THE POLK COUNTY COURT.

ED. STATESMAN: - With your correction of the erroneous report of the action of the county court of Polk county in the matter of the application for an appropriation toward the bridge, you failed to make the apology due to Judge Dempsey and Commissioners Kirkland and Collins after your slanderous abuse of those gen-tlemen in your local columns of the 9th

The fact that these gentlemen were chosen by the people of Polk cennty as the best qualified among her citizens to administer the affairs of the county, should relieve them of any unsupported charge of ignorance of its affairs, and when these gentlemen are best known your unprovoked and unjust criticism ex-cised only contempt for the author. Re-

"The man recovered from the bite, The dog it was that died."

Further, from a personal interview with two of the above named gentlemen, I am satisfied that they were perfectly justifiable in the action they took in the bridge matter, and I believe no man will accuse me of being unfriendly to the bridge.

ALBANY, July 9 .- In the circuit court to-day Mattie Allison was granted a change of venue to Marion county on the grounds of prejudice in Linn county. Her trial will come off on October 11th next. The motion to release her on bail was denied by Judge Boise, in compliance with a petition extensively circulated and signed.

The reward for the capture of W. W. Sanders, who escaped from the Lynn county jail, was to-day raised by the county court to $1,500. No reliable information of his whereabouts can be learned, although the search is going on with vigor and diligence.

THE SOLITARY EDITOR.

Once upon a time a real editor, by some strange chance, found himself along with one of those editorial excursions that you frequently read about. There were a couple of hundred in the party, but he felt very lonesome. Not only that, but he was looked upon with suspicion and mistrust by the other fellows, who wondered what business he had there anyhow. One veteran traveller on a dead-beat pass that he wasn't entitled to said that he had been on scores of editorial excursions, and that was the first time that an editor, that is to say, a real, bona fide editor, had ever shown up. If this thing was encouraged, he felt that the editorial excursion was doomed. Its epitaph might as well be some strange chance, found himself decomed. Its epitaph might as well be written. So with one accord they all sat down on the solitary editor, and made it so uncomfortable for him that he got off the train at the first stopping place and returned home.—(Texas Sciftings.

QUEEN OF THE QUILL WAS SHE.

When Mrs. Stowe was in England Queen Victoria sent her word that a cer-tain day she would be pleased to see the author of "Uncle Tom's Cabin." Mrs. Stowe replied that she had an engage-ment for that day. But the queen would see her, and sent a lady-in-waiting—a personal friend of Mrs. Stowe—to make the necessary arrangement for an obser-vation. There was to be a pageant of some kind that day in which the queen would take part, passing the hotel where Mrs. Stowe was residing, and the royal messenger had agreed to place her hand on the author's left shoulder to distinguish her from those with her on the balcony as the procession passed. So Queen Victoria and the distinguished American gased at each other for a few moments in silent recognition, but Mrs. Stowe was not pleased that she was out-

The fatal rapidity with which Colds and Coughs frequently de late the gravest maladies of the and harge, is a consideration which impel every pradent person to ke hand, as a household remedy, a hot AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.

Nothing rise gives such immediate

Nothing case gives such immediate relief and works so sure a cure in all affections of this class. That eminent physicians, Prof. F. Sweetzer, of the Maine Medical School, Brunswick, Mc., says:—

"Medical schools has produced no other anotype expectation of pool as Avente Caurant Prevenue. It is incubable for disease of the threat and lungs."

The same opinion is expressed by the well-known Dr. L. J. Addison, of Chicago, IR., who says:—

"I have never found, in thirty-five years of continuous study and practice of medicine, any preparation of so great vature at XPES CHERKY PROTORAL, for treatment of discusses of the throat and lungs. It not only breaks up colds and cures sware coughs, but is more effective than anything else in relieving even the most serious bronchial and pulmonary affections."

AYER'S Cherry Pectoral

Is not a new claimant for popular confidence, but a medicine which is to-day saving the lives of the third generation who have come into being since it was first offered to the public.

There is not a household in which this invaluable remedy has once been introduced where its use has ever been abandoned, and there is not a person who has ever given it a proper trial for any throat or lung disease susceptible of cure, who has not been made well by it.

well by it.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has, in numberless instances, cured obstinute cases of chronic Bronchitis, Larnygritis, and even neute Pneumonia, and has caved many patients in the earlier stages of Fullmonary Consumption. It is a medicine that only requires to be taken in small doses, is pleasant to the taste, and is needed in every house where there are children, as there is nothing so good as AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL for treatment of Croup and Whooping Cough.
