SALEM, FRIDAY.:::::MAY 6

TELEGRAPHIC SUMMARY.

Arrest of Desperadoes

Louisville, Ky., April 28.—At Glasgow Junction, while the Sheriff and posse were attempting to arrest two desperadoes named Shives, one of them fired, mortally wounding two of the most estimable citizens of the county, and then escaped. The citizens turned out, hunted them down with dogs, and captured both, who were placed in the Glascow jail. The excitement is intense and there is a probability that the prisoners will be taken from the officers and hanged.

Indian War.

Chicago, April 28.—A special says the long anticipated trouble between the settlers on the Osage lands and the Osage Indians has broken out. The Indians attacked the settlers near Independence, on Friday, and wounded two whites, who resisted. The disturbance was temporarily quelled by Friend Gibson, Agent of the Osages. The military were called out and eighteen families driven out of the country.

The Thirteenth and a portion of the Seventeenth regiment of Infantry passed through here this morning enroute for the scene of Indian bostilities in Dakotah, where information from Gen. Stanley, pointing to a disposition on the part of the Brulle Sioux to engage in a general war. Gen. Sheridan goes west next week, personally, to inspect the situation.

The bill which passed the House yesterday, relieving a few persons in Texas of political disabilities, created something of a scene. The persons relieved are State officers elect, and as the Governor is to be inaugurated and the government set up to-morrow, it was considered necessary to pass the bill immediately.

Terrible Accident at Richmond.

Richmond, Va., April 27.—A large crowd assembled this morning at the upper room of the Capitol building, where the Supreme Court is situated, to hear the decision in the Mayoralty case. About 11 o'clock the floor gave way beneath the dense weight, precipitating the crowd to the floor below, which was that of the House of Delegates. It is hard at present to ascertain the extent of injuries, so great is the excitement, but some are killed, and a large number severely injured. Many escaped the terrible fall by jumping into windows when the floor gave way. At a later hour it was ascertained that among the killed were: P. H. Aylette, a distinguished lawyer, Dr. J.B. Brock, the reporter of the Examiner, Samuel Eaton, Clerk to Mayor Cahoon, Capt. W. A. Charters, Chief of Fire Department, N. P. Howard, lawyer, A. Sevy, merchant, Charls Watson, Hugh Hutchinson, A. Webb, and a brother of General Schofield, P.H. Laury, jr., Senator Bland (colored), and Powhattan Roberts. It is supposed that 20 members of the Legislature are killed and wounded. Judges of Appeals all escaped unhurt. Ex-Gov. Wells is badly injured, and also T. H. Chandler, counsel for Cahoon, and James Mason and Judge Meredith, counsel for Ellison. About 200 persons are hurt by the accident. The greatest excitement prevails, and hundreds of persons are in Capitol Square, weeping and wailing as the dead and dying are brought from the building. Gov. Walker escaped unhurt, though on the court room floor at the time.

Richmond, April 28.—Last night a great meeting of Cahoon and Ellison police was held, at which resolutions of respect were adopted to the memory of the decessed, and that both parties turn out and participate in the funeral ceremonies To-day business will be suspended, so that every citizen may attend the funeral. It is needless to say that no decision has been rendered in the Mayoralty case, and it is now doubtful when it will be delivered.

Both branches of the General Assembly held a session at the Exchange Hotel, merely meeting and adjourning till to-day at noon, to avoid any interruption to the proceedings.

It is believed the Capitol will now be abandoned as a public institution. It was built in 1792. The appaling calamity is much greater than yet reported. The number of killed will reach over 60, and the wounded is known to be over 200. The scenes of despair and anguish in the vicinity are heart-rending beyond description, and dark mourning covers the whole city.

Washington, April 28.—Private telegrams from Richmond say the Court was about to deliver an opinion in favor of Ellison, one of the Judges dissenting, as the floor fell.

Commodore Vanderbilt Alderman Barker and several others, were arrested for fast driving yesterday and taken to the Manhattanville station house, and after two hours detention they were released.

Chicago, April 20.—The Times' Washington special says that the statements sent hence relative to Indian troubles in the Northwest are exaggerated, and are not official information. The story that 2,000 Sioux are on the war path, the agent of the tribe emphatically denies.

The official vote of the Dominicans show 15,110 for and 110 against Annexation.

CONGRESSIONAL.

