

Oregon Statesman AND UNIONIST.

SALEM, FRIDAY, : : : OCT. 1.

THE CITY AND COUNTRY.

Thursday, Sept. 30. Another lot of those large melons at Crawford & Wright's.

Messrs. Cox & Earhart have Clover Seed, Blue Grass Seed and chopped wheat advertised for sale.

Salt by the sack full, and all sizes of sacks, are for sale by Messrs. Crawford & Wright, Liverpool salt, butter salt and stock salt.

Who ever took an "Overland Monthly" from this office last week, is requested to return the same, as we want a chance to read it.

Early last evening a terrific gust swept over Salem, so we judge, because one of its results was to tear off the skylight of our composing room, and shatter things considerably.

Dr. M. B. Ling's card is in our columns to-day. He wants the people to understand that he is a permanent fixture in the city of Salem.

We hear that the farmers of Yamhill and Polk counties will attend the State Fair, almost to a man, if the weather shall prove good.

Cox & Earhart have another lot of grapes from Butteville, and different varieties from any brought before. Some of the bunches brought for one share weighed two pounds. Just think of that.

David Cole, opposite us, on Commercial Street, has a store full of stoves and more coming. Pumps and pipes, bottles and kettles, etc. All these things and everything in his line Cole has, and will surely sell.

PARADES.—Gov. Woods, yesterday, paraded John Fitzgibbon, of Douglas county, on a petition signed by six hundred citizens and most of the members of the Legislature. Many persons who had remonstrated before, now recommend his release. Fitzgibbon went home by stage last evening.

HELD TO ANSWER.—A young man, named Brunnerman, who has been living with Mr. Cole, of Polk county, was arrested near Eola last week, on a complaint charging him with stealing about $175. He had his examination yesterday, and was held to answer at the next term of the Circuit Court. The money was taken from Mr. Cole.

AT GRISWOLD'S THEATER.—To-night, will be produced the charming play of the Honey-moon, under the auspices of Mr. Carter, who has been at great pains to select a good company for a theatrical campaign in Oregon. Mr. Carter expects to occupy Mr. Reed's new Theater during the Fair week, if it can be fitted for use by that time, for which great efforts are being made.

APPEALS FOR CHICAGO.—Messrs. Cox & Earhart are shipping a small lot of apples to Chicago. They are of choice varieties, and put up in the best possible manner. They also send a small lot to Fort Peterman, Wyoming Territory. We believe this to be the beginning of a large trade of that kind in the new Territory.

LARGE WATERMELONS.—We are assured by a gentleman who says he takes great pleasure in reading our accounts of fine fruit and vegetables, that very delicious melons are abundant at the seed garden of Mr. O. Dickinson, which weigh from thirty to forty pounds. Mr. Dickinson, near the spot of those fine melons to sell next year, our readers must remember that fact.

SENATOR CORBETT INFORMS.—We are expected to start overland to California, on his return to Washington, the 11th of October. He will probably remain over a day or so at Salem to attend the State Fair, and then proceed on his journey. Our people are fortunate in having in Senator Corbett, a representative of the best interests of our State, and one who will spare no effort to advance the public and private interests committed to his care.

WINE IN OREGON.—Mr. Mathias has visited Salem with another wagon load of those delicious grapes, much to the satisfaction of the lovers of fine fruit, and we learn from him that his father is engaged in manufacturing wine in considerable quantities. The elder Mr. Mathias and all his ancestors in France, were makers of wine, and he gives it as his opinion, that as good wine can be made in Oregon as at the best French vineyard, and that we can excel California for the reason that the Oregon raised grapes makes a wine with excellent " bouquet," a requisite for the production of fine wine, and one lacking in the California product. Our lucky neighbor will have to look out for her laurels, or Oregon will excel her yet.

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 29. LINN COUNTY FAIR.—We learn by telegraph that the managers have postponed this Fair for one day, on account of bad weather. It will close on Saturday instead of Friday.

THE SUPREME COURT will hardly finish the work before it is present session, unless the term is extended to the coming week. Judge Kelsey has left, and only three Judges will remain after to-day.

HARPER'S MONTHLY Magazine for October, comes to us from the publishers with the usual amount of reading matter, plenty of illustrations and as many anecdotes as ever. Its other periodical can take the place of Harper's in public estimation.

THE RAIN has taken a fresh lull on us the last day or so, but the appearance last evening favored a pleasant spell again. Our motto is, "Let us have Peace" among the elements for awhile.

