LOST IN THE MOUNTAINS.—Saturday, says the Hillsboro paper, Charles King and his son, aged 15 years, residents of this county, went out on a hunt into the Nehalem mountains and got lost.

HE TOOK THEM IN.—The Welcome, of Portland, says: "We notice by our exchanges that the fellow who took in so many young men in Portland by representing that he was selling a few remnants of cloths brought by him as samples from Leeds, must have an inexhaustible supply, for he is now 'doing' the Willamette valley.

THEIR TWENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY.—Agreeably to a general invitation extended several days ago, the friends of Elder and Mrs. Webb met at the Christian church parlors last night and celebrated informally the twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding.

DOUBLE DROWNING.—Wm. Fent and Emma Reed, a couple of rather doubtful reputation, were drowned in the Willamette, at Portland, on Saturday evening, while returning in a rowboat to the city from a resort at Ross's island.

THE IMMIGRATION CAR.—The immigration car, which is to make the tour of the eastern states, in charge of D. D. Prettymann, of this city, will be attached to the east bound train to-day over the Northern Pacific and started on its journey.

G. A. R. EXCURSIONISTS.—A great many G. A. R. excursionists from San Francisco have been in this city the past few days taking in the country. Quite a number came up from Portland Saturday evening and stayed over Sunday, while most made the round trip yesterday.

ARM BROKEN.—Yesterday, John Westley, an employe on the farm of Dr. Reynolds, about four miles north of town, was unfortunate enough to sustain a compound fracture of the forearm by receiving a kick from a horse that he was driving.

YOUTHFUL DEPREDATORS.—Some youthful miscreants, without the fear of the law in their hearts, entered the cigar stand of Wm. Stanton, near the new bridge, Sunday night, and tore up the counters and shelves, evidently being in search of the noxious weed, commonly known as tobacco. They got nothing.

TO BE MARRIED.—Cards received in this city announce the engagement of Miss Frances Meyer, formerly of this city, to Felix Greenbaum, the marriage rites to be solemnized in San Francisco on the 29th of this month.

THE ASYLUM HOPS.—The amusement evening, at the asylum, has been changed, and henceforth the asylum dances will occur on Monday and Thursday evenings.

ARM TORN OFF.

Leonard Woolen's Arm goes Through a Threshing Machine, at Silverton.

SILVERTON, Aug. 15th, 1886. ED. STATESMAN:—I have to record a very sad accident that happened on the farm of Mr. Hartman, on the Abiqua, north of this place, yesterday.

Leonard Woolen, who was at work on a threshing machine, was the victim of the accident. The feeder of the machine became clogged, and Mr. Woolen got on top of the separator to adjust the difficulty, and, by some unknown manner, fell on the cap, over the cylinder.

Mr. Woolen is a steady, hard working young man, and, although maimed for life by the accident, his many friends have hope that he may survive the fearful catastrophe. It is a terrible blow to his aged parents, who were with him during the amputation, and did all they could to alleviate his suffering.

COMING HOME.—Captain H. F. Beecher, son of the great mugwump, Henry Ward Beecher, says the News, will arrive to-day from Washington. It will be remembered that the senate refused to confirm Mr. Beecher as collector of customs at Port Townsend.

SAD ACCIDENT.—An unknown family, possibly from Salem, on its way to Nestucca, for the purpose of rusticating, while near the Grande Ronde agency, about five miles beyond the toll gate, on the Nestucca road, met with a sad accident. The mother was holding her babe in her arms, and, while going down a grade, the wagon gave a lurch, and threw her and her babe from the seat to the ground.

TWO BRIDGES AT PORTLAND.—A Portland paper says H. C. Crimble has arrived there, to take charge of the work of construction of the Morrison street bridge. He was out on the river Saturday, taking soundings, preliminary to commencing work.

DOUGHERTY FIRED.—Most of the readers of this paper have probably noticed that there has been a controversy going on for some time past between J. B. McCrane, of this place, recently appointed Indian agent at Grande Ronde, and Dr. Dougherty, the physician and clerk at that reservation.

WILL VISIT SALEM.—Chas. A. Brown, New England passenger agent of the Chicago, Milwaukee, and St. Paul railroad, who has his office in the "old state house" building at Boston, Mass., will arrive in this city to-day.

LEFT ROSEBURG.—Mark F. Jones, formerly of this city, but recently of Roseburg, has left that city, and gone to California. He has taken his family, and thereby deprived the boys' band of its main support.