In the Senate, Williams, from the Committee on Pacific Railroads, reported with an amendment a bill to authorize the Southern Minnesota Railroad to connect with the Northern Pacific; also, with amendments, a bill to aid in the construction of the Oregon Branch of the Pacific Railroad.

In the House, Logan, from the Military Committee, reported adversely on the bill permitting retired army and navy officers to hold civil offices.

The House in Committee of the Whole to-day reduced the tariff on railroad iron from 70 to 60 cents per hundred.

The Tribune's dispatch says a bill passed the House for the establisment of a Department of Justice, and designed to reduce the expenses now incurred by extra legal services.

Astoria Railroad Bill.

The Senate bill granting lands to aid in the construction of a railroad and telegraph from Portland to Astoria and McMinnville, Oregon, excited a long debate. Holman said the bill appropriated 940,000 acres of public land. He had stated on a former occasion that there were ninety bills pending appropriating over one hundred million acres; he had since learned this estimate was far below the reality, and the number of bills was over one hundred and seventy, appropriating over two hundred and fifty millions. No less than one hundred and fifty million acres were granted to corporations within the last ten years. If that policy were continued it would not be a long time till no public land were left for home-stead and pre emption purposes, for which purposes ten million acres were taken last year. Watch replied to Holman and McCormick spoke briefly in favor of railroad land grants. Smith, of Oregon, argued in support of the bill, as in the interest of settlers present and prospective. At the close of the discussion Holman moved to refer the bill to the Committee on Public Lands, which was negatived by 75 to 93, and the bill was then passed by 97 to 69.

EUROPEAN.

Paris, April 29.—Meetings to discuss matters relative to the Plebiscitum were more turbulent than ever. One held by the opponents of Plebiscitum in this city was dissolved by the authorities because an accusation of the Emperor was proposed. The people separated without a vote, though they expressed their disapproval by cheering for the Republic and singing the Marseillaise. At some of these it was resolved that all those who favor the Republic would vote "no."

About three hundred refugees, who had been compromised in the late troubles in Spain, arrived in France yesterday.

M. Leormina, who at a public meeting last night urged the impeachment of the Emperor, was arrested this morning.

The Cardinal Archbishop Chambers and Bishop Cap have ordered their clergy to vote in the affirmative.

Madrid, April 28.—Outbreaks occurred last evening at Alcola in the province of Soria, and at Santingo, though they were soon repressed. At the latter place over a hundred insurgents were arrested and imprisoned.

A rumor was circulated yesterday, which, however, is generally discredited, that an American Consul was killed at Yeddo by the natives.

A report is received from Madras of a serious outbreak among the native tribes at Newar, 19 miles south of Delphi Two thousand rebelled against the chief and followers. A terrible massacre had taken place. Troops are ordered there.

Canada.

Ottawa, April 29.—In the Commons, Cartier announced that the Red River delegation had been consulted by the Government. Donald Smith, Superintendent of a mission at Red River, was before the House. He recommends a strong force to be sent there.

The following is the proposed compromise to be offered by the Government: First—To organize a small province on both sides of Red River, about 150 miles square, which will cover the settlement of half-breeds. Second—The Legislature shall have control of the public lands of the province. Third—A subsidy shall be granted by the Dominion for Colonial expenses. Fourthly—The balance of the new territory shall be governed from Ottawa.

Three hundred barrels of whisky, seized for alleged frauds on the Treasury some months since, were released to-day on a order from Washington.

The crowd of 12,000 school children and their friends at Woodward's Garden to-day did a large amount of damage, wantonly destroying shrubbery and flowers to the value of many hundred, possibly $2,000.

The fruit growers will hold a meeting Saturday next, when the report of the Conference Committee with the Railroad Company will be made, and the question of the shipment of fruits east this season will be decided.

The jury in the Dwyer murder case went out at 3 o'clock, came in at 6 and stated they could never agree. The Judge asked if it was on questions of law or fact. The foreman replied neither law nor fact, but an outside matter entirely foreign to the case. One juryman said he would stake his life upon their not agreeing. The jury is still out.

