A HYMN BY THE LATE PHOUSE CARY. One sweetly solemn thought Comes to me o'er and o'er ;

I'm nearer my home to-day
Than I ever have been before; Nearer my Father's house, Where the many mapsions be; Nearer the great white throne, Nearer the crystal sea

Nearer the bound of life : Nearer leaving the cross. Nearer gaining the crown.

But the waves of that silent see Roll dark before my sight, That brightly the other Break on a shore of light Father, perfect my trust,

Let my spirit feel in death That her feet are firmly set On the Rock of a living faith.

In noticing the death of Miss Phoebe Cary, (which occurred at Newport, R. I., on the 31st ult.). the N. Y. Tribune publishes the Hymn entitled "Nearer Home," which we give above, and re-