THE BRIDGE.—The workmen began to drive piles for pier No. 2, yesterday. Each pier will contain twelve piles, each set from twenty feet to a greater depth in the ground. Pier No. 1 has been shipped from San Francisco, and is expected here Thursday or Friday.

PERSONAL.—A. R. Lytle of Prineville, one of the heaviest wool growers in the Ochoco valley, has been in the city some time laying in his supplies, and visiting friends. He will start on his way home to-day, via the Lebanon trail.

FROM WEDNESDAY'S DAILY.

A MUSICAL ENTERTAINMENT.—On the evening of Friday, August 27th, the music loving portion of this city will be given an entertainment, the like of which has not been held in Salem for a long time.

BISHOP HARRIS.—Bishop W. L. Harris, who will preside at the conference to meet at Forest Grove on the 26th, was at Union, Oregon, and Port Townsend, W. T., last week.

PERSONAL.—Chas. A. Brown, New England passenger agent of the Chicago, Milwaukee, and St. Paul railroad, was in the city yesterday, accompanied by B. F. Dyer of Boston, and their wives.

THE ANNIVERSARY.—On Monday evening, an English tea was given by the Christian church, corner of Center and High streets, in honor of the 25th anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Webb's wedding, which occurred at Melbourne, Australia, in 1861.

BAND HIRED.—The state board of Agriculture has secured the services of the Silverton band to play during the coming state fair, the contract price being $105. They will play the entire week.

ON HIS WAY TO OREGON.—Gov. Moody has received word from Gen. Logan and Gov. Alger, of Michigan, that they will be in Oregon soon, coming by way of Taquima, W. T.

SCHOOL BOARD.—The board of school directors met last evening; all present except J. G. Wright. Bids for painting the Central school houses, inside and out, were received, and read as follows:

SHOOTING AFFRAY.—A shooting affray occurred about two miles east of Corvallis, Linn county, last Monday. Two men named Parritt and Martin have had considerable trouble over some land that was leased by Martin of Parritt's wife, and the difficulty culminated in Parritt shooting and seriously wounding Martin.

PRESCRIPTIONS.—Squibbs' celebrated medicines used exclusively in physician's prescriptions at Port's drug store, 100 State street. Goods delivered free of charge to any part of town.

AN OLD RESIDENT.

A Man who has been Sixty-one Years in Oregon—A Veteran of Eighty-one Years.

Tuesday a representative of the STATESMAN had the pleasure of meeting a man who has resided in Oregon for one and sixty years. The name of the gentleman is John Baptiste Gobin, and he resides on the Champoeg road, about eight miles north of Salem.

When a youth of twenty John Gobin joined a party of 180 men that had been formed in 1825 by the Hudson Bay company to come to Oregon to trap and hunt and do such other work as might be required by them.

After being fifteen years in the employ of the company Mr. Gobin came up to French Prairie and took up a claim, and he has resided there ever since. Portland was then a mud-hole and Salem a howling wilderness.

When questioned as to whether or not he knew Rev. J. L. Parrish, of this city, Mr. Gobin asked the reporter if he meant "Parrish, the blacksmith?"

Mr. Gobin has been married three times, and is the father of eleven children, only three of whom are now living.

THE "MOUNTAIN PARTY."—For sundry reasons, the far famed "Mountain Party" has of late years discontinued its annual pilgrimage to the old camp ground, near Don Smith's, above Mehama.

CAUGHT A FAWN.—While the Oregon Pacific passenger train was winding through the mountain curves on Monday afternoon, on its way from Corvallis to Yaquina City, it overtook and ran down a good sized fawn or young deer, in its spots.

LOCATED AT FRESNO.—Dr. A. G. Deardorff, formerly of Jefferson, but who more recently practiced his profession in this city, has located permanently at Fresno, California, where he will be joined by Mrs. Deardorff some time next month.

TRAIN WRECKED.—Freight train No. 6, that left this city yesterday, at 10.30 a. m., met with an accident, when rounding the last curve this side of Aurora.

PARTY RETURNED.—The party consisting of Eugene Willis, Dave Latourette, and Thos. Davis, which went up to Fish lake two or three weeks ago, has returned, and reports having had a splendid time. They caught more fish than they wanted, and killed eight deer and one bear.

THE SANTIAM BRIDGE.—Reports received at this office state that it was expected that work would begin on the narrow gauge railroad bridge across the Santiam at West Stayton yesterday. The mills there are getting out the lumber.

FROM SATURDAY'S DAILY.