HE WAS "THAR."—A passenger who lately came through from the East over the grand continental railroad, tells the following yarn, according to the Virginia Enterprise:

At Promontory, just as the train was starting, a stalwart settler of that region, with long hair and bushy beard, and a hat of tremendous width of brim, dashed up to the station, mounted upon a wild-looking gray mare. Leaping from the animal's back, he threw the reins of a bridle over a post, and bounded into the nearest passenger car, just as the train was moving off. Steadying himself as well as he could, he pulled off his broad-brimmed hat, and taking from it an immense bandana, wiped the perspiration from his brow He then looked about the car with a smile of complacency, and said, 'Wall, I'm here; ain't I? Pretty good dash for it; but I'm here on time. No one in the crowd said a word. That thar old gray mar' o' mine never foodled me yit. If I want to get to a place I get thar sure when I'm a-straddle o' her." No one said a word. "Powerful fine mar' she is." Approaching a Boston man seated in the car, he said: 'Wall, she got me here, didn't she?" No reply from the Hub. "I say she got me here, eh?" No reply. "Readin' a newspaper, are you? Yes, I see—the New York Herald. Don't you never read the New York Tribune?" "No, sir" gruffly replied the Hubite, I don't; I wipe my feet on the Tribune!" "Oh, you do, eh? "Wall, stranger," with an inexpressible serious and comical look, "you jist keep on reading the New York Herald and wipin' your feet on the New York Tribune, and pretty soon you'll have more sense in your heels than you have in your head."

A SCENE AT SALT LAKE.—A correspondent of the Oakland Transcript, writ-from Salt Lake, says: "I witnessed a sight this morning which I will describe, but the circumstance is probably not a fair one from which to draw general inferences. An old farmer drove into the city with a load of country produce for sale. Seated with him were two women, one on either side. One of these dames was old and wrinkled, the other much younger, but decidedly the worse for wear—this female had an infant in her arms. Upon the back seat were two young women and a half-grown boy Both the women caried babies. I, of course, supposed that this party was composed of mother, father and children; judge of my surprise when I learned that the old man was the husband of all four women, and that the old woman was the mother of the young ones. Think of it! One man married to a mother and three daughters! It was perfectly sickening At first I could not believe that human nature could become so degraded; but upon further inquiry of a well known Mormon, I learned that facts were precisely as first stated to me. These promiscuous marriages are by no means uncommon, so I am told. These women all looked evidently contented, at first sight; but upon closer view, I thought I could detect a sort of sense of shame in every one of their faces. They seemed to be carrying a load of shame and degradation that was rapidly burying them to perdition."

HOW TO TREAT WITH INDIANS.—Gen. Pleasanton used to tell an amusing little Indian story. He was once, while stationed at a frontier post, quite surrounded by threatening bands of Cheyennes He wished very much to negotiate a treaty with the Chiefs, but they were too suspicious or hostile to place themselves in his power At length he succeeded in capturing a young Indian of rank, whom he held as a hostage. One day this captive, sullenly stalking about the fort, came upon a soldier who, for want of better amusement, was playing with a child's jumping-jack. The noble savage was transfixed with wonder and admiration. He watched the antics of the little figure in breathless silence for some minutes, then turned and leaped like one mad past the sentinels, over the obstructions, and escaped from the fort. In an incredible short time, however, he returned, leading a deputation of chiefs, who, after spending an hour or so in wrapt contemplation of the jumping-jack, held a solemn council and negotiated the solemn treaty, stipulating as the most important condition, that the marvelous little toy should always remain at the fort. Might it not be well to furnish our Peace Commissioners with a quantity of jumping jacks? They were better, at least, than rifles, tobacco and whisky.

The Red Sea is said to be the hottest place in the world. The atmosphere for about fifty miles on that sea is steamy and sticky. Everything in the shape of iron or steel about a ship takes on a coat of rust. During the summer months no one travels on the Red Sea until compelled by business or military orders to do so. In the winter and spring the passage is delightful. Yet navigation in that body of water is always attended with many dangers. The Red Sea is long and narrow, with sunken rocks and projecting reefs, and counter winds prevail, which produce dangerous currents There are three light houses in the sea, which must be kept by salamander-like men, since the thermometer runs up to one hundred and twenty degrees in July and approaches ninety in early spring.

