Trial of Fenians.

Canendaigus, N. V., June 22.—The United States Circuit Court was opened yesterday, Judge Woodruff presiding. A. M. Dorsheimer, District Attorney, appeared as prosecutor of Fenian prisoners. The Grand Jury had before them many Fenian officers and citizens, but found no bills. Forty "knownothing" witnesses are here from Malone; Marshel Dunnby's deputies seem to have subpossied all who knew nothing, and it is questionable whether any one will be needed except Gleaton, Starrand Thomp and Judge Woodruff charged strongly against Fenians, and dwelt upon the neagainst Fenians, and dwelt upon the necessity of vigorous enforcement of the

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS

no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, howels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irragular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangoments as are the first origin of dhease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, List-lessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken mederately to stimulter the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

dies of the kind, enlarged penalties, proportioned to the, nature thereof and the importance of the mail, may be made.

Fines will be imposed, unless the delinquency be promptly and satisfactorily explained by certificates of postmasters or the affidavits of other credible persons, for failing to arrive in contract time; for neglecting to take the mail from or deliver it into a post affice, for suffering it to be wet, injured, destroyed, robbed, or lost; and for retuiring, after demind, to convey the mail as frequently as the contractor runs, or is concerned in runing, a convevance on the route.

The Postmaster General may annul the contract for repeated failures to agreeably to contract, for violating the post office laws, or disobeying the its structions of the department.

The Postmaster General may order an increase of the service by allowing therefor a pro rata increase in the contract pay. He may change the schedule of departures and arrivate, provided that by so doing the running time be not abridged.

Each bid must be guaranteed by two responsible persons, certified to be such by a postmaster or a judge of a court of record. The department reserves the right to reject any bid which may be deemed extravagant, and also to disregard the bids of falling contractors and bidders.

atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the har from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deliterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING.

SHOO FLY 1

Phoo! Fly, don't bother me, Phoo! Ply, don't bother me, Shoo! Fly, don't bother me, I'm using "H. H. H." you see.

I think I hear the Jockey say,
My fastest Horse got hurt one day—
He sprained his timbs and spavins of apd made my trotter very lame.
I feel, I feel, I feel—
That's what the trotter said—
I must have "H. H. H." this day,
Yor I am almost dead.

CHORDS-Shoo! Fly, &c. It cures all strains and bruises sore,
No weakened joints we need deplore:
To colice and cramps it shuts the door
This "H. H. H.," or Williams & Moore
I leel, I feel, I feel,
That's what the Jockey said—
4 sick horse needs some "H. H. H."
And good straw for his bed.

FOR COLIC OR CHAMPS It is Instantal FOR COLLI OR CHAMPS It is Instantaneous. To two table spoonfulls of the H. H. add one pint of water and drench the horse, and repeat in ur-gent cases. For man, woman or chird, given in doses from 5 to 20 drops diluted in water, will relieve colto almost instantaneously. "D. D. T." —(Druggists, do kry it.) —THE REST MEDILINE in the market.