A KICKER.—Yesterday morning Wm. Murphy, of Howell Prairie, who had seen it intimated in the columns of the STATESMAN that a new bridge was being built at Salem, across the Willamette river, hitched up his fiery steed and came to town at a 2:40 gate to see the aforesaid new bridge.

HOME FROM WASHINGTON.—Hon. Binger Hermann, member of congress for Oregon, passed up the road on Tuesday, to his home in Roseburg, having arrived in Portland on Monday evening, over the Short Line.

SALEM ILLUSTRATED.—The last number of the West Shore contains some very fine illustrations of some of Salem's buildings and streets.

EXPECTED TO-DAY.—Major Frank E. Hodgkin, assistant secretary of state, is expected to arrive home to-day, via Yaquina.

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION.—Articles have been filed in the office of the secretary of state incorporating the Portland reduction works; F. J. Carrel, W. A. Jones, Chas. F. Powell, Z. F. Moody, Jacob Kamm, and H. L. Pittcock, incorporators; capital stock, $50,000, divided into 500 shares of $100 each; place of business, Portland.

AT SILVERTON.—Elder J. W. Webb and his daughter Emily were yesterday at Silverton, assisting at the first quarterly meeting of the W. C. T. U.

NEW RESIDENCE.—There is being a new residence erected in North Salem by A. T. Yeaton, on one of his recently purchased lots.

NEW BARN.—Dr. Jessup and Robert Thompson are building new barns, in place of those which were burned down a couple of months ago.

COMMISSIONS ISSUED.—Gov. Moody has issued the following commissions: Chas. F. Beebe, captain; E. K. Adams, first lieutenant; and W. M. Ladd, second lieutenant, of company K, O. S. M., Portland, Oregon.

CROPS.—In the neighborhood of Silverton threshing is nearly over. Crops turned out as well as anticipated, some of them going thirty bushels to the acre.

BRIEF MENTION.

DRESSMAKING.—Mrs. A. H. Farrar's. A fine lot of venison hams just received from Southern Oregon, and are on sale to-day at Amos Strong's.

A man hunted all around the country, and at last dropped into Gilbert & Patterson's and bought his groceries, so that he could be sure of good articles.

This is the last day of our grand clearance sale. Come one and all, and take advantage of our cost prices, at the great cash store next door to the post office. A. Mayer.

A GOOD CAPTURE.

A Chinaman Steals $107 from a Lady in Broad Daylight—The Thief Captured.

About four o'clock yesterday afternoon, Mrs. Walter G. Pugh, who lives in the cottage on Chemekeeta street near the railroad, was out calling, and went into Mrs. Ramp's, on the corner of Capitol and Division streets.

When she was in the house, a Chinaman that had been trying to get a job of sawing wood, came out, and, seeing the purse, of course, presto, the Chinaman and purse vanished. When Mrs. Pugh came out, she discovered the purse was gone, and the only clue she could give for an officer to work on, was that this Chinaman had been there, and had passed out.

A search revealed the fact that he was the thief, without a doubt, as he had all the money except a little silver that he had just lost at gambling. The purse and its other contents he had thrown away, as they were not found on his person.

TAKEN FOR PENNOYER.—The good people of Newport, on Yaquina bay, were expecting Governor-elect Pennoyer to arrive in from Portland and Corvallis on Saturday evening.

VERY SICK.—Hon. Geo. W. McBride, recently elected secretary of state, is lying very sick at his home in St. Helens. It will be remembered that a year or so ago, Mr. McBride had his leg broken in a runaway accident, and that when he was nearly recovered from the effects of the first mishap, he injured his leg and was again confined to his room.

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION.—Articles have been filed in the office of the secretary of state incorporating the Portland reduction works; F. J. Carrel, W. A. Jones, Chas. F. Powell, Z. F. Moody, Jacob Kamm, and H. L. Pittcock, incorporators; capital stock, $50,000, divided into 500 shares of $100 each; place of business, Portland.

MINNIE HAUK.—It is expected that Miss Minnie Hauk, the prima donna, will visit this country some time in September, and if proper inducements are offered she may come to Salem.

THE NEW BLOCK.—The contract for the new brick block on Commercial street, between the First National Bank building and the Starkey block, will be let as soon as the plans are finished.

THE BAND BOYS.—The Juvenile band was out last night, playing at the crossing of Court and Commercial streets. The boys are improving very fast under Prof. Coomer's leadership, and are getting so they make very fair music.

BUSINESS OFFICES.—The upper story of the building of the State insurance company is being fitted up by the company into three new offices. The rooms when completed will be large, comfortable, well ventilated and convenient.