THE ALBANY DAILY Register came to hand yesterday, Tuesday's issue. The Democrat failed the get into the mail in as good season as the day before. We are, fortunately, able to give an interesting correspondence from Albany, written Tuesday evening.

CROWDED OUT.—The following idea are crowded out this morning, but will appear tomorrow. Gilbert Bros. announce a large stock of boots and shoes for fall styles, and Mrs. Howell that she is receiving fall styles of millinery, which the ladies will be glad to hear.

QUEER ILL.—We regret to learn that Mr. Beriah Brown, of the Democratic Press, who has been suffering from attacks of ague, was yesterday in a very dangerous condition, even to the point of death, but is now beyond recovery. His attack, we hear, was something like congestive chills. Last evening he was considered better.

NOTARIES APPOINTED.—The following names of persons have been commissioned as Notaries Public, during the past two weeks: E. L. Pothole, Wasco county; Luther B. Leon, Baker county; T. M. Patton, Marion county.

THEATICAL.—The play of the Honey-moon ranks as one of the most beautiful and attractive in the range of English comedy. A noble Duke and his friend with the affections of two sisters. The Duke's bride is proud and overbearing, she takes her to a peasant home, denies his dukedom and spends the honeymoon in overcoming her pride and inducing her to love him as a peasant instead of as a Prince. This beautiful play was most successfully rendered last evening by the Carter Company, at Griswold's Theater. The principal parts of the Duke and his bride, were well acted by Mr. and Mrs. Carter, sustained throughout by the Company. Carrie Carter, as Juliana, made a successful debut in the difficult part of the proud, spoilt beauty, changing from the arrogant bride to the loving wife. She must prove a favorite with all Oregon audiences. Nellie Cummings is one of the most charming unassuming actresses that ever visited our State. Mr. Wm. Barry, as James, personating the Duke, by his efforts, in his absence, was inimitable. There is no reason why Mr. Carter, with these excellent leading artists and a good company to aid them, should not command the respect and patronage of all lovers of theatricals. To-night, Buller's great play, the Lady of Lyons, will be played at the same place, and we bespeak for it a better audience—it can not be more appreciative than that of one last night. It is not to the credit of any place that it will turn out ten times as many to attend a circus tent and listen to the low jests of a clown as to witness an excellent representation of some of the most classic plays in our language. We unhesitatingly pronounce the Carter troupe a success. There are some prejudices against Griswold's Hall, but they are unfounded. The building is made as safe as possible, and never showed any signs of wanting strength at any time since its erection.

Tom Thumb and Commodore Nutt are coming to Oregon with their families. These eminent personages are disposed to see the world, and to see Oregon. A correspondent writes us that they will be at Salem October 15th, just in time to attend the State Fair and compete for premiums. They make a most agreeable exhibition, and no doubt our people will invest many a dollar in seeing the world renowned dwarfs.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 1. MARRIED.—In Salem, Sept. 29th, Samuel Runlett and Miss Harriet Gesner.

SIX-TENTHS of an inch of rain has fallen in Salem since Monday.

THE LAST rains have raised the river at this point two feet and eight inches.

THE PLASTERERS have commenced work on Reed's Theater. The first coat was put on yesterday.

WHAT IS THE SUREST remedy for itching scalp, and remove dandruff from the head? Hall's Vegetable Sulfur Hair Renewer.

GOV. WOODS has appointed Messrs. A. J. Dufur and Wm. M. Hand, delegates to the National Capital Convention, to be held at St. Louis, October 29th. This makes the Oregon delegation complete.

SPIRITUAL MEETING.—Mr. Benjamin Todd will deliver his first lecture in Oregon, on the subject of Spiritualism, on Sunday evening, Oct. 31, at the Court House, in Salem, at 7 o'clock.

MR. J. W. SOUTHER, late of Corvallis, who he has been in active business for twelve years, has purchased the drug store of Geo. A. Eades & Co., removed with his family to this place, and will continue to carry on business at the same stand. Mr. Southern has been in the drug business for twenty years, and contemplates becoming a permanent citizen of Salem.

JOHN F. MILLER, Esq., started yesterday for Portland, intending to go overland through Idaho, East. Gov. Woods has appointed Capt. Miller a delegate to represent Oregon in the Commercial Convention, to be held in Louisville, Kentucky, October 12th. He will take a sample of goods to Oregon, and to show what we are doing in this State, in the way of manufacture. He also expects to attend the National Capital Convention at St. Louis.

