Oregon Weekly Statesman. SATURDAY. Catting up the Carcass. For years past Demogracy dias cast longing eyes at the State Treasthe contents to its own control. The me has come when they hold the keys, and while we wish to make so unfair comments upon their ac tion in all necessary matter, and intend to uphold all honicst dealing on the part of our political opponents. we shall freely use our privilege to expose attempts to fatten on the treasure at the expense of the peoare a pumber of schemes in the last car: only be considered as raids on the treasury, and foremost among these we call atten-Senate Thursday for the creation of the office of assistant Treasurer. The duties of that officer are not arduous, and if sufficiently paid and competent for the position he needs no assistant." At $500 per annum he is not well paid, so we would be willing to make his fees equal to other State officers, but see no justice is premitting them to exceed them. The bill looks to us like a direct piratical attack on the pockcis of the people, as it provides that the Treasurer shall receive fees to wit: for receiving moneys one balf of one per cent; for disbursing moncys one per cent. To realize the extent of these fees let us premise that if the bill immediately becomes a law, the treasurer will receive one per cent. for disbursing the quarter of a million of dollars now on hand, and as the receipts and disbursements for the next two years, allowing for a moderate increase of revenue, wil be not less than $350,000. he will receive one and a half per cent for taking in and paying out that sum, allis incomes then, for the next two years, may be figured un as followstran ar as an ana a a ....$1600
