his family.

County Assessor Noble commences the work of assessment this week. His assistants are J. W. Wetters, of Canby, and J. B. Bowers, of Marquam. Mr. Wetters was formerly an assessor in the East, and is well qualified for the work. He will have the territory north of the Jackson and Mr. Bowers, who has superior qualifications for the position, will have all the territory south of the Molalla, while Mr. Noble will have immediate charge of the territory between.

Warren & Holman fitted Mr. F. D. Austin, of Park Place out with a nice lot of household furniture the first of the week and that gentleman in his home are now keeping house at Park Place.