AN INDIAN RELIC.—As a comment on the current talk in regard to an Indian massacre, Grace Greenwood puts the following in a recent letter:

While on a visit to the Land Office, I was shown by Wilson, the Commissioner, a singular relic of a late fight on the plains. It was a garment taken from an Indian chief after death A shirt of buckskin, made without the usual ornamentation beads and porcupine quills, yet graced with something quite novel in the decorative way—a full, long fringe, formed of the hair of white women and children. It was a ghastly adornment; indeed, the entire garment was a very unpleasant thing to inspect. The only point in it on which the eye could rest without horror or pity was a small round hole, beneath which the raging heart of a human wild beast came one day to a full stop.

The Revolution says that in connection with the new firm of Woodhull, Clamflin & Co., a bank and brokerage exchange for ladies are about to be established in the upper part of New York city, where women can buy and sell stocks, and do all the financial business which they have heretofore to transact through men, or run the gauntlet of Wall street.

Some of the strong minded women denounce matrimony because they say "there is something childish in it." It does have a somewhat infantile squint, we admit.

WEST SIDE RAILROAD BILL PASSED.—The Oregonian announces the receipt on of a telegram from Senator Williams, stating that the Portland, Astoria and McMinnville Railroad Bill has passed the House without amendment. This secures for the counties on that side of the river great benefits in the near futnre, for it will bring them into direct communication with the ocean, so that their products can be shipped with the least possible expense. That the road will stop at McMinnville we have no fear. One branch of it will come direct to Salem, and it will continue up the valley on the west side within a few years, and supply the upper counties with a needed outlet in each direction. The difficulty exists in building the road from Astoria and Portland to McMinnville; from there to the head of the valley the cost of construction will be comparatively light, and it will be easy to command the means for its completion without any Government subsidy.

Nothing is beyond the reach of Yankee ingenuity. A lazy but ingenious New Englander has made a machine for feeding his domestic animals, which enables him to dispense with the help of an attendant, and he himself may lie in his bed as late as he pleases, or smoke by the chimney corner. The machine is a sort of clock arrangement, by which, at certain hours, the food is dropped out of a hopper before the cattle. It is rumored that this genius is now at work on a machine for putting vituals into his own mouth, while his hands are in his pockets.

THE MCFARLAND TRIAL.—The trial of McFarland for the murder of A. D. Richardson has occupied a great share of public attention and an outline of the proceedings comes by telegraph. The full reports, however, are beginning to come in the New York papers. The last numbers of the Police Gazette Day's Doings, and other papers, with full proceedings, are for sale at Yeaton & Boon's News Depot.

TOUCHING.—A few days since, at Waterbury, Conn., a lawyer returned to the railroad ticket agent at that place, one dollar overpaid him in making change For a moment the agent stood speechless, then as the tears poured down his cheeks, he grasped him by the hand and exclaimed, "Please stand still one moment, sir, and let me look at you—honest! and a lawyer, too!"

Right on the heels of the passage of Cullom's Polygamy bill comes this announcement from Utah: "Married in Salt Lake City, Utah, on the 16th instant, in the presence of the Saints, Elder Brigham Young to Mrs. J. R. Martin, Miss L M Pendergast, Mrs. R. M Jenkinson, Miss Susie P. Cleveland and Miss Emily P. Martin, all of Berks County, England."

The Kentucky Legislature proposes to postpone the election of Congressmen until August, 1871, thus leaving that State unrepresented in the next Congress until that time It is boldly announced that it is anticipated that by that time a pretty good understanding will be arrived at as to how the accession of the negroes to voting population of Kentucky will affect the political status of that State.

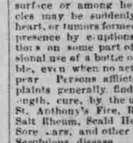
MEDICAL.

AYERS'

HAIR VIGOR,

For Restoring Gray Hair to its Natural Vitality and Color.



A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deliterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a

HAIR DRESSING,

Nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

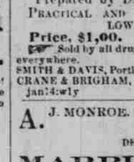
AYER'S SARSAPARILLA,

For Purifying the Blood.



The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are truly marvellous Inveterate cases of Scrofulous disease, where the system seemed saturated with corruption have been purified and cured by it. Scrofulous affections and disorders, which were aggravated by the scrofulous contamination until they were painfully afflicting, have been radically cured in such great numbers in almost every section of the country, that the public scarcely need to be informed of its virtues or utter.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often the unseen and unsuspected agent undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal disease, without exciting a suspicion of its presence Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then on some favorable occasion rapidly develop into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among he vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver, or it shows its presence by eruptions on the skin