EXERCISE LIBERALLY.—The most successful branch of the Oregon Children's Aid Society seems to be located in Linn county. Mrs. Menhall, of Albany is Vice President, and the ladies of Linn, under her efficient lead, are accomplishing a great deal for the Orphan's Home, by collecting articles to sell and provisions to be used at the Fair, week after next, at which, our readers will recollect, the ladies are to have a sales room and restaurant kept open for the benefit of their favorite enterprise, the Children's Home.

OREGON ORPHAN'S HOME.—Those who are interested in the Orphan's cause, must bear in mind that the ladies are intending to keep open a house for refreshments, good meals, etc., at the Fair Grounds during the Fair week. They expect to have a square table fully staffed with public patronage, especially in view of the fact that all their labors will be gratuitous and the entire proceeds are to be devoted to the Orphan Asylum. Those who are willing to contribute provisions will render material help by bringing them to help reduce expenditures and swell receipts. All can afford to do something for so good a cause.

THEATER.—Last evening the Lady of Lyons was performed by the Carter Troupe, with great success; the difficult part of Pauline, the Lady of Lyons, being sustained by Mrs. Carter, who has the ability to fill quite a wide range of character. Mr. Carter renders the part of Claude Melnotte, very successfully. Mr. Forbes made his first appearance, and Mr. Barry, as usual, was well received. This evening the grand drama of Lucretia Borgia will be performed by the entire company. It is doubtless if as large a company and so generally excellent, ever performed in Salem before.

THE ALABAMA CLAIMS are now up again for adjustment, and the British government has expressed its desire of an arbitration. Among the claims persistently pressed, are those of the ever-present and active J. C. Ayer & Co., for the value of shipments of Cherry Footed, Saragassilla, Agave Care, and Pills, in transit for Oregon, Vancouver's Island and Russian America, destroyed on the Anna Schmidt off the coast of South America. So universal is the use of their remedies, that they are adored on almost every sea; and this firm is frequently caught between the upper and nether millstones of contending nations. But they are known to stand up for their rights, and to get them. (Republican, Washington, D. C.)

FRUIT TREES AND THEIR MANAGEMENT.

1. When fruit trees occupy the ground nothing else should—except very short grass. 2. Fruitfulness and growth of the tree cannot be expected the same year. 3. Peach borers will not do much damage when still left in a heap up around the tree a foot high. 4. Pear blight still puzzles the greatest men. The best remedy known is to plant two for every one that dies. 5. If you don't know how to prune, don't hire a man from the other side of the sea that knows less than you do. 6. Don't cut off a big lower limb unless you are a renter, and don't cure what becomes of the tree when you are gone. 7. A tree with limbs coming out near the ground is worth two trees trimmed up five feet, and worth four trees trimmed up ten feet, and so on till they are not worth anything. 8. Trim down, not up. 9. Shorten in, not lengthen up. 10. If you had your arm cut off you would feel it to your heart—a tree will not feel, but rot to the heart. 11. When anybody tells you of a gardener that understands all about horticulture and agriculture, and that he can help you, don't believe a word of it, for there are no such to be had. Such a man can make more than you can afford to give him, and it he has sense enough to understand the business, he will also have enough to know this.

ANTI-MARRIAGE.—It is about five years since "Gail Hamilton" wrote that marriage is the grave of love, and advocated a larger liberty for women in getting out of its bonds. Now, we see it stated there is published in Chicago a large weekly journal avowedly devoted to the abolition of marriage and the substitution of the large sex license. The contributors to this journal are generally women, and they teach that marriage is contrary to the whole spirit of the age.—N. Y. Observer.

A GOOD REASON.—A Missourian informed a traveler, who had inquired about corn; that 'twas stalk had nine ears on it; and was fifteen feet high. "That's nothing to our corn," replied the traveler. "Up in Illinois, where I came from, we always had nine ears to each stalk and a peck of shelled corn hanging to each tassel; but we never could raise any field-beans with it." "Why?" asked the other. "Because the corn grew so fast as to dull the beans up."

HAVE YOU A SISTER? Then love and cherish her with a holy friendship. If you have not a sister of your own, love somebody else's sister.

DAILY DESERT.—We received promptly yesterday morning, in time for breakfast, the daily Democrat, printed during Linn county Fair week. It is small but well filled with reading matter and items of Fair interest.

COMMERCIAL NEWS. Salem, Friday, Oct. 1, 1892. Business is generally good in Salem. The merchants have their fall stocks and retail quite brisk. The wheat market is again depressed by low quotations from Liverpool, where wheat has once more fallen to 10c. The English harvests are pronounced excellent.
