ST. CHARLES HOTEL .- When at Portand a few days since we stopped at this hotel, which is now kept by Mr. BAILNOAD .--- We understand the this hotel, which is now kept by Mr. Jecobs, well knows to travellers on the coast as lately the popular land-lord of the St. George Botel at Viste-ris. Mr. Jacobs has been at Portisnd but a few weeks but is successful is mainteing the reputation already south lighed for the St. Charles and is ad-ding considerably hereto. The St Charles is a first class house. Manywrinks Logran, -We call attention to the advertisement in to-day's issue, of the Marysville Gift Concert. The scheme is an exceedingly liberal one, and the rates of primes to the number of tickets more advantageous is California. The scheme is under the management of the leading citi-ties and Marysville, whose names are a
