What a stormful sunset was that of last night? How glorious the storm, and how splendid the setting of the sun! We do not remember ever to have seen the like in our round globe. The scene opened in the west, with a whole horizon full of a golden inter-penetrating luster, which colored the follage and brightened every object into its own rich eyes. The colors grow deeper ensuing richer until the golden luster was transfused into a storm cloud, full of finest lightning, which leaped in dazzling zig-zags all around and over the city. The wind arose with fury, the slender shrubs and giant trees made obeysance to its majesty; some even snapped before its force. The strawberry beds and grass plots "turned up their whites" to see Zephyrus march by. As the rain came and the pools formed, and the gutters hurried away, thunder roared grandly, Stoot the Empress sad, as the day we hurried away, thunder roared grandly. ment and rang with hearty chorus. The south and east received the copious showers, and the west all at once brightened up in a long, polished belt of azure, worthy of a Sieilian sky. Presently a cloud appeared in the azure belt, in the form of a castelated city. It became more vivid, revealing strange forms of peerless fines and allows:

town, in Chileno Valley, on Thursday last. During the early part of the day three men, evidently Spaniards, came to the grocery store of G. Respini and invited to investigate and judge for wished to pawn their fire-arms, consisting of two pistols and a shot-gun.

Respiral accepted and the men called for liquor and drank till they had about exhausted the money for which their articles had been put up. They then went away, taking with them some bottles of liquor. Toward evening one of the men returned and engaged in conversation with the proreletor for a few moments. The other two shortly came in with masks over their faces, seized upon Respini, blind-folded, gagged and bound him, tying his hands behind his back and drawing one foot up close to his hands and tying it to them. After trussing him up in this manner they laid him on the bed in an adjacent room, and went through the safe, taking about $25 in coin and the fire-arms pawned in the morning. They then left, not releasing their victim. He saw a knife ng their victim. He saw a kuife

TWO NIGHTS IN PARIS.

A night in Parts a year ago,
An opera night I remember well;
The glorious city was all aglow,
Looking more brilliant than words am tell;
The lamps flashed out frose the arching trees.
On happy groups of the young and the gay,
And carriages rolled through the Tableries,
With beautiful ladies in bright as ray.
